Club President

Mrs. Charles Stewart, president of the Arcadia Woman's Club, who concludes a successful year and turns over the gavel of office, in June, to her successor, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh Elected Club President For Next Year

Bright May flowers in baskets and flat arrangements on the luncheon tables, stage and loge formed a delightful setting for the luncheon and meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club held in the clubhouse yesterday afternoon with the president, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart presiding.

Seated at the president's table were the four guest speakers, Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Allen of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Ridland recently from Bombay, India; the club trustees, Mrs. W. E. Larsh, Mrs. George Needham, Mrs. C. C. Hoffman, the club program chairman, Mrs. A. R. Chambers, and Rev. and Mrs. N. Milo Fiske.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Ridland, each spoke of his and her experiences in accepting and following the Oxford group standards of living and behavior. These talks were most impressive.

New Officers Elected

Of special importance during the business meeting, was the annual election of officers which was carried through without contest for any of the nine offices to be filled.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh was elected to the office of president. The first vice-president was Mrs. James A. Stoker; second vice-president, Mrs. H. E. Reiss; recording secretary, Mrs. E. J. Frentress; corresponding secretary, Mrs. B. Rubottom; federation secretary, Mrs. W. E. Larsh; treasurer, Mrs. John Murfett; program chairman, Mrs. C. E. Hoover; Parliamentarian, Miss Eva Reynolds. These officers will be installed at the first club meeting in June.

Delegates who gave brief reports of the recent district federation convention included the club president, Mrs. Stewart, and Miss Reynolds, Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff as alternate, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Meade, Mrs. Larsh, Mrs. Ardene Boller, federation secretary, and Mrs. John Renshaw, the president's alternate.

Final Payment Made

By a unanimous vote of the members present, the treasurer was authorized to pay the final balance of indebtedness on the addition to the clubhouse, built the past summer. This payment was made possible because of the excellent financial returns from the recent party held by the club at the Turf clubhouse. The substantial balance will be placed in the permanent building fund.

The Woman's club expressed its appreciation to the Turf club management and to the manager of the concessions, for the courtesies and privileges extended in connection with the party, which was declared to be a greater success in every way than the similar party held there last year.

Vocal Selections

As a lovely finish to the interesting meeting came the vocal selections sung by Miss Edith MacDonald, director of music of the Arcadia schools who accompanied herself in a group of five charming numbers.

Responsible for the excellent luncheon were Mrs. Hugh Sanborn, chairman, Mesdames Luella Phelps, Edith Gruben, Olive Hoffman, Irene Stoker, Florence Endicott, Elizabeth Walker, Jennie Holmgreen and for the effective table decorations, Mrs. Gertrude Schenck.

Eleanor Lucas Married At Home Ceremony

In the living room of her parents' home, Miss Eleanor Lucas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lucas, 379 West Norman avenue, became the bride of William D. Gibbs, of Los Angeles, yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock with Rev. Glaude Smith, pastor of the Reorganized Church of the Latter Day Saints of Los Angeles, performing the ceremony.

The tall pink gladiolis, white canterbury bells, palms and ferns, with which the living room was decorated made a lovely floral background for the wedding party.

Reception Follows

The bride was attended by Miss Louvisa Gibbs, sister of the groom as maid of honor, and Miss Doris Lucas, her 14-year-old sister. Phillip Gibbs, brother of the groom, acted as bestman, and Fred Lucas was the other attendant.

A reception and buffet supper for close relatives of the bride and groom was held in the charming gardens of the Lucas home following the marriage rites.

The gown of the bride was delicate white lace made princess style. She wore a short veil and an orchid corsage. The maid of honor wore pink organza with a short matching jacket and a corsage of tea roses. Little Miss Lucas, the bride's sister, wore bouffant pink taffeta with a corsage of talisman rsoes.

After a short honeymoon spent in quaint, old Monterey, the young couple will be at home at 1949 East Arcadia avenue, where they plan to hold an "at home" June 19.

Miss Gibbs is prominent in Arcadia social circles, and is president o fthe Junior Women's club. She was educated at Manual Arts high school and Los Angeles junior college. The groom attended Manual Arts high school and Cumnock school at Los Angeles where he is also in business for himself.

History Club Meets In Garden

Historical facts more interesting than fiction were brought out at the annual picnic of the California History section of the Arcadia Woman's club, Wednesday afternoon at "Sylvania," home of Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, chairman of the group.

Luncheon was served outdoors under the great oak tree and garden flowers on the tables gave a touch of contrast to the creamy magnolia blossoms brought by Mrs. R. H. Schwarzkopf as a gift to the hostess. Mrs. J. M. MacFarlane, Mrs. George Barngrover and Mrs. Charles Lumpkin composed the luncheon committee.

Reelected Chairman

Mrs. Timerhoff was reelected chairman for the forthcoming year, and grateful acknowledgement was made to C. M. Needham for the gift of a blackboard as an aid to study of Spanish names.

Many pilgrimages for next year will be planned, the chairman announced.

Tells History

Miss Elizabeth Schermerhorn gave the story of Rancho Santa Anita and the interesting data surrounding its naming and Mrs. Winfield Schoaf, membership chairman, Shakespeare Club of Pasadena, told of the current compiling of the history of each family arriving in California prior to 1905 and asked that members submitting papers hand them in typed to Mrs. Timerhoff for recording in San Francisco.

Famous Man

Telling of her years as secretary of Colis P. Huntington, railroad magnate and founder of Huntington Art gallery, Mrs. E. M. Rush, lecturer, poet and editor of the Hollywood Anthology of Poetry, now in its third edition, entertained the members with a sparkling recital of conferences in which she sat with Mr. Huntington when Senator Joe Cannon, Illinois, was trying to take the California Breakwater, now Los Angeles harbor, to Santa Monica instead of San Pedro. She later married E. F. Rush first shipping agent of California fruit.

Historical Highlights

The members spent the first half hour of the program reporting historical highlights learned in their studies during the past winter that ranged from Coyotes to a five hour conference on the history of San Marino Rancho between Henry Huntington and R. H. Schwarzkopf that held up the dinner hour in the former's home.

Group Sing

Following the program the group spent the rest of the afternoon in the Timerhoff home where many travel souvenirs added to the interest of the occasion. Mrs. Lumpkin played on the lovely old organ and the group sang "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" as a finale.

Guests Named

Guests included Mesdames Mark Millspaugh, J. Stoker, H. Reiss, John Renshaw, J. MacFarlane, G. Barngrover, R. H. Schwarzkopf, E. Prentress, B. Rubottom, E. Perry, C. Hoover, Laura B. Daniels, J. Juniors Hold Installation

In the Women's clubhouse last night Mrs. Rex P. Harbert, district chairman of Juniors Federation of Women's clubs, formally installed the governing officers of the Arcadia Junior Women's club for the forthcoming club year.

Officers presented with miniature govels by Mrs. Harbert denoting heir badge of office were Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, president, Miss Virginia Hostutler, vice president; Miss Eleanor Ott, secretary, and Miss Virginia Brown, treasurer. As Mrs. Genevieve Nutter was the only new officer on the board, Miss Gertrude Dickinson, outgoing program chairman, presented her with the gavel at the request of Mrs. Harbert. Miss Dickinson also presented a president's pin to Mrs. Gibbs on behalf of the board for her splendid work during the past year.

Gowns and Bouquets

The officers wore attractive formal gowns and carried a French bouquet during the ceremony and Mrs. Harbert and the three retiring sponsors, Mrs. John Hostutler, Mrs. Harold Johns and Mrs. J. W. Schweisthal as well as Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, new president of the Arcadia Woman's club, were presented with a bouquet; the sponsors were given dainty evening handkerchiefs as a gift from the club.

Miss Norma Parks, violinist, played two solos, "Minuet in G" and "Lullaby," the latter by Brahms, accompanied by Miss Eleanor Hoagland at the piano.

Decorations were colorful and included two huge baskets of summer flowers flanking the stage and low bowls of multi-colored garden flowers on the refreshment tables.

Miss Dorothy Walters and Mrs. Marie Wiley were responsible for the decorations and Miss Dorothy Mitchell, Miss Grace Mitchell, Miss Belle Royal, Miss Carol Vassalo and Mrs. Mary Bellinger served on the refreshment committee.

Guests present besides those named above were Mrs. Cora Benty, Miss Alta Faye Post, Mrs. F. W. Brown, Miss Florence Reynolds, Miss Ethel Rubottom, Miss Eva N. Reynolds, Mrs. Henry Riese, Miss Marjorie Dickson, Mrs. Lillian Liger, Mrs. Olla Moore, Miss Frances Taylor and Mrs. Harriet Lucas.

Announcement was made that although the official club season is closed until fall various social affairs will be held during the summer months the first on schedule being the potluck supper tentatively set for July 21 at Santa Anita park.

Reciprocity Day Observed At Woman's Club

Reciprocity day at the Sierra Madre Women's club, 270 West Sierra Madre boulevard, was attended by more than a hundred members and guests Wednesday, with 50 from out of town representing the various Women's clubs of the district.

Garden Program and Tea

Blossoming plants and trees, gay summer frocks and tea table decorations presented a colorful scene in the clubhouse gardens where Mrs. Al S. Myers, president of the local club, charmingly presided over the day's activities.

An outdoor program by Mrs. Nina Norris, accomplished whistler and accordion player, included selections accompanied by her daughters, Peggy and Katherine, on base viol and harp.

Lucia Trent contributed to the program by reading a group of her poems in her usual charming manner.

The program was followed by a social time and tea served by Mmes. Robert Newberry, William H. Schwartz, Robert McCullagh, Elizabeth Turner, C. H. Sandage M. A. Copps and J. Andrew Hall. Mrs. W. J. Lawless and Mrs. A. E. Pulling, past presidents of the club, poured. Tea table decorations were in charge of Mrs. W. S. Hull.

Guests Greeted

Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. John H. Robertson, first sponsor of the Sierra Madre Junior club, assisted by Mrs. Mabel Thayer.

Among out of town guests representing clubs of the district were: Mrs. Edward Kromer, treasurer of the California Federation of Women's clubs, Los Angeles district; Mrs. W. S. McEacher, Altadena; Mrs. G. Geiffert, Azusa; Mrs. M. G. Millspaugh, Arcadia; Miss Elizabeth Elliott, Covina; Mrs. Grace Rhodre, El Monte; Mrs. W. J. Hathway, Monrovia; Mrs. Reinke, San Gabriel; Miss Genevien Shaw, Pasadena Study club; Coriene Davidson, Baldwin Park; Mrs. J. L. Corle, Rosemead; Mrs. Una M. Smith, Wilmar; and Mrs. Emily Potter and Mrs. Frances Stevens, Garvey Women's club.

Other clubs represented were from Los Angeles, Van Nuys, Pasadena, Puente, Montebello, Burbank, Huntington Park and Bell.

Arcadians Hear Mrs. Dunbar Make Ringing Speech

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president of the Woman's club, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, junior past president, and Mrs. James Stoker, first vice president, were among the 400 women who heard Mrs. Saidie Orr Dunbar, president of the General Federation of Women's clubs make a ringing address at the reception and luncheon given in her honor at the Wilshire-Ebell club in Los Angeles yesterday.

Democracy and Human Welfare

Mrs. Dunbar spoke on "Adjusting Democracy to Human Welfare," which she has chosen for the theme of the General Federation of Women's clubs work for the three years she will hold the guiding reins.

Mrs. Dunbar stated that at the triennial convention of the federation held last month in Kansas City all speeches could be classed under the three headings of human welfare, universal speech and return to religious concepts. It was after hearing these speeches, she said, that she decided upon her own theme.

She emphasized the idea that individuals must do all in their power if our democracy—the greatest in the world—is to be safely adjusted to human welfare.

Noted Guests

Noted guests included Mrs. Thomas Winter, past president of the General Federation, Mrs. Clara Burdette, and Miss Josephine Seaman, past presidents of the California Federation, Mrs. Duncan Stewart-Robinson, president of the California Federation, and Mrs. John Stearns Thayer, president of the Los Angeles District Federation.

The Salon String Trio provided an interesting musical program.

Women's Club Notes Successful Year During 1937-38; Another Banner Schedule Is Programmed

Ever standing for the best and finest in civic endeavors and aims has been the Woman's Club of Arcadia since its organization by a small band of pioneering women, who met at the home of an Arcadian on May 19, 1914, and formed one of the pioneer clubs of the state.

Calling themselves the "Cooperative Arcadians," the group was instrumental in doing much fine civic work, assisting in building the city hall, Red Cross work during the World War, establishment of the first library, obtaining of a librarian and erecting an old cobblestone drinking fountain at old Huntington drive and Santa Anita.

Joins Federation

It was not until 1924 that the club became affiliated with the General Federation of Women's Clubs, four years after adopting the new name, "Woman's Club of Arcadia."

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh took office in June and will head the club during the coming year. She stated that the club now has 143 senior members, and 23 junior members, and that the beautiful clubhouse erected in 1931 at 324 South First avenue, has only a small encumbrance.

Improvements Made

During the past year under the leadership of Mrs. C. W. Stewart, the club made many improvements in its equipment, adding a much needed storeroom to the kitchen, a shiny new stove, and a complete new service of crockery.

Officers serving on the executive board with Mrs. Millspaugh will be Mrs. J. A. Stoker, first vice-president; Mrs. H. E. Riess, second vice-president; Mrs. E. J. Frentress, recording secretary; Mrs. B. Rubottom, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. E. Larsh, Fedeartion secretary; Mrs. John Murfett, treasurer; Mrs. C. E. Hoover, program chairman; Mrs. George Needham Mrs. C. C. Hoffman, trustees, and Miss Eva Reynolds, parliamentarian.

Junior Officers Named

Junior officers are Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, president; Miss Virginia Hostutler, vice-president; Miss Eleanora Ott, treasurer; Miss Virginia Brown, treasurer, and Mrs. Genevieve Nutter, program chairman.

Among the pet civic enterprises of the Woman's Club is the sponsoring of Boy Scout Troop No. 5, with Mrs. A. R. Chambers acting as club advisor, and H. N. Dickinson, chairman of the men's auxiliary board. Many benefit card parties are given each year, the largest being the annual spring dance and card party at the Turf club at Santa Anita.

Two of the most active sections of the club are the garden section under the chairmanship of Mrs. Nellie White, and the history and landmarks section, under Mrs. Emily Mann Timerhoff. The garden sections hold an annual flower show at the clubhouse during the fall, and a peach blossom day each spring.

Meet October to June

Club meetings are held from October to June, the first and third Wednesdays of each month. During the summer members of the executive board are busy making plans for the forthcoming club year.

The club has chosen as its aim: objects, "Intellectual and civic improvement, social enjoyment, mutual help," and with a woman of the type of Mrs. Millspaugh at the helm the members are expecting those ideals to be truly realized this year.

Writer Follows The "Trail Of The Padres" By Foot

One of the highlights of the California History and Landmarks section of California Federation of Women's clubs at San Fernando mission, Thursday, was the interesting talk given by John Herrington, writer, regarding his experiences while following the trail of the padres by foot along El Camino real, from San Fernando mission to Sonoma mission.

Historical Data

Much interesting historical data was gleaned along the way by Mr. Herrington for his article, which was later published in Westways magazine, and many unusual experiences occurred to him during his walking trip.

Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, former president of the Los Angeles group, and present section chairman of Arcadia Woman's club, reminisced about the dedication day at San Fernandoo when the statue of Fray Junipera Serra was unveiled.

The members and guests were later conducted through the mission by Oblate Brother James Hart. Snapshots were taken of the old church and adjoining structures erected in 1797, and visits were made to the old wine vats, where Indian acolytes trod the grapes, laving the feet first in the adjacent stone bowl. Decorations, cornices, rawhide-tied rafters, tools for curving tiles, wooden plows, and so on, were carefully inspected by the visitors.

Arcadians Present

Arcadians who joined the group besides Mrs. Timerhoff included Mesdames James MacFarlane, Bert Rubottom, John Renshaw, and Miss Florence Reynolds. Many others wished to go, Mrs. Timerhoff reported, but unfortunately transportation facilities could not be arranged in time.

JUNIORS TO MEET AT PRESIDENT'S HOME

Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, president, will be hostess at the next meeting of the Arcadia Junior Woman's club, to be held next Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at her home, 1949 Arcadia avenue, Temple City.

All members are asked to be present as this is an especially important meeting at which final details for the Juniors' Spanish dance scheduled for the Woman's clubhouse, Saturday night, September 17, are to be completed.

LOCAL CLUBWOMEN TO PRESIDE OVER BOOTH

When the Pomona Fair opens on Friday, September 16, members of Arcadia Woman's club Juniors will preside over the Los Angeles District California Federation of Women's clubs' food booth.

The booth will be the subject of a radio broadcast at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning, September 10, over Station KNX. Appearing on the program will be Mesdames F. Ray Elsey, Alan Dibble, R. J. Morrison and Eugene Brockway of Los Angeles district.

Mrs. Brockway, who is in charge of the booth, will be on the fair grounds from September 12 until October 4 to look after all details. There will be hostesses on duty at the booth each day of the fair with a district director.

The Arcadia clubwomen will be Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, and Misses Barbara Geiger, Eleanor Ott, and Virginia Brown.

Juniors Decide Details Of Spanish Dance

Arcadia Woman's club Juniors met last night at the home of their president, Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, 1949 Arcadia avenue, San Gabriel, to decide upon final details of their first fall dance to be given on Saturday night, September 17 at the Woman's clubhouse. The affair will be semi-formal and will have a Spanish motif.

Committee heads named for the affair include Misses Margaret Brown, Dorothy Walters, Barbara Geiger, Eleanor Ott, Virginia Brown, Virginia Hostutler and Mrs. Gibbs.

Candy Booth

It was announced that the Juniors will sponsor a candy booth at the Community carnival for the benefit of the Arcadia Community church fund which will be held on September 19 at the E. E. Timerhoff home. Members who will conduct the booth are Misses Eleanor Ott, Virginia Brown, Barbara Geiger, Virginia Hostutler, Marjorie Dickson, Dorothy Walters, and Mesdames Kay Thompson and Eleanor Lucas Gibbs.

At the conclusion of the business meeting the members spent the evening playing bridge and Chinese checkers, and later dainty refreshments served by the hostess were enjoyed.

Committees Now Working On Club's Program

With the formal opening of the club year less than a month away officers and committee chairmen of Arcadia Women's club have shifted into high in an endeavor to finish final details surrounding programs and club activities before October 5, the date of the club's first fall meeting.

Work With Chairmen

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, has spent the summer working very closely with her official family that she may present an interesting outline of work to be done during the year. These chairmen include Mrs. C. E. Hoover, program chairman; Mrs. Lulu Reynolds, finance; Mrs. Ethel M. Watson, membership; Miss Marjorie M. Hesse, press; Mrs. Maybelle Moore, press book; Mrs. Jessie Stewart, hospitality; Mrs. Verona Young, courtesy; Mrs. Margaret McMaster, stage decorations; Mrs. Emmy L. Kaskel, philanthropy; Mrs. Harold Lumpkin, music, and Mrs. Marie Chambers, Boy Scout Troop No. 5.

Mrs. Hoover, assisted by Mrs. Charles Lumpkin and Mrs. James Craig, committee members, is arranging a tentative schedule of artists and speakers that includes such stellar personalities as Leo Carillo, Eddie Albright, Mrs. Alice Field, representative of Will Hay's office, Elaine Anderson Dudley, Pauline Hollen, radio artist of KEHE, Judge Milne, superintendent of Whittier Boys' school, and Frances Farmer Wilder, of Columbia Broadcasting corporation.

Main Speaker

For the opening day program she has arranged for Senora De Borja, noted for her charm of manner and vividness of presentation, to appear as guest speaker. Senora De Borja will discuss "The Fine Art of Living in Latin America." She will be assisted by her pretty daughter, Claudia, who will dance a group of authentic South American dances.

To correlate the work of this club with the aims of the Los Angeles District Federation, Mrs. Hoover and Mrs. Millspaugh will present qualified speakers from time to time to discuss the pro's and con's of impending legislative issues in order that the membership may be fully informed regarding disputed measures.

Highspots

Highspots of the year's program includes the lovely Spring Blossom festival, to be headed this year by Mrs. Nellie White; husband's night; a new member's tea, which officially launches an intensive membership campaign directed by Mrs. Glenn B. Watson, membership chairman; a historical program presented by Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, chairman of California History and Landmarks section, Reciprocity day, and a special affair to be staged by Mrs. Carl Randolph, current events chairman.

At the Presidents' Council in Torrance on Thursday, September 15, the theme of the all-day session, "Legislation," as planned by Mrs. John Stearns Thayer, president, Los Angeles district, C. F. W. C., will be carried out by Mrs. Edmond M. Lazard, new district legislation chairman. At the morning meeting, Mrs. Lazard will explain propositions to appear on the ballot at the November election, with particular emphasis on those in which Federation members are interested, without reference to issue or candidate, leaving it to the clubwomen to vote according to their best judgment. Mrs. Lazard will present Charles F. Wright, director of the Speakers' Bureau of Los Angeles County Council against the Repeal of the Sales Tax, who will speak on the measure called Sales Tax Repeal—land value tax, an initiative constitutional amendment.

At the afternoon session two speakers will be introduced by the Legislation Chairman who will tell about proposals on the ballot of the Los Angeles City election for September 16. Neil Haggerty, sectary - treasurer Building Trades Council and president State Federation of Labor, will speak on proposal No. 2, and Dave S. Smith, chairman Citizens Committee to Regulate Picketing, will talk on proposal No. 1.

Mrs. June Webster, district music chairman, will present Miss Lou MacIldail, dramatic soprano, and Miss Velva Kipler, mezzo-contralto from the studios of Madame Florence Holtzman, who will sing solos and duets. Mrs. Webster will also lead the assembly singing.

In the afternoon, Mrs. S. Bernard Lancaster, new district drama chairman, will present members of the Dionysians club in the following program: 1—A group of musical readings by Helen Warfield Wenger; 2—Character Sketches by Velma Francis Bissell; 3—A playlet, "Shadows of the Past," written by Alma Halff, and presented by Helen Warfield Wenger and Velma Frances Bissell.

CFWC MOVIE AUDIENCE TO NUMBER 20,000

"We hope to make the 20,000 clubwomen of Los Angeles district the most discriminating motion picture audience in the country," says Mrs. Richard M. White, motion picture chairman of Los Angeles district, "and we are hoping to do it through the club motion picture chairmen who, at our district conferences, will be provided with advance material regarding outstanding films. Each chairman will then become a focal point of information in her community."

Mrs. White is being increasingly recognized and appreciated by outstanding authorities for her unique ability as an evaluator of motion pictures. She has been speaking before clubs, university groups, and over the radio, giving her personal analysis of photoplays from the social point of view which is a different approach from that employed by most speakers.

She asserts that the district motion picture division will continue its interest in photoplay appreciation in the schools which she feels is accomplishing such worthwhile results. "It is the surest and finest way to develop a discriminating taste among the people of our country," declares Mrs. White. "The future of motion pictures depends upon the taste developed now in the schools. We hope to use intelligently this powerful influence for the development of social consciousness."

The district motion picture conferences are to be held the third Fridays of each month during the club year at district headquarters, beginning October 21. At each conference this year at least one educational short picture will be shown.

Five Arcadians Attend First District Meeting

Five Arcadia women heard the spirited speeches made on legislative measures at the first Los Angeles District California Federation of Women's clubs presidents' council of the season, Thursday at the Torrance theatre in an all-day session. They were Mesdames Mark Millspaugh, E. J. Frentress, H. E. Riess, Charles Stewart and C. E. Hoover.

PRESENTS SPEAKERS

Mrs. Edmund M. Lazard, former president of Los Angeles League of Women Voters and new district federation legislation chairman, presented the speakers and herself gave fine exposition of many of the 25 measures on the November ballot.

Speakers included Dave S. Smith, chairman of the Citizens' Committee to Regulate Picketing and Neil Haggerty, secretary-treasurer of the Building Trades Council, both of whom discussed measures coming up in the Los Angeles municipal election pro and con.

ADVISES STUDY

"Talk all measures over carefully with your families and study them well before going to the polls," Mrs. Lazard cautioned. Mention by her of the $30-a-week proposed pension plan, No. 25, was met with laugh-, showing trend of the audience. "We may laugh but this is a very serious matter confronting the State," Mrs. Lazard cautioned. Review of the fact that banks have said they will not honor warrants as provided in the proposed measure was met with vigorous applause.

The proposed single tax measure, No. 20, on the November ballot, was denounced and was the only measure which the federation permitted the representative to advise the women to vote against.

CLEVER SKITS

Not all seriousness, the meeting ended on a note of laughter and cheer when the drama section presented a series of skits based on domestic life, and the music section gave an interesting musical program.

Luncheon interrupted the session at noontime and was served in the new Torrance Civic auditorium of which the hostess club, the Woman's club of Torrance, is justly proud. Mrs. H. C. Barrington, president of the club, greeted Mrs. John Stearns Thayer, president of the district, and presented a group of representative civic and service club heads to her, each of whom brought a huge basket of flowers as a gift, which later provided a colorful background for the speakers.

JUNIOR DANCE TONIGHT AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Tonight's the night!

For at 8:30 o'clock the Arcadia Woman's Club Juniors dance will begin. The first event of the fall season, the dance will be held at the Woman's clubhouse transformed for the night into a spacious hacienda with vivid serapes, gorgeous shawls and colorful sombreros decorating the walls.

La Verne Boyer's orchestra will play enough soft, romantic Spanish airs during the evening to keep the atmosphere typical, and at intermissions, Senor Roberto Ramirez and Senorita Jeanne Streeton, dancers from the famed Raoul de Ramirez studio, will click their heels in the rhythmic measures of the Spanish dance.

On the committee for the affair are Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, president, Misses Dorothy Walters, Margaret Brown, Barbara Geiger, Eleanor Ott, Virginia Brown and Virginia Hostutler.

Tickets may be obtained at the door, and the dance is semi-formal as to dress, the committee announced.

Style Show And Tea Spotlights Club Season

More than a hundred and fifty clubwomen, new members and guests, attended the smart style show and courtesy tea given by the membership committee of the Woman's club yesterday afternoon at the clubhouse.

Under the direction of Miss Jane Robinson, Arcadia representative, and Miss Kay Veale, stylist, a Pasadena department store presented a wide range of afternoon and evening gowns, sportswear, coats and suits.

FASHION NOTES

According to models shown, knit suede dresses, tailored slack suits, man-tailored suits, tweed coats, Persian lamb trimmed black coats, formals with matching jackets, and full skirts sweeping the floor and full skirts touching the knee, high-crowned hats, and up-swirled hair are all important fashion notes.

COMMITTEE LISTED

Members of the committee, in modish long gowns, greeted the guests at the door, and later presided at the tea. Mrs. Ethel Watson, chairman, was assisted by Mesdames Elizabeth Ingram, Harriet Lucas, Edith Roberts, Virginia Diggins, Clarice Bone, Mae Brown and Dorothy Schweithal.

A Hawaiian trio supplied music during the fashion show and later played several numbers at the tea.

HISTORY SECTION TO OPEN SEASON ON 26th

Beginning their activities for the year coincident with the opening of the club season, officers of the California History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's club are planning a "pilgrimage" to Santa Ana's pioneer museum on Friday, October 14.

Full details concerning the affair may be obtained from Mrs. J. S. Craig at Atwater 7-1848 or Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, Atwater 7-2831, Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff, chairman, announced today.

The first regular meeting will be held Wednesday, October 26, at the home of Mrs. Bert Rubottom, 406 Longden avenue. Assisting hostesses will be Miss Eva Reynolds and Mrs. C. E. Hockway. Clippings will be received the same as usual, Mrs. Timerhoff reported.

Officers assisting Mrs. Timerhoff this year include Mrs. John Renshaw, vice chairman; Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, secretary; Mrs. R. H. Schwartzkopf, treasurer; and Mrs. J. S. Craig, clipping book chairman.

Arcadia Club Opens Season Auspiciously

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, presided at the opening meeting of Arcadia Woman's club recently, with more than 150 members attending the auspicious event.

Miss Marianne Carver of the Braille Institute of America was luncheon speaker. Miss Genevieve Wiley of Pasadena, blind singer, gave several pieces. Mrs. Buron Fitts was a guest.

Luncheon was served at 12:30 by a committee headed by Mrs. Florence E. Beery and composed of Mmes. Ella Owen, Emmy Kaskel, Hermoine Beanston, John Senghas and Beatrice Cockshott.

Mrs. N. Milo Fiske read the invocation. Mrs. Ethel Watson presented new members and Mrs. Millspaugh introduced her official family to the club including Mrs. Irene Stoker, first vice president; Mrs. Susan Riess, second vice president; Mrs. Ethel Frentress, recording secretary; Mrs. Ethel G. Rubottom, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Bertha Larsh, federation secretary; Mrs. Elsie Murfett, treasurer; Miss E. M. Reyolds, parliamentarian; Mrs. Frances S. Needham and Mrs. Olive C. WOMAN'S CLUB MET WEDNESDAY

The Woman's Club held its regular meeting at the Club House on Wednesday, Oct. 5th. Mrs. Buron Fitts, Miss Marianne Garver of the Braille Institute, were introduced as our neighbors during the luncheon.

Miss Genevieve Wiley, who is blind, sang several beautiful solos.

The Braille Institute is supported by donations and by work made and sold in the various shops. There is also a nursery school recently opened for blind children.

After the business meeting Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, music chairman, sang several selections, and Senora Borga spoke on "The Art of Living in Latin America." Mrs. Borga was educated in Europe and is a most charming person. Her daughter, Claudia, assisted by giving several dances in South American costume.

Members Crowd Woman's Club At Brilliant Opening Of New Club Year

More than a hundred and fifty smartly dressed women crowded the spacious clubhouse of the Arcadia Woman's club yesterday afternoon for the opening meeting of the 1938-39 club season.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, presided at the long speakers' table about which were grouped the smaller luncheon tables, each with its attractive decoration of marigolds and other fall flowers.

GIVES INVOCATION

Giving the invocation that opened the first part of the program was Mrs. N. Milo Fiske, and Miss Marianne Carver of the Braille Institute of America told of the work of that institution for the afflicted. She was followed by Miss Genevieve Wiley of Pasadena, blind singer, playing her own accompaniment, in a group of songs that included "Allelulah" of Mozart, "Cinesa' 'of Hazel Harper Harris and "I've Been Roaming" by Charles Horn.

Mrs. Buron Fitts of Duarte was among the distinguished guests. She was presented to the assemblage by Mrs. C. E. Hoover, program chairman, and told briefly of her activities during the American Legion convention.

LUNCHEON COMMITTEE

Luncheon was served at 12:30 by Mrs. Florence E. Beery and her committee, composed of Mrs. Ella Owen, Mrs. Emmy Kaskel, Mrs. Hermione Beanston, Mrs. John Senghas, Mrs. R. Radley, Mrs. Florence Muller, Mrs. B. L. Morris, Mrs. Phelps and Mrs. Beatrice Cockshott.

Mrs. Margaret McMaster was in charge of decorations and devised a particularly clever arrangement for the stage of pampas grass and marigolds.

NEW MEMBERS

New members were presented by Mrs. Ethel Watson, who told of the membership campaign now under way and appealed to the club for support, declaring that each member to do her duty should bring in a new member.

Mrs. Millspaugh presented her official family, Mrs. Irene Stoker, first vice president; Mrs. Susan Riess, second vice president; Mrs. Ethel Frentress, recording secretary; Mrs. Ethel G. Rubottom, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Bertha Larsh, federation secretary; Mrs. Elsie Murfett, treasurer; Miss E. M. Reynolds, parliamentarian; and Mrs. Frances S. Needham and Mrs. Olive C. Hoffman, directors.

SINGER

A salute to the flag prefaced the afternoon program that followed immediately after, and Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, music chairman, accompanied by Mrs. Alice Ripley of Glendale, sang "A Friendly Tune."

tages enjoyed by the Latin American woman and the North American woman, Senora de Borja deplored that many of the privileges taken for granted in this country were barred to her southern sister. The right to education and the right to work are barred to the average South American, who if she left the path of traditional conduct so far as to go to work would lose her social future.

AMERICAN WOMAN PRIVILEGED

"No women in the world enjoy the power that you do. I admire you for that. No one gave it to you—you made it!" she said.

Senora de Borja is an ardent protagonist of firmer and friendlier relations between the two Americas and she promotes the cause of good will and understanding wherever possible. She is distressed to see the rising influence of Germany in the republics to the south, and declared that Germans with gutteral accents are teaching students English in Latin universities. And that American household appliances and products are re-sold to Latins by German firms.

VIVID DANCES

Coming as a climax to the program was the vivid dancing of Claudia de Borja, daughter of Senora de Borja, who danced a flamboyant gypsy number taught her by the great gypsy dancer, Escudero, that was enthusiastically acclaimed. Her two following numbers, a traditional Spanish dance and an interpretative peasant number, were equally well liked.

Greeting members at the door were Mrs. Virginia Diggins, Mrs. Roberta Scheffel, Mrs. Leanore Glasser, Mrs. Elizabeth Ingram, Mrs. Blodwen Ferrante and Mrs. Jessie Stewart. Mrs. J. E. Hostutler and Mrs. H. E. Lucas had charge of tickets.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Announcement was made by Mrs. Watson regarding the steak dinner to be given Saturday, October 22. Mrs. Watson promises a "wonderful dinner and the best steak possible to obtain," as well as a delightful program.

Other announcements included that of Mrs. A. R. Chambers concerning Boy Scout night, Friday, October 21, and Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff, told of the pilgrimage of the California History and Landmarks section to Santa Ana museum on Friday, October 14. She also introduced Mrs. Juliet Renshaw, Mrs. Betty Craig and Mrs. Lumpkin, her assisting officers.

JUNIORS CONVENE AT CLUBHOUSE TUESDAY

Arcadia Woman's Club Juniors met Tuesday evening at the Woman's clubhouse. Following the business meeting presided over by Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, president, a social hour was enjoyed. Bridge and Chinese checkers were played and refreshments were served. Miss Arda Hanscom was in charge.

Those who attended were Misses Eleanor Hoagland, Maxine Jansen, Frances Taylor, Virginia Hostetler, Margaret Brown, Barbara Ann Geiger, Eleanora Ott, Jane Reidhead, Jane Nevin, Ruth Allen, Virginia Brown, Louise Evans, Clyde Fleming, and Dorothy Walters; and Mesdames Ann Leigh, Florence Mae, Marie Wiley, Annetta Miller, Irene Bachman, Gerry Nissen, Betty Brown and Betty Welch, and Mrs. John E. Although we have talked with Mrs. Emily Timerhoff, ever so many times on the telephone we had never met her until the other day at the club. . . . We carefully described our outfits the day before so we would be sure and meet and then each forgot and wore something else. . . . But we finally got together and said "hello" . . . ERUDITE LADIES

Although we number several very famous lady judges, attorneys and doctors a little better than acquaintances, we are still a little afraid of them . . . (we think its that peep into business law . . . and that doctoress who kept a skeleton in her sleeping room that did it). . . . So each time we see Florence G. We hear that Dr. D. L. Whiting, who practices in South Pasadena, and who with his family is a recent newcomer here . . . is enchanted with the town. . . . He has nearly broken his back setting out plants, working in his garden and is going into chicken, duck and rabbit raising in an amateur way. . . . He has also purchased a horse for his kids to ride . . . and is having a grand time.

SUPPRESSED DESIRE

As we write that last item we look fearfully over our shoulder to see if our poultry ed, Helen Chladek is near . . . for she thinks that all chicken news belongs to her. . . . And we have never told her that since the age of 12, when we were a chicken expert—theoretically—pouring over agricultural journals for hours on end . . . knowing the best feeds . . . and houses . . . and many of the multitudinous details connected with chicken-raising by heart . . . we have suppressed a desire to engage in poultry raising. . . . And not once in all that time—don't ask us exactly how long—have we even owned an imitation Easter chick. . . . Heigh-ho, such is life reporters want to be chicken-raisers and chicken-raisers want to be reporters.

ARCADIA WOMAN'S CLUB HAVE 1938-39 PROGRAM ARRANGED

The Arcadia Woman's Club has arranged their year's program for 1938-39 and the various committee chairmen are planning many interesting programs throuhout this period.

Not only th program chairman, Mrs. C. E. Hoover, but the section chairman of the club have been bending every effort to arrange interesting events for the coming club year. They are Mrs. Carl Randolph, current events; Mrs. Nellie White, garden section; Mrs. E. S. Timerhoff, California History and Landmarks; Mrs. Harry C. Marshall, literature; Mrs. G. G. Meade, business and protective law; Mrs. R. D. Sparks, handicraft; and Mrs. Ada Dronzeberger, motion pictures.

Some of the important meetings scheduled for the year inculde that of October 19, when a discussion on elective measures on the November ballot is to be made by qualified speakers. At this affair, Mrs. James West heads the luncheon committee, and American Education day will be commemorated on November 2, with Mrs. Hugh Sanborn in charge of the luncheon.

"Time Marches On" is the theme of the motion picture and radio luncheon to be jointly presented by Mrs. Hoover and Mrs. Dronberger. Mrs. Alice Field of the Will Hayes office will speak and Frances Farmer Wilder of Columbia Broadcasting company will give a survey of radio.

The annual affairs will be husbands' night on January 20, the program to be presented by Mrs. Timerhoff and her History and Landmarks sertion on February 1.

This year the Peach Blossom festival will be given on March 15, under the direction of Mrs. White, of the garden section. This is an annual affair and marks one of the highlights of the calendar.,

A fall flower show stressing exhibits of roses and chrysanthemums will be held sometime in November, depending upon the flowers, and on April 5 in connection with Reciprocity day, Mrs. Lumpkin, music chairman, will arrange a recital.

The annual Boy Scout night is slated for October 21, with Donoho Hall, of Occidental college as chief speaker. Mrs. Marie Chambers is in charge of this event.

Another "boy" program will be given on April 10 when Judge Milne, superintendent of the Whittier School for Boys, appears to tell of his experiences during "A Quarter Century with Unusual Boys." The Whittier Boys' band will play during the pr...

Providing hospitality during the year will be Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, and her committee, comprised of Mesdames C. G. Bunting, Robert Ferrante, Frank Glasser, H. W. Johns, Harvey Moss, Lee D. Scheffield and F. A. Tester.

While other committe chairmen include: Mrs. Lulu S. Reynolds, finance; Mrs. Ethel M. Watson, membership; Mrs. Maybelle Moore, press book; Miss Marjorie Hesse, publicity; Mrs. Gertrude A. Schenk, table decoration; and Mrs. Emmy L. Kaskel, philanthropy.

Another outstanding event will be the steak dinner to be staged by the stove committee on Saturday, October 22, at the clubhouse. An interesting program is being arranged for this affair and details will be announced later, according to Mrs. Glenn B. Watson, committee head.

Husbands Will Be 'Singing Waiters' At Steak Dinner

College Of Pacific President To Speak To South Pasadena Women's Club

With money-raising projects on of the chief problems of women's clubs, the Arcadia Women's Club has hit upon a novel plan to raise funds to finance its handsome new stream-lined stove installed in the clubhouse this summer. They are going to have a steak dinner Saturday with "singing waiters" lending harmony to the auspicious event.

The "waiters," attired in crisp white aprons, will be the club husbands, pressed into service. They will wear big handlebar mustaches and will be selected not only for their harmonious voices but for their dexterity in handling the trayloads of steaks.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, will welcome members and guests, while Mrs. Ethel Watson and Mrs. Elizabeth Ingram will "boss" the waiters. Continuous service has been arranged from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m.

The regular club meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, when a discussion will be held on the November ballot. Mrs. James West will head the luncheon committee. Annual Boy Scout night is scheduled for Friday, with Donoho Hall of Occidental College as principal speaker. Mrs. Marie Chambers will be in charge of this event.

DINNER HOSTESS

MRS. MARK MILLSPAUGH
President of the Arcadia Women's Club, who will preside at the steak dinner to be staged by the "stove committee," Saturday at the clubhouse. (Story on page 13).

HISTORY SECTION TRIP TO MUSEUM FRIDAY

Friday is to be a red-letter day for lovers of California history for on that day members and friends of the California History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's club will journey to Santa Ana's famed pioneer museum to spend the day in study.

Mrs. E. Timerhoff, section chairman, will head the cavalcade that leaves at 10 a. m. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Helen Lumpkin at ATwater 7-2831. A small charge is to be made for transportation.

While the first regular meeting of the group is not until October 26, at the home of Mrs. Bert Rubottom, 406 Longden avenue, Friday's "pilgrimage" begins the series of field trips to interesting and historical places. Assisting hostesses at the first meeting will be Miss Eva Reynolds and Mrs. C. E. Hockway. Clippings will be received the same as usual, it was announced.

Mrs. Virginia Diggins was appointed press chairman for the section, Mrs. Timerhoff reported, and other officers for the year include Mrs. John Renshaw, vice chairman; Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, secretary; Mrs. R. H. Schwarzkopf, treasurer; and Mrs. J. S. Craig, clipping book chairman.

Disputed Issues To Be Discussed At Club Meeting

In order that clubwomen and their husbands and friends may be clearly informed on the most controversial issues on the November ballot—the single-tax and the $30-every Thursday pension plan—Mrs. C. E. Hoover, program chairman, is presenting three luncheon speakers at the next meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club, Wednesday, October 19, at 12:30 o'clock, to discuss the two measures.

SPEAK AGAINST SINGLE-TAX

Charles F. Wright, head of the speakers' bureau against single-tax, will talk on the single-tax measure, pointing out the inherent dangers of such a scheme that allegedly will wreck the school system of the State, leaving it without sufficient funds to carry on. While two other qualified speakers will debate on the pro's and con's of the ham-and-egg pension plan.

TABLE FOR GENTLEMEN

There is to be a special table reserved for the gentlemen, Mrs. Hoover announced, and a number of distinguished guests including Mayor A. F. Malin, Dr. T. Howard Smith, president of the Arcadia Chamber of Commerce, Judge Ardene Boller, president of the Rotary club, and Robert Sheehan, president of the Lions club, are expected to be present.

RESERVATIONS

Mrs. James West, luncheon chairman, will take reservations at ATwater 7-2551, and anyone interested is extended a most cordial invitation to attend this all-important meeting so that they may vote with intelligent understanding on these two most important issues.

Harold Johns will present a group of solo numbers, and an interesting moving picture will be shown through the courtesy of the Johns-Manville company.

BUSINESS MEETING

Immediately following the program, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, will preside at a business meeting.

"This program is of exceptional interest and we feel that it affords Arcadia voters an opportunity to hear the relative merits and demerits of the two most important elective measures that have been the voters of this state for many years," said Mrs. Hoover.

Arcadians Study History At Santa Ana Museum

Mrs. F. E. Coulter, curator of the Santa Ana museum, personally conducted the members of the party from the California History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's club when they made the museum the goal of their pilgrimage last Friday.

Mrs. E. Timerhoff, chairman, led the group that studied the unusual exhibits displayed at the museum, which is to be formally opened to the public, October 23, at 3 o'clock. Notable among these exhibits were the famous old bells, the botanical display on the patio of the museum, a millstone from the first water producing mill in the valley, great logging wagons, requiring 20 oxen, and the fine Indian exhibits.

SPANISH EXHIBITS

Other interesting things noted by the Arcadians were the fountain at the entrance, the Spanish room, featuring the pictures of the last governor of California, Don Pio Pico and of Don Jose Andres Sepulveda, priceless Spanish shawls, carved wooden pieces, old costumes, armaments, and things from a vanished past.

Members enjoying the pilgrimage were Mesdames Ella Donkin, H. E. Reiss, E. J. Frentress, C. E. Hoover, Timerhoff, Helen Lumpkin, J. S. Craig, W. Friend and M. Cridlebaugh.

HISTORY SECTION TO MEET ON OCTOBER 26

The first regular meeting of the California History section will be held at the home of the section chairman, Mrs. E. Timerhoff, 321 Genoa street, Wednesday, October 26, at 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. C. E. Hookway will be hostess at the tea hour, and Mrs. Helen Lumpkin will give "Gleanings From the Heart of the Republic," her impressions of a recent trip to the Vallejo home.

Section members who made the trip to San Fernando mission and to Santa Ana museum will give reports of their experiences. Mrs. John Renshaw will lead the Spanish word drill. This will be facilitated by the new blackboard, the gift of George Needham, which was painted by Mr. Timerhoff.

JUNIORS TO SEE FUR STYLE SHOW THURSDAY

A fur style show will be presented by Mr. E. Collins at the regular meeting of the Arcadia Woman's Club Juniors, Thursday night, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, president, will preside.

Mr. Collins will illustrate the show with an interesting talk on furs, their care, and handling, and many other unusual points seldom heard by the layman.

Mrs. Sara Elizabeth Kline, president of Los Angeles district Junior membership California Federation Women's clubs, recently appointed Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, president of the Arcadia Junior Woman's club, and Miss Esther Howlett of the Highland Park club as official hostesses for the district.

This is a comparatively new committee formed to promote friendliness and goodwill among the members at the district meetings and to supply hostesses for the district dinners.

To be appointed to the committee is a tribute to one's charm and social graces and Arcadia Juniors may well feel proud of having their president presiding on it.

'Waiters' To Serve And Sing At Club Dinner On Oct. 22

Steaks and "singing waiters" will mingle in utmost harmony at the big benefit steak dinner to be staged at the Arcadia Woman's club, Saturday, October 22, according to an announcement released today by Mrs. Ethel Watson and Mrs. Elizabeth Ingram, co-chairman of the event.

The "waiters," attired in the best traditions of their guild—crisp, white aprons, shiny, big trays, and handlebar mustaches—are to be club husbands pressed into service for the occasion, the chairmen say. They will be selected not only for their harmonious voices but for their dexterity in handling the sizzling, succulent steaks that are said to be "the best possible to obtain."

Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Ingram are planning a program of interesting games to follow the dinner, that those who wish to do so may spend the evening at the club.

In order to suit the convenience of most of the club members and their husbands, the chairmen are arranging for continuous serving from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m.

The proceeds of the dinner will be donated to the stove fund to clear the handsome new, streamlined stove installed in the club's kitchen last summer, the chairmen announced.

Boy Scout Night At Woman's Club October 21

With three important events on the calendar of the Arcadia Woman's club members and friends face a busy week.

Today's luncheon was no sooner over than members faced toward the annual Boy Scout night to be given at the clubhouse, Friday night, October 21, at 7:30 o'clock, under the direction of Mrs. A. R. Chambers, Boy Scout chairman.

Featured on the program will be Donoho Hall, thirty-three-year-old student at Occidental college, despite his wife and family who has led a most unusual life, battling against great odds for an education and a place in the sun. Born in the Kentucky mountains, Mr. Hall ran away from his home at the age of 10 and since that time has undergone innumerable hardships to obtain an education. His story is expected to be thrilling and inspirational to all youth.

An interesting musical program is also scheduled for the evening, and refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the evening.

Mrs. Chambers extends an invitation to all parents, relatives and friends of boys of Troop No. 5, which is sponsored by the club, to attend the affair.

Boys expected at the meeting include Paul Sands, Richard Klenhard, Theodore Berkompas, Howard Borden, Lynn Crowell, John Larson, Billy Cox, Tom Steinle, Bill Steinle, Bob Richardson, Russell Randolph, Robert Miller, Jimmy Roig, Billy Lee Meyers, Edward Roberts, Deanne Bolton, and Robert Christopher.

Committeemen in attendance will be R. M. Dickinson, Dr. A. Carleton Ambler, C. J. Smith, J. E. Tester, and Dr. Cyril W. Shier.

Then on Saturday night Mrs. Ethel Watson and her committee are staging a big steak dinner at the club to pay for the handsome new stove installed there last summer. Many interesting events are also scheduled for this night.

MRS. STOKER HOSTESS TO EXECUTIVE BOARD

Mrs. J. A. Stoker, first vice president of the Arcadia Woman's club, entertained Mrs. Millspaugh, president and her executive board, yesterday afternoon at luncheon following the board meting held at her home, 1132 South Fourth avenue, at 10 o'clock.

The house was attractively decorated with huge bouquets of Mr. Stoker's prize dahlias and on the luncheon table was a smart flat centerpiece of lavender dahlias.

Members at the board meeting and luncheon were Mrs. Millspaugh, Mrs. H. E. Riess, Mrs. E. J. Frentress, Mrs. B. Rubottom, Mrs. John Murfett, Mrs. C. E. Hoover, Miss E. M. Reynolds, Mrs. George Needham and Mrs. C. C. Hoffman.

STEAK DINNER SATURDAY NITE

A steak dinner will be served next Saturday night at the Woman's club house by a most capable committee. It seems the ladies have a new stave installed with a large grill and they decided to put it to work and make a little money to defray expenses. This dinner is open to the public and the reservations are coming in fine. However, if you have not phoned in your reservation, you may call Mrs. F. C. Ingram at ATwater 7-2888 or Mrs. Watson, ATwater 7-1454. These ladies are co-chairmen.

Now here in the menu. You be the judge. Bean soup, steaks, baked potatoes, Harvard beets, string beans, home-made rolls, onions and celery, and to top it off, home-made apple pie a la mode and coffee — all for 75 cents.

Singing waiters of the highest ability will serve you. Here are a few of them: Harold Johns, John Vandebur, Glen Watson, Frank Glasser, Chas. Hoover, Le Roy Anderson, Frank Ingram, Neil Roberts, Roy Lucas and Al Parker. They will don aprons caps and efficiently serve you with food as well as with music.

In the evening Mrs. Chas Hoover and Mrs. Lumpkin will have charge of fun-making games and all who wish are invited to stay and join in the frivolity.

WOMAN'S CLUB PLANS CARD PARTY NOV. 9

A benefit dessert-bridge will be given at the Woman's club on Wednesday, November 9, it was announced today by Mrs. Lulu S. Reynolds, general chairman. Everybody is invited to attend. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Reynolds at ATwater 7-2203 or Mrs. Cora King at ATwater 7-1542.

Fall Flower Show To Be Held On November 15

The annual Fall Flower show, sponsored by the garden section of the Arcadia Woman's club, will be held this year on Tuesday, November 15, at the woman's clubhouse, it was revealed today by Mrs. Nellie White, garden section chairman, who has charge of the event.

Mrs. White invites all members of the community to enter flowers in this show as there is neither an entry nor an exhibit fee charged.

OBJECT OF SHOW

"The object of the show is the cultivation of beautiful and attractive flowers and shrubbery in Arcadia," Mrs. White said today, and for that reason it is kept a truly community affair.

As many of the most faithful exhibitors in the show are men, Mrs. White does not want anyone to think that because the show is sponsored by the Woman's club that it is an entirely feminine show. She therefore extends a special invitation to masculine amateur gardeners and flower growers to start tending their pet blooms now in preparation for the show.

Full particulars and names of committee members for the show are to be announced later by Mrs. White.

Clubwomen Hear Speakers Tell Both Sides Of Pension Plan And Dangers Of Single Tax

"Proposition No. 20 or the single tax if passed will triple the present tax rate."

That was the ominous declaration made by Charles F. Wright, head of the speakers' bureau of the County Council against Single-tax before the Arcadia Woman's club yesterday afternoon.

Sustaining his contention, Mr. Wright pointed out that the single-tax would abolish some $260,000,000 of taxes diverted from personal tax, automobile tax, and sales tax shifting this tremendous burden to land which he does not believe able to to stand such a crushing load.

Taxes would sky-rocket until they become unbearable to the landowner who would be forced to forfeit his holdings to the state, thus deriving the state of millions of dollars of revenue.

Schools, which are supported almost entirely by the sales tax, would be closed and the state become generally bankrupt, he believes.

Quoting Canadian authorities Mr. Wright showed that states with a similar plan of taxation were in a state of bankrupcy and that officials who had experienced the single-tax were entirely against it.

Closing with the firm warning that passage of proposition No. 20 would create "a new depression in the state of California," Mr. Wright urged his hearers to educate their neighbors and the people with whom they came in contact to the dangers of the single-tax measure.

ARCADIA

The annual Fall Flower Show, sponsored by the Garden Section of the Arcadia Women's Club, is scheduled Nov. 15, according to Mrs. Nellie White, chairman, who has charge of the event.

Mrs. White invited all members of the community to enter flowers in this show.

The objective of the show is to foster the cultivation of beautiful gardens in Arcadia.

SCOUT TROOP NO. 5 GUESTS OF CLUB

More than 80 guests enjoyed the hospitality of the Arcadia Woman's club, Friday night, at the annual Boy Scout night when the club entertained Scoutmaster Robert Chambers and his troop of boys from Troop No. 5, sponsored by the Woman's club, and their parents and friends. Mrs. A. R. Chambers, boy scout chairman, presided.

In a talk addressed especially to the boys, Donoho Hall, former Kentucky mountain boy, now a student at Occidental college, told of his early struggles and pointed out the superior advantages enjoyed by the youth of today to those given the boys and girls of his own region.

Betty Helene and Charlotte Zelkowitz, from the Wiggins School of Music, sang and played the accordion as a special attraction, presented by Mrs. A. R. Hoover.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, and Mrs. Olive Hoffman, Mrs. Susan Riess, Mrs. Ethel Frentress, members of the executive board, served refreshments at the close of the evening.

Historical Spots Described By Mrs. Lumpkin

Mrs. Helen Lumpkin told of historical houses visited this summer on a tour of Northern California at the regular meeting of the California History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's club at the home of Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, chairman, on Wednesday afternoon.

OLD MISSION

Mrs. Lumpkin, accompanied by her family, touched many little known historical spots on her trip that included a visit to San Juan Bautista mission, the Old Russian church at Fort Ross, and a stay at Sonoma, where she met the only living daughter of General Vallejo, Mrs. M. Perrin, who still resides in the historic old frame house, built by her father.

It was here that she saw the famous Swiss chalet brought by the doughty general who figured so brilliantly in early California history ,from Switzerland, piece by piece, on sailing ships around the Horn. From San Francisco the huge, dark beams and handmade bricks were carted by oxen overland to the present site.

She also told of visiting the headquarters of his rancho, where 2,000 Indians were employed. The building is the longest adobe in California, she said, measuring some 250 feet in length.

OTHERS GIVE REPORTS

Following Mrs. Lumpkin's interesting speech, Mrs. John Renshaw gave a report on San Fernando, and several other members told what interested them in the recent pilgrimage to Santa Ana museum.

Mrs. Timerhoff announced that the group would plan monthly pilgrimages to adjacent historical spots.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Timerhoff and Mrs. C. E. Hookway, joint hostesses.

MEMBERS LISTED

Members in attendance were Mrs. J. C. Cridlebaugh, Mrs. Renshaw, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, Mrs. Bert Rubottom, Mrs. C. E. Hoover, Mrs. Ella Donkin, Mrs. E. J. Frentress, Mrs. H. E. Riess, Mrs. G. H. Mrs. Lytle at present is serving as a member of the Social Service Commission and is approved by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce as being fully capable of explaining the propositions. She will be presented by Mrs. A. B. Lefler.

MRS. LYTLE

To Present Sketch

Schuyler Ladd, an artist of unusually varied range, will be presented by Mrs. W. C. Rowse at 11 a. m. in a sketch entitled "A One-Man Program."

Mr. Ladd, in his long career has appeared in many of New York's successful plays of Charles Frohman, the Shuberts and David Belasco, and with such outstanding stars as Otis Skinner, Sir Herbert Tree, Elsie Ferguson, Helen Hayes and others.

At the beginning of the World War, Mr. Ladd was one of the first American soldiers to arrive in France. After the Armistice he remained in France, staging shows and entertainment for the soldiers awaiting transportation home. He had a theater at Savany, also a dramatic unit that toured every hamlet and city throughout France, and Army of Occupation Posts in Germany.

Stagecraft Topic

Following luncheon, the drama study group, Mrs. G. Gibbs Kane, chairman, will meet in the auditorium. Henry Manigan, who has had broad experience in the little theater movement, will give a short talk on "Stake Makeup and Stagecraft."

A one-act comedy, "Boosting Bridget," by Elizabeth Gale, will be enacted with Mrs. Victor Matson in the leading role; Mrs. E. D. Horton as "Bridget," Mrs. C. E. Clouse, Mrs. Hogan Williford, Mrs. Paul Holmes, Mrs. R. O. Bourne and Miss Avira Hathaway.

The play will be directed by Mrs. Frederick Smith.

Group singing, current events and movie news also will be a part of the afternoon program.

ARCADIA

Opening with current events during the luncheon hour, the program at the Arcadia Women's Club Wednesday will be diversified. The Goodwill Industries will present the afternoon program with Elaine Anderson Dudley giving a talk on "History in Costume." Musical selections will be provided by a sextet from the Venice P.-T. A. Council.

The luncheon program will be in charge of Mrs. Carl Randolph, with music by Mrs. Helen Lumpkin.

Quality Programs Arranged For Woman's Club

With a program fairly scintillating with celebrities lined up for the year, the Woman's club of Arcadia launches its fall season next Wednesday, October 5, at their spacious clubhouse, 324 South First avenue, under most auspicious circumstances. Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, will preside.

LUNCHEON SPEAKER

Miss Marianne Carver of the Braille Institute of America will speak immediately after the 12:15 p. m. luncheon. Mrs. Charles Beery is chairman of the luncheon committee, and reservations may be made with her by calling 401.

On the afternoon program, Miss Helen Lumpkin, music chairman, will sing a number of solos. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Alice B. Ripley of Glendale. Genevieve Wiley, blind singer, of Pasadena, will also sing.

FIRST PROGRAM

Senora Elvira de Borja, charming South American, well known in metropolitan club circles for her gracious charm, will discuss "The Art of Living in Latin America." Her daughter, Miss Claudia Borja, will interpret a group of authentic South American dances.

Not only the program chairman, Mrs. C. E. Hoover, but the section chairman of the club have been bending every effort to arrange interesting events for the coming club year. They are Mrs. Carl Randolph, current events; Mrs. Nellie White, garden section; Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff, California History and Landmarks; Mrs. Harry C. Marshall, literature; Mrs. G. G. Meade, business and protective law; Mrs. R. D. Sparks, handcraft; and Mrs. Ada Dronzberger, motion pictures.

Some of the important meetings scheduled for the year include that of October 19, when a discussion of elective measures on the November ballot is to be made by qualified speakers. At this affair, Mrs. James West heads the luncheon committee, and American Education day will be commemorated on November 2, with Mrs. Hugh Sanborn in charge of the luncheon.

MOTION PICTURE LUNCHEON

"Time Marches On" is the theme of the motion picture and radio luncheon to be jointly presented by Mrs. Hoover and Mrs. Dronberger. Mrs. Alice Field of the Will Hayes office will speak and Frances Farmer Wilder of Columbia Broadcasting company will give a survey of radio.

The annual affairs will be husbands' night on January 20, the program to be presented by Mrs. Timerhoff and her History and Landmarks section on February 1.

PEACH BLOSSOM FESTIVAL

This year the Peach Blossom festival table decoration; and Mrs. Emmy L. Kaskel, philanthropy.

Another outstanding event will be the steak dinner to be staged by the stove committee on Saturday, September 22, at the clubhouse. An interesting program is being arranged for this affair and details will be announced later, according to Mrs. Glenn B. Watson, committee head.

EVENT TO BE HELD HERE ON NOVEMBER 15

Special Awards Will Go To Winners In Divisions; Data Given By Chairman

"It will be the most attractive and outstanding event of its kind in the history of Arcadia."

This statement was made this afternoon by Mrs. Nellie A. White, chairman of the Woman's club committee in charge of the Community Flower show to be held under the auspices of the garden section of the club on Tuesday, November 15.

CROWD EXPECTED

Many new and unique features, expected to attract a record crowd to the function, have been outlined by committees in charge, it was disclosed. Entries of rare plants, flowers or shrubs are being particularly solicited as a special feature, Mrs. White said.

In addition to plants and flowers, novel displays of fruits and vegetables, as complete as those at the county fair, will be exhibited, with special awards to go to winners in various divisions.

ALL INVITED

"There is no admittance fee, but a cordial invitation is extended to all to visit the exhibition of artistic merit, rare beauty and charm over which the entire membership of the garden section will constitute a reception committee," Mrs. White said.

ARCADIA WOMEN ATTEND ANNUAL CIVIC CONFERENCE

Eight Arcadia women journeyed to Ontario Tuesday for an all-day session at the Second Annual Civic Conference held in Chaffey Junior College auditorium.

Those in attendance heard a fine world affairs discussion by several nationally-known speakers familiar with this subject.

Representing the Arcadia Woman's Club were Mrs. Charles Stewart, Mrs. Charles Dillingham, Mrs. John Renshaw and Mrs. James Stoker. Also attending from this city were Mrs. Sam Hobbs, Mrs. C. E. Angstad, Mrs. C. S. Bailey, and Dr. Ethel C. Guinther.

WILL HOLD DESSERT-BRIDGE

Next Wednesday, November 9th, the Woman's Club will hold a dessert-bridge at the clubhouse on South First avenue at 1:00 p. m. The general public is invited to attend and the charge is only 35 cents. Reservations may be phoned to Mrs. Lulu Reynolds, AT 7-2203 or Mrs. Cora King, AT 7-1542.

WOMAN'S CLUB MET WEDNESDAY

The Arcadia Woman's Club held their program meeting Wednesday at the clubhouse on S. First avenue. A delicious 12:15 luncheon was served by a committee headed by Mrs. Bess Sanborn and she was assisted by Elizabeth Walker, Edith Gruben, Clarice Bone, Gladys Bird, Harriet Lucas, Betty Noack, Laura Hostutler and Sally Schambaker.

Immediately following the luncheon Mrs. C. L. Randolph, in her brilliant manner, conducted the current event program and gave high lights of world interest from newspapers, magazines and books. She also gave a review of the new book by Neuberger entitled "Our Promisd Land."

The dining room was beautifully decorated in aut mn colors. Zennias and fall fruit were used to carry out the seasonal idea. Mrs. Grace Stanley acted as chairman and she was assisted by Nellie Marshall, Evelina Pike and Alice Moss. Much commendation was given this committee.

The Floradora Sextette from the Venice P.-T. A. Council rendered numbers that wer enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Dudley of the Goodwill Industries staged and old-fashned style show with the members of the Woman's Club and Junior Woman's Club acting as models. Mrs. Dudley has a rare collection of gowns that date from the 1700 period on through the years and her pageant of old style dresses was very unusual and interesting.

Mrs. Carl Randolph Delivers Brilliant Commentary On Foreign And National Affairs

"The American citizen is just plain spoiled!"

Quoting Judge William S. Baird, Mrs. Carl Randolph, current events chairman of the Arcadia Woman's club, in a pithy summary of world and domestic affairs yesterday afternoon before the club told how this occurred.

3-YEAR COURSE

"For agitators I would recommend a three year course—one year in Germany, one year in Italy and one year in Russia. I believe that would prove an efficient cure," Mrs. Randolph, still quoting Judge Baird, said.

"American is the last stronghold where "life, liberty and pursuit of happiness may be carried on," Mrs. Randolph pointed out. To keep it so she urged every member of the club to vote next Tuesday, for said she, "if every individual in the United States would vote the way it is best for the United States we would need never worry about our republic."

SILENT MILLIONS

Commenting on world affairs Mrs. Randolph said: "The Japanese war has cost the silent millions of Japan 500,000 lives and $1,900,000,000 to date. These millions of patient, suffering people know nothing of the causes of the war. They accept it in quiet resignation as they accept earthquakes and typhoons."

Japan in the 16th month of the war now has in her possession more than half of the rich mineral regions and most of the rich farm land of China. With her hand on door, to Chine, Mrs. Randolph showed.

TAKE ADVANTAGE

While the Japanese invasion of South China and the renewed revolt of the Arabs in Palestine are widely separated they had a common cause in the Munich treaty which plainly showed them that Russia and England could be intimidated. They gave those countries no time to gain a breath but pressed their advantage of the situation, as an army in flight must not be allowed a chance to gather their forces.

At the close of her commentary on foreign affairs, Mrs. Randolph gave an interesting review of "The Promised Land" by Neuberger.

RESERVATIONS

Mrs. James A. Stoker is taking reservations for the President Council in Van Nuys, November 9, until November 5, it was announced. Mrs. J. Thomas Reynolds, chairman, announced the dessert-bridge on November 9, and Mrs. Nellie White told of the forthcoming flower show scheduled for November 15.

FOOD SALE

Mrs. Glenn B. Watson, chairman of the stove committee, announced that a food sale would be held at the show as the new stove is still only half paid for. She also announced as membership chairman that the response of members to her appeal for each member to bring in a new member had been most gratifying.

NEW CHAIRMAN

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, who presided, told of the appointment of Mrs. Roland G. Dronberger as radio chairman. Mrs. Dronberger takes over the duties of this chairmanship in addition to her motion picture work.

STAGES SHOW

At the afternoon program Mrs. Elaine Anderson Dudley, executive secretary of Goodwill Industries, Inc., outlined the work done by that institution for the unfortunate, and presented a fashion review of old-time costumes, using club members as models.

Mrs. Le Roy Anderson played the musical accompanist, while Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, music chairman, led the community singing that immediately preceded the show.

SUITS AND CHEMISES

Mrs. George M. Needham as a bathing girl of the 90's set the pace for the event, while Mrs. Ellen Donkin in an old-fashioned night gown and nightcap, Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff and Mrs. Ardene Boller in quaint chemises, upheld it.

The mood changed, however, with Clover Slaughter as a Gibson girl, Barbara Ann Hodgkins as a bride in a yellowed brocaded satin gown of 1877, Mrs. John Granville in a handsome heavy white handmade satin gown, topped by a handsome plush dolman, that had a most romantic history, and Mrs. Boller in a smart puffed sleeve frock of most modern appearance.

COSTUMES DESCRIBED

Miss Jane Robinson was demure in an 1875 brown satin, Miss Margie Hobbs in an 1859 Ivory taffeta, Miss Dorothy Walters in an 1888 dolman and frock topped by a doll's bonnet, Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, wearing an 1875 taffeta suit, and Mrs. Russell Lucas in a 1799 peau de sole, Mrs. John E. Hostutler, Miss Fleming and Mrs. Stoker in quaint costumes kept the audience on the alert.

WOMAN'S CLUB PARTY ON NOVEMBER 9

Reservations are now being made with Mrs. Lulu S. Reynolds at ATwater 7-2203 or Mrs. Cora King at ATwater 7-1542 for the dessert-bridge to be given by the Arcadia Woman's club on Wednesday, November 9 at 1 o'clock at the clubhouse.

A small charge is to be made for the afternoon of play and a delicious dessert will be served.

Mrs. Reynolds is general chairman in charge of the event.

"Slow Motion" Of World Events At Club Meeting

A "slow motion" of world-shaking events will be given by Mrs. Carl Randolph, luncheon speaker at the next meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club, on Wednesday, November 2, at 12:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Randolph, well known commentator on world affairs, who has appeared before many clubs and organizations in this district, and who has successfully guided the current events section of the club for some years, will give the background of recent events abroad and at home.

SWIFTLY PACED EVENTS

"In the theatre of the world today the picture of events is being run so rapidly that some very important details are being blurred. A 'slow motion' resume will bring more intimate glimpses not only of world affairs, but of the background and persons connected with them," Mrs. Randolph declared today.

Appearing on the afternoon program will be Elaine Anderson Dudley, who will present "History in Costume." Mrs. Dudley has attracted considerable attention in club circles for her clever presentations. She is connected with the Goodwill Industries.

COMMUNITY SINGING

Mrs. Le Roy Anderson will accompany Mrs. Dudley, and Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, music chairman, will lead the community singing that will open the afternoon meeting to set the "mood" for Mrs. Dudley's program.

A special feature presented by Mrs. C. E. Hoover, program chairman, will be the "Floradora Sextette," composed of members of the P.-T. A. Council of Venice and said to be very popular everywhere they have appeared. This feature nicely augments Mrs. Dudley's contribution.

LUNCHEON CHAIRMAN

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, will preside. Mrs. Bessie Sanborn, chairman of the luncheon committee, will be assisted by Mesdames G. Andrew, C. Bone, G. Bird, H. Lucas, N. Noack, I. Culver, B. Hoagland, L. Bledsoe and S. Shambacher.

Table and stage decorations are to be arranged by Mrs. Gertrude Schenck and Mrs. Margaret McMaster. They will be aided by a committee composed of Mesdames Minnie Hookway, Grace Stanley, Margaret Perry and Leola Brown.

Community Garden Show Expected To Attract Record List Of Entries For November 15 Event

"It will be the most attractive and outstanding event of its kind in the history of Arcadia."

This statement was made this week by Mrs. Nellie A. White, chairman of the Woman's club committee in charge of the Community Flower show to be held under the auspices of the garden section of the club on Tuesday, November 15.

CROWD EXPECTED

Many new and unique features, expected to attract a record crowd to the function, have been outlined by committees in charge, it was disclosed. Entries of rare plants, flowers or shrubs are being particularly solicited as a special feature, Mrs. White said.

In addition to plants and flowers, novel displays of fruits and vegetables, as complete as those at the county fair, will be exhibited, with special awards to go to winners in various divisions.

ALL INVITED

"There is no admittance fee, but a cordial invitation is extended to all to visit the exhibition of artistic merit, rare beauty and charm over which the entire membership of the garden section will constitute a reception committee," Mrs. White said.

JUNIORS TO DANCE NEXT FRIDAY

Arcadia Junior Woman's club will give a barn dance for members and their friends at the Arcadia Woman's clubhouse next Friday, November 4, at 8 o'clock.

Chairmen in charge, Misses Virginia Hostutler and Virginia Brown are planning an interesting evening for members and their friends. Refreshments of cider and doughnuts will be served.

DESSERT BRIDGE

The Arcadia Woman's Club will give a dessert bridge on November 9 in the clubhouse at 1 o'clock. Tickets will be 35 cents. All ladies of the community are invited, whether members of the club or not.

Unusual Fashion Show Given for Woman's Club

A large number of ladies attended the regular meeting of the Woman's Club Wednesday. A delicious luncheon was served at noon under Mrs. Sanborn's direction and the afternoon's program was a most interesting one, put on by the Goodwill Industries, under the direction of Mrs. Elaine Anderson Dudley. It was in the nature of a fashion show, using gowns which had been sent into the Goodwill and modeled by our own ladies.

FLOWER SHOW NEEDS RARE PLANTS

An appeal was broadcast today by Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, chairman in charge of the rare plants division of the Fall Flower show to be staged Tuesday, November 15, at the Woman's clubhouse by the garden section of the Arcadia Woman's club, for rare blossoms, plants or shrubs.

Mrs. Stewart will welcome exhibits from either private gardens or commercial growers as she is featuring this particular section, very difficult to fill. The owner of the plants will be given full credit, Mrs. Stewart said. Those wishing to exhibit their exotic plants may contact Mrs. Stewart at ATwater 7-1[illegible]

ANNUAL FALL FLOWER SHOW PLANNED BY WOMAN'S CLUB FOR NOVEMBER 15

The 12th annual community fall flower show sponsored by the garden section of the Arcadia Woman's club, will be held on November 15, according to announcement released today by Mrs. F. H. White, chairman in charge.

The show, an afternoon and evening affair, will be staged in the Woman's clubhouse, 324 South First avenue, and will feature many new exhibits.

Special attention will be paid to interesting exhibits of weeds, ornamental grasses and leaves. There will be special exhibits of chrysanthemums, dahlias, roses, berries, shrubs, annuals, perennials, rare plants and flowers, with emphasis laid this year on flower arrangement and arrangements of fruits and vegetables.

Mrs. White extends a special invitation to exhibitors from the surrounding communities to participate in this show, which, under her leadership, has come to rank with the finest amateur shows in the country. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. White at ATwater 7-1657.

Junior Woman's Club Enjoys Barn Dance

The Junior Woman's Club gave a barn dance at the club house Friday night. The Misses Virginia Hostutler and Virginia Brown were in charge of the affair, which provided amusement for 50 couples.

An able decorating committee composed of Mrs. Eleanor Lucas and the Misses Dorothy Walters and Arda Hanscom transformed the club house into a most attractive barn. Old-fashioned games and dances were the order of the evening. Refreshments consisted of cider and doughnuts. Everyone voted it a most delightful affair.

Club Women Attend Presidents' Council

A presidents' council of the Womans Clubs of the Los Angeles district was held on Wednesday at Van Nuys, with Mrs. John Stearns Thayer, president of the district, presiding.

Members attending from Arcadia were Mesdames Mark Milspaugh, James Stoker, C. C. Hoffman, Henry Riess and E. J. Frentress.

Town Rambler

Oh! . . . This week we are in sackcloth and ashes . . . for we made a terrible blunder. . . . When we reported the Woman's club meeting . . . we— through some convolution of our brain—gave the name of the pretty blonde girl, who wore the 1877 bride's costume as Barbara Hodgkins . . . when it should have been Barbara Geiger! . . . are we embarrassed! . . . And she looked so cute that she made a special hit with us. . . . So, if Barbara will accept our apology we promise never to mix her up again.

ENJOY TALK

Mrs. Lulu S. Reynolds . . . sat across from us at the club luncheon, . . . and Mrs. Charles W. Stewart . . . on our left . . . with Mrs. Glenn B. Watson (who gave us a recipe for a cake, which we're going to try) . . . on our right . . . so had a good time . . . you may be sure. . . . Since the three ladies are friendly and easy to talk to our conversation never flagged . . . as sometimes it does.

GOOD COMMENTATOR

Mrs. Carl Randolph has a wonderful grasp of foreign affairs. . . . She revealed that at the Woman's club. . . . Frankly, we had looked forward to that meeting with not a little trepidation . . . for we have often . . . been forced to sit and listen to terrible hash under the name of "current events." . . . But her commentary was masterly no less . . . and we think the club must be simply bursting with pride over her.

WINTER VIOLET

We met Mrs. Lorne C. Roosevelt for the first time at the club meeting. . . . She is small and dark and very friendly. . . . We enjoyed talking with her . . . and asked her how Alele (her pretty daughter, who attends Junior college, got her name, For Alele rolls so merrily off one's tongue that we were sure there was a story behind it! . . . and there was . . . Alele was born in South America . . . we forget whether it was Peru or Chile . . . anyway it was winter time . . . and little winter violets were just pushing themselves bravely up over the snow. . . . So Mrs. Roosevelt . . . named her baby daughter, Alele . . . who we think is as pretty as any violet ever could be.

Plans Complete For Flower Show November 15

By NELLIE A. WHITE, Chairman

It will be "Flower Day" in Arcadia on Tuesday, November 15, when the garden section of the Woman's club will hold "open house" for their friends, neighbors, fellow club members and every citizen of Arcadia, interested in making our home town the city of beautiful homes and gardens.

During the forenoon from 8 to 12 o'clock the various committees for the flower show will receive and arrange the exhibits in the auditorium of the clubhouse at 324 South First avenue. Promptly at 1:30 p. m. and through the entire afternoon and evening the doors will be open to the public and the collection of beautiful flowers, rare plants, etc., will be on display for the enjoyment of all, with no charge for admission.

New owners in our midst, as well as all Arcadians who have never attended one of the garden section's flower festivals, will marvel at the lovely collection of natural and cultivated beauty grown in our local gardens. There will also be a prominent place given to flower arrangements and prizes awarded for those of special artistic merit; and the hidden beauty in common things will be demonstrated at a table devoted to an attractive display of the lowly weed.

As this is a community affair, every citizen of Arcadia is invited to bring or send in the treasures from his garden and there will be no entrance fees. A special invitation is extended to the new residents as well as to all Arcadians to attend the exhibition, enjoy the rare beauty of the flowers, the music and the hospitality extended to all on "Flower Day" in Arcadia.

WOMAN'S CLUB PARTY IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

The dessert-bridge given yesterday afternoon by the Arcadia Woman's club was characterized as both "a financial and social success" by committee members.

Beginning promptly at 1 o'clock a delicious dessert was served prior to the play. Prizes were won during the afternoon by Mrs. Pearl Fletcher, first,and Mrs. J. H. Armstrong, second in contract, with Mrs. Lovejoy of Pasadena and Miss Pearl Smith, Pasadena and Miss Pearl Smith, taking first and second honors, respectively, in auction.

Mrs. Florence Boller received many complimentts for the charming decorations of well-arranged bouquets of zinnias and chrysanthemums she had placed about the hall. Mrs. Lulu S. Reynolds, general chairman, guided the affair to success, assisted by Mrs. Boller, Mrs. Ruth S. Harpole, and Mrs. Cora King.

HISTORY SECTION TO VISIT WILMINGTON

The California History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's Club are planning to visit the Earl Banning home which is now a museum with beautiful grounds, located in Wilmington, on Tuesday, November 22.

This group usually hold their meetings at the home of one of the members on the fourth Wednesday of the month, but because this falls on the day befor Thanksgiving, it was decided to change the date and make this trip which is the first of many that will be taken this winter.

Those desiring to make the pilgrimage may call Mrs. Emilie Timerhoff. chairman, Phone, Atwater 7-2593. The lunch will be pot-luck and if the weather is permissible will be in picnic form on the grounds of the home.

MRS. MILLSPAUGH AND PARTY ATTEND COUNCIL

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president of the Arcadia Woman's club, and a group of members attended the Presidents' council of the California Federation of Woman's clubs in Van Nuys yesterday.

The affair—an exceptionally interesting one—will be fully reported upon at the next meeting, Mrs. Millspaugh announced.

In the party with Mrs. Millspaugh were Mesdames James A. Stoker, H. E. Riess, C. C. Hoffman, and E. J. Frentress.

On Monday the executive board will meet at the home of Mrs. Frentress, 260 Camino Real. Mrs. Riess and Mrs. Frentress will be cohostesses to the group.

WOMAN'S CLUB NEXT WEDNESDAY

The Arcadia Woman's Club will meet at the club house on South First Avenue next Wednesday for a 12:15 luncheon. All who wish to attend may call Mrs. C. J. Smith, At 7-2526 or Mrs. F. W. Miller. AT 7-2221 for reservations.

This meeting is sure to be interesting. Father Gerald O'Keefe is to be the guest speaker. Music will follow and at 2:00 the Business meeting will take place and all members are urged to attend.

HISTORY SECTION TO VISIT WILMINGTON

The California History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's Club are planning to visit the Earl Banning home which is now a museum with beautiful grounds, located in Wilmington, on Tuesday, November 22.

ENJOYABLE TIME HAD AT BARN DANCE

Friday evening thirty couples gathered at the Arcadia Woman's Club house to take part in an old fashioned barn dance. This dance was given to celebrate the first year anniversary of the Junior Woman's Club.

The hall was cleverly decorated to look like a barn with hay, straw and cornstalks; chickens and pigeons and farm implements.

Virginia Brown and Virginia Hostutler were co-chairman and they were assisted by Arda Hansom and Elinor Gibbs and Dorothy Walters.

Square dances and Virginia reel s were interspersed with modern dancing. Doughnuts and cider were served for refreshments.

FLOWER SHOW IS SLATED TUESDAY

Woman's Clubhouse to Be Scene of Annual Floral Exhibition

Plans for the annual Community Flower Show, sponsored by the Garden section of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, to be held at the Woman's clubhouse on S. First avenue next Tuesday, are being completed. New and unique features are being arranged by those in charge.

Entries of rare plants, flowers or shrubs are being especially solicited. The hidden beauty in commonplace things will be demonstrated at the show at an attractive table devoted to a display of the lowly weed. There will also be a prominent place given to "flower arrangements" and prizes awarded for those of special artistic merit.

Every resident of Arcadia is cordially invited to bring or send flowers from his garden for the show, as this is a community affair. There will be no entrance fee.

The Flower Show committee extends a special invitation to newcomers in the city as well as all Arcadians to attend this colorful exhibition. Admission is free.

The various committees will receive and arrange the exhibits in the auditorium during the forenoon from 8:00 to 12:00 o'clock. Promptly at 1:30 p. m. and throughout the entire afternoon and evening the doors will be thrown open to the public and the collection of beautiful flowers, rare plants and shrubbery will be on display.

CASCADE "MUMS" AT FLOWER SHOW

Of special interest to flower lovers will be the unusual exhibit of cascade chrysanthemums at the twelfth annual Fall Flower show to be staged by the Garden Section of the Arcadia Woman's club, tomorrow, from 1:30 p.m., until late evening hours.

The show will feature blossoms and plants from home gardens of Arcadia, and there is no admission charge. Flower arrangements, weed exhibits, rare plants and exotic blooms will be shown to the best advantage.

Mrs. Nellie A. White, chairman of the garden section, is in charge of the show.

Father O'Keeffe To Speak At Woman's Club

Featured on the Arcadia Woman's club program, Wednesday afternoon will be Rev. Father Gerald M. O'Keeffe, pastor of the Church of the Holy Angels. Father O'Keeffe, a witty, fascinating speaker, will tell of his five-months' tour of Ireland, from which he returned in October. Having as he does such a splendid grasp of Irish affairs, Father O'Keeffe is expected to give interesting sidelights on the present Irish situation.

Mrs. Mildred Quale, an accomplished 'cellist, will present a group of musical numbers, following Father O'Keeffe's speech. A business meeting for members will be held immediately after the program.

Mrs. Clara Smith is chairman of the luncheon committee, with Mrs. L. Kohler, Mrs. P. Crader, Mrs. V. Brashears, Mrs. M. Hookway, Mrs. L. Hostutler, Mrs. A. Miller, Mrs. B. Reid, Mrs. C. Chase, and Mrs. C. Stoesser, assisting her.

Presiding will be Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, with Mrs. C. E. Hoover, program chairman, in charge of the program.

COMMUNITY JOINS IN MAKING FLOWER SHOW OUTSTANDING EVENT OF FALL SEASON

Flowers—great, tall chrysanthemums . . . dainty roses . . . red holly berries . . . exotic flowering ginger . . . tropical camellies . . . giant begonias . . . and hundreds of others.

Crowded the Arcadia Woman's club yesterday for the 12th Annual Fall Flower show staged by the garden section of the Woman's club, under the direction of Mrs. Nellie White, section chairman.

HAWAIIAN GIRL

A shimmering cascade of rare chrysanthemums, an entry lent through the generosity of Mrs. W. J. Lawless, of the Wistaria Vine Gardens, was a veritable waterfall of blossoms.

MUSIC

Musical entertainment pointed up the enjoyment of the affair. Musicians from Monrovia-Arcadia-Duarte high school, Misses Dolores Bartold, Evelyn Jacobson, and Madelyn and Vivian Foote, played during the afternoon and evening.

Mrs. H. Spencer received compliments on her entry of palladium, coleus and ferns; Mrs. Gordon Felt and Mrs. Irene H. Jelinek each entered a special table of home grown chrysanthemums and Mrs. C. W. Blanchard entered a special table of rare varieties of chrysanthemums.

DISPLAYS NOTED

Among unusual displays noted were the weed table and wild plants arrangement offered by Miss Grace McCurdy, the miniature woodland scene, the work of Mrs. White, a table of beautiful roses, and the holly berry table. Artistic and lovely was the exhibit of ornamental grasses and leaves, apexing in three white pottery swan urns filled with white wild oats, extremely rare and difficult to find.

BRIDAL TABLE

Deserving of special mention and one of the outstanding entries of the show was the beautiful bridal table arranged by Mrs. J. D. Stanley. A pink linen cloth, centered with Dresden pottery bowl filled with exquisitely blended flowers in pink and blue tones, crystal candlesticks and Dresden figurines, tied with wide blue satin ribbon, made an attractive design.

UNIQUE IDEAS

The table of flower arrangements presented unique ideas in flower decoration. Judging was by popular vote and the woodland scene of Mrs. Francis Solomon of Sierra Madre, a gnarled root stump, with moss and button chrysanthemums forming the base, won first prize. Mrs. J. D. Stanley's entries of twin white urns, filled with purple and white chrysanthemums, and group of miniatures won honorable mention.

OTHER DESIGNS

Others who entered designs that won favorable comment were Mrs. John Granville, Mrs. Sidney Chase, Mrs. W. C. Bonner, Mrs. J. Robinson, Mrs. A. R. Chambers, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. G. W. Underwood and Mrs. Cockshott, of Arcadia; Mrs. E. A. Pielemeier, Covina; Mrs. Lorena Hull, Sierra Madre; Mrs. G. M. Crow, Glendora, and Mrs. Marth McCormick, Alhambra.

CHILDREN'S EXHIBITS

The table of entries prepared by the Art club of the First avenue school, advised by Miss Jane Nevin, art teacher, compared favorably with any adult entry in the show for originality of design and boldness of execution.

Nancy Walters was represented with an arrangement of iris leaves, button chrysanthemums, heightened by a Chinese figurine; Virginia Hopper and Audra Peekham, orchid button chrysanthemums and pine cones; Barbara Gray, a talented young horsewoman, was given honorable mention. Fittingly enough she used a gold equestrian statue, a trophy won in a recent event, with orchid and white chrysanthemums making the base and backed by tall leaves.

WOMAN'S CLUB MET WEDNESDAY

The Arcadia Woman's Club held their regular business meeting at their clubhouse Wednesday noon. The committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. Clara Smith served a very delicious turkey luncheon.

While the ladies were still sitting at the tables, Father O'Keefe, pastor of the Church of the Holy Angels, gave a splendid talk on his trip abroad.

A cello solo was given by Mrs. Quayle and she was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Helen Lumpkin.

The business meeting took place at 2:00 and Mrs. Ina P. Millspaugh, president of the Club, presided. The national appeal to the women of the country to take a stand against the terrible persecution of the Jews was brought up and the Club agreed to send in their resolution. Brief talks were given by some of the women who attended the President's Council at Van Nuys on November 9th.

JUNIORS TO LAUNCH NEW PROJECTS TONIGHT

Tonight at 8 o'clock the Arcadia Junior Woman's club will officially launch the season's work when the governing officers and the membership body when they meet at the Woman's clubhouse for their regular meeting.

Mrs. Harriet Lucas Gibbs, president, will preside. Mrs. Anne Legg will inaugurate a course of study in a drama project, beginning with a history of the film. This project ties-in with the State theme given by the Juniors, "Better Film Appreciation."

The welfare work to be undertaken by the group for Christmas and Thanksgiving, under the direction of Mrs. Ola Mae Coleman, will also be launched tonight. As the Juniors are helping the men with their Christmas work by preparing the dolls given to underprivileged children, final goals will be decided on that work.

FLOWER SHOW LAUDED

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Event Held At The Woman's Clubhouse

Hundreds of visitors and hundreds of exhibitors joined together to make the 12th annual Fall Flower Show of the Garden Section of the Arcadia Woman's Club a great success here last Tuesday.

Beautiful blooms, all products of Arcadia gardens, were on display and the interest shown by those in attendance made the show the most successful ever staged.

Praise was being heaped on the Garden Section and its able chairman, Mrs. Nellie White, for the undertaking that has always been an outstanding event in Arcadia.

Everything from chrysanthemums, roses and begonias to a display of wild plants and the common weed were shown. Beautiful and unique decorations featured the show tha[t] was staged in the Woman's Clubhouse.

Music for the show was provided by Misses Vivian Foote, Dolores Bartold and Evelyn Jacobson of the local high school.

Judging of the entries was by popular vote of those in attendance. Winner of first prize was a table display composed of a gnarled stump with button chrysanthemums forming the base. This was entered by Mrs. Francis Solomon of Sierra Madre.

Entries from Arcadia that won honorable mention were those of Mrs. Hugh Cockshot, Mrs. G. W. Underwood, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. John Granville, Mrs. Sidney Chase, Mrs. W. C. Bonner, Mrs. J. Robinson, Mrs. A. R. Chambers and Mrs. Spencer.

Commerical entries were exhibited by the Arcadia Nursery, Alice James' Gift Shop, Clarence S. Hearn Nursery, Diegard Nurseries and Frank Yamashita's Rock Garden Shop.

Enjoyable Dessert Bridge Given at Woman's Clubhouse

The Arcadia Woman's Club held a card party last Wednesday in the clubhouse under the able chairmanship of Mrs. Lulu Reynolds. A most delicious dessert with tea and coffee was served at one o'clock, followed by both contract and auction.

The prizes given were bridge cards and were won by Mrs. Pearl Fletcher and Mrs. J. H. Armstrong, first and second in contract, and Mrs. Lovejoy and Mrs. Pearl Smith, first and second in auction.

The prize winners were all Arcadia ladies except Mrs. Lovejoy, who lives in Pasadena.

Talk on Travel in Ireland Enjoyed at Woman's Club Meet

About 100 members gathered at the clubhouse on Wednesday for the regular meeting of the Woman's Club. A delicious turkey luncheon was served by Mrs. William Smith assisted by Mrs. Fred Miller.

During the luncheon hour Father Gerald O'Keefe talked of his recent trip to Ireland.

The regular business meeting was held afterward, each of the ladies who had attended the presidents' council the preceding week giving a report of that.

After this part of the program the ladies were delightfully entertained by Mrs. J. Y. Quayle, who sang to her own cello accompaniment.

"Lamento," and played and sang "Sleepy Hollow Tune." She was accompanied by Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, music chairman.

GUEST OF HONOR

Dr. N. Milo Fiske, pastor of the Arcadia Community church, was guest of honor.

A delicious turkey luncheon was served by Mrs. C. J. Smith, and a committee, composed of Mesdames Fred Miller, S. L. Chase, P. Crader, Seides, F. V. Hoagland, C. C. Hoffman, C. O. Holmgreen, C. E. Hookway and E. T. Reid.

Decorations of fall flowers were profuse and lavish. They were in charge of Mesdames F. L. Perry and B. C. Brown.

NEW MEMBERS

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, announced that the following eight new members were accepted into the club: Mesdames Anne Felt, Alice James, C. E. Wallace, E. R. Evans, S. G. Lumpkin, Esther Hough, B. O. Hagen, and Miss Clyde Fleming.

A business meeting was held after luncheon at the regular afternoon session.

PROFUSION OF GORGEOUS BLOOMS DISPLAYED AT FALL FLOWER SHOW

The 12th annual flower show given by the garden section of the Arcadia Woman's Club was held on Tuesday and was a most successful affair.

The committee had done a good bit of worrying because of the havoc wrought by winds and frost in so many gardens, but flowers were there in profusion.

The club members sold candy and baked foods during the day.

Part of the high school orchestra played both afternoon and evening, and canaries singing to the music and chatter created a delightful atmosphere.

Visitors came from all the nearby cities. The chrysanthemums were gorgeous and a number of very rare plants were displayed.

Everything tended to make the whole affair artistic and beautiful.

Arcadia Juniors Plan Busy Year As Calendar Filled With Important Events

With drama selected as the year's study project members of Arcadia Junior Woman's club are looking forward with eager interest to the series of lectures dealing with films and their allied arts arranged for the coming year.

Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, dynamic young president, recently announced her committee appointments and plans are now underway to make this season not only the biggest, but the most interesting the club has ever known.

LAUNCHES LECTURES

At a recent meeting Mrs. Anne Leigh, motion picture and membership chairman, launched the series with an interesting resume of film history. As this series ties in with the district federation project, future assemblages of the club will hear a thorough discussion of various aspects of the industry.

NEW DIVISION

An athletics division has been organized with Miss Norma Parks as director. Riding, golf, tennis, swimming and badminton will be taken up during the year. Sunday meetings have already been held for tennis practice on the Santa Anita County Recreational park courts, and plans will soon be complete for riding parties, badminton and other seasonal sports.

CAMPAIGN

Now vying for honors in the membership campaign are two opposing teams, captained by Miss Betty Welch and Miss Edith Ekman, with the losers to stand the winners a dinner. Mrs. Anne Leigh, membership chairman, is supervisory head of the campaign.

Committee chairmen selected by Mrs. Gibbs are as follows: Mrs. Ola Moore, art; Mrs. Margery Dickson, courtesy; Mrs. Leigh, membership and motion pictures; Mrs. Marie Wiley and Miss Bella Royal, needlework; Miss Dorothy Walters, press; Miss Margaret Brown, press book; Miss Louise Evans, platform decoration, and Mrs. Ola Moore, welfare.

RECIPROCITY DAY

Another innovation by Mrs. Gibbs, who is proving an exceptional leader, is Reciprocity day scheduled for February 16. Mrs. Richard M. White, district motion picture chairman, will be guest speaker, with Misses Margaret Brown and Barbara Geiger, presiding as hostesses, for the day.

The big St. Patrick's day dance on March 19 is always an anticipated affair and this year will be no exception to that rule. A good band is engaged and smartly gowned dancers and dainty refreshments make it a long-remembered occasion.

CHARITY WORK

At the present time the Juniors are assisting the Arcadia fire department in their Christmas charity work. All the dolls given underprivileged children are dressed by the flying fingers of the Juniors. This work, headed by Mrs. Ola Moore, is an integral part of the firemen's plan to provide an exciting Christmas for every child in Arcadia, regardless of race or creed.

Other events planned for the year include a social on December 6, in charge of Mrs. Marie Wiley and Mrs. Margery Dickson; the pilgrimage to the Community playhouse on May 2 led by Misses Constance Ellison and Lois Mann; the special athletics day, presided over by Miss Norma Parks and Miss Edith Ekman, and many other interesting affairs.

Collection Of Garbage By City Is Suggested

A resolution adopted by the Arcadia Woman's club recommending the municipal collection of garbage was referred to the street committee today following presentation last night to the city council.

The resolution reads as follows:

"GREAT NEED"

"Whereas there is a great need for the municipal collection of garbage in the city of Arcadia, and

"Whereas an unsanitary and unhealthy condition exists at times due to the lack of such collection,

"Therefore, be it resolved that the Woman's Club of Arcadia recommends to the city council of Arcadia that said city undertake the municipal collection of garbage for the benefit and improvement of the whole community."

News Of BOY SCOUT Troop No. 5

REORGANIZATION

Our troop has just reorganized all of its patrols. Instead of having three patrols as before, we now have two, the Eagle patrol and the Bear patrol. Members of the Eagle patrol are Robert Richardson, leader; Lynn Crowell, assistant leader; Robert Miller; Russell Randolph; Theodore Berkompas; and Dean Bolton. In the Bear patrol are Paul Sands, leader; Bill Cox, assistant leader; Edward Roberts; James Roig; Billy Myers; and Billy Larson.

The purpose of the reorganization of our troop is to bind the Scouts together into a better working unit. A program of projects has been planned which the patrols have already started working on, and it is believed that the new plan will be a success.

NEW ASSISTANT SCOUT MASTER

Our troop has not had an assistant scout master for quite some time. Dan Sparks, former scout, is going to fill this vacancy in the future. He claims to be a little rusty, but the troop is enthusiastic about their new assistant scout master.

SKATING

Thursday, the whole troop went on a skating party at the Alhambra airport. We had a swell time even if some of us were sore when we got home. Skaters were Theodore Berkompas, Russell Randolph, Robert Richardson, Dean Bolton, Bill Cox, Lynn Crowell, James Raig, Denny Coombs, Robert Brown, Bill Steinle, Thomas Steinle, and John Larson.

NEW MEMBERS

The troop has a shortage of members right at the present, but we hope to have an increase in membership in the near future. Several fellows have indicated that they plan to join our troop. They are Bill Steinle, Tom Steinle, Bob Brown, Bob Christopher, and Denny Coombs. Anyone else who is interested is invited to attend a meeting in order to find out more about the Scouts.

CAMP HUNTINGTON

On November 18 and 19 some of the troop went to Camp Huntington Scout camp in the Sierra Madre mountains above Altadent. Those who attended are Robert Miller, Billy Myers, Bill Cox, Dean Bolton, Paul Sandes, Edward Roberts, James Roig, Lynn Crowell, and Bob Richardson.

CHALLENGERS

As yet, we have not organized our football team. The boys have been practising hard, though, and expect to be able to take on anybody within a week. This challenge is directed especially at Troop 3, so-called champions, who had better watch their step when they tangle with us.

—JOHN LARSON.

Varied Program Wins Plaudits At Woman's Club

Varied was the program at the Arcadia Woman's club yesterday when Mrs. C. E. Hoover, energetic program chairman, presented Madame Mayor P. W. Leffler of El Monte as guest speaker and Mrs. Gladys Hatley Scoles in a scintillating book review.

MAYOR SPEAKS

Mrs. Leffler, a motherly looking person, who heads a successful foundry business with her husband, told of her experiences as one of the few women mayors of the country. She touched briefly upon her recent trouble when talk of a recall arose and declared that it grew from her taxing gaming rooms for licenses. When Mrs. Leffler became mayor there was a $900 balance to the credit of the city of El Monte and now the city has $13,000 on deposit, she declared.

BOOKS REVIEWED

Mrs. Scoles, widely known book reviewer, through the courtesy of Vroman's book shop in Pasadena, reviewed a list of the more outstanding publications. They were "Guns or Butter" by Bruce Lockhart, dealing with present day conditions in Germany; "20 Years Armistice" by William Orton; "Man's Hope" by Andre Malraux; "In Hazard" by Richard Hughes; "To Remember at Midnight," a story of the stage by Michael Foster; "Grandma Called it Carnal" an amusing view of grandma's day by Bertha Damon; and Charles Morgan's distinguished English author newest. "The Flashing Stream."

HOBBIES SHOWN

Among contributors to the interesting hobby display were Miss Eva Reynolds, who showed family antiques of pewter and china, more than 200 years old; Mrs. J. N. Giridlian, whose extensive collection of stamps and postal cards evoked much interest; Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff exhibited her own manuscripts and books; Mrs. Charles V. Crellin brought antique quilts and water colors; Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, pottery, and her mother, Mrs. B. O. Hagen, a charming collection of yarn pictures, while Mrs. C. C. Hoffman displayed camera studies of her own.

A colorful Mexican serape and a pair of Armenian drapes brought by Mrs. Brown were among articles in the exhibit that attracted much attention.

CHORUS ADMIRED

Christmas music was provided by the Mothers' chorus of the Parent-Teacher association. The chorus sang three numbers under direction of Mrs. Mabel Nye, leader. The chorus won much admiration amongst the audience for their fine interpretations and excellent shading of the fine, old carols. Mrs. Helen Lumpkin was in charge of this part of the program.

Mrs. Ina Millspaugh, president, presided. Mrs. Ella Owen, chairman of the luncheon committee, was assisted by Mesdames Hermion Beanston, Isabelle Evans, Alice Cline, Fanny Needham, Osa Cassady, Elizabeth Crawford and Ella Donkin.

Arcadia Plans To Establish First Youth Hotel In Southern California On Rancho

Arcadia will be the first city in the Southland to establish one of the famed Youth Hostels that now connect Europe and the Eastern United States in a chain of cheap and interesting hotels for youthful travelers.

That is, Arcadia will be the pioneering city in the movement if the plans of far-seeing clubwomen and service club representatives are carried out.

ORIGINATES MOVEMENT HERE

Mrs. A. R. Chambers, of the Arcadia Woman's club, is the originator of the movement in Arcadia. She became interested several months ago after reading a magazine article describing the hostels of Europe and the New England states. She in turn interested Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president of the Arcadia Woman's club, and since that time they have been quietly working to interest other organizations to make it a community project.

PROVIDE FOR TRAVELERS

Mrs. Millspaugh explained today that the hostels are cheap and clean lodging places for youthful hikers, bicyclers and horseback riders, who are attempting to see their own country. Qualified chaperones are placed in charge of the hostels and beds and cooking facilities are offered for 25 cents a night.

Where the hostels have been established they have attracted the finest type of people, Mrs. Mills paugh said. College students, writers, young professional men and women, teachers, professors, and others take advantage of the low-priced facilities. The movement originated in Germany and spread from there to England, France, the Scandinavian states, and most countries in Europe.

BUILDING GIVEN

The Rancho Santa Anita company has generously placed a building on the beautiful old rancho at the disposal of the clubwomen and there it is hoped the first hostel in the Southland is to be established. Located, as it is, near to metropolitan centers and yet in the heart of a vast mountain empire, Arcadia offers unparalleled inducements, the women believe.

There is one drawback, however, Mrs. Millspaugh pointed out, and that is the fact that Arcadia is on a primary system of highways and to qualify for a hostel a town must be adjacent to or near a secondary road as traffic-filled highways offer too many hazards to the youthful travelers, all of whom walk, cycle, or ride horseback.

CLAREMONT INTERESTED

Claremont is exceedingly interested in the movement and an attempt is being made to establish a connecting hostel there. Mrs. Millspaugh said. Other hostels will probably be established in foohill cities and at mountain camps, she said.

According to Mrs. Millspaugh the only hostel in the South was the temporary one established last summer in Brentwood hall at the University of California at Los Angeles. A group of eastern boys and girls used the dormitory as headquarters during their exploration of Southern California.

CONVENE AT WELLS' HOME

At a recent meeting in the home of Mrs. Philip Wells, 625 Naomi avenue, clubwomen and representatives of service clubs met with Mr. and Mrs. Harris of Pasadena to discuss plans for the hostels. The Harrises, representing the Youth Hostels in Southern California, showed pictures of hostels filmed while traveling abroad in Europe and New England.

SPONSORS NAMED

Those who attended the meeting were Mrs. Millspaugh, Mrs. Chambers, both leaders and sponsors of the movement; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Moore; W. E. Tussing, of the Lions' club, and Mrs. Tussing; Dr. and Mrs. Carleton Ambler; Dr. T. Howard Smith, president of the Arcadia Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. Robert McMaster, president of Kindergarten Parent-Teachers' association; Mrs. Albert Adcock, president of Arcadia Co-ordinating council; Mrs. Paul Gibbs and Mrs. Wier Casady.

Community Church Pastor Suggests Ordinance To Eliminate Sale Of Sex Literature In Arcadia; Clubwomen, Priests, P-T A Leaders Launch War To Protect Youth

Acting quickly on the editorial demand of the Arcadia Daily Tribune that display and sale of obscene literature and sex picture magazines be banned in Arcadia, Councilman Everett A. Niday announced this morning that he will sponsor an ordinance prohibiting the sale of "printed filth" immediately.

Ministers, priests, paret-teacher association officials and clubwomen have joined in a determined campaign to drive "dirty books and magazines" from Arcadia newsstands.

Said Councilman Niday:

"A survey of Arcadia newsstands today reveal a literary trend considerably lacking in wholesome quality. Obscene and degenerate tastes indicated by the type of literature displayed for sale at various newsstands in Arcadia calls for drastic curtailment. If the citizens of Arcadia desire to elevate the moral consciousness of its readers, they can forbid the dissemination of such local sources."

Councilman Niday said that he will gladly sponsor an ordinance prohibiting the sale of obscene literature and sex picture magazines in Arcadia if citizens will petition him to do so.

RESPONSIBLE FOR CRIMES

"The ARCADIA DAILY TRIBUNE," said Councilman Niday, "is doing a splendid good by campaigning to rid the community of publications whose only appeal is to filth. It is most gratifying to know that our leading citizens, ministers, priests, clubwomen and officials of parent teacher organizations have been given the opportunity through the columns of the Tribune to voice their protest against the sale of publications that contaminate the minds of our young people.

"Daily we read in the papers accounts of revolting sex crimes, particularly against children. There can be no doubt but that sex picture magazines and obscene literature on sale at most newsstands is in a large measure responsible for the rapid increase in the number of revolting crimes against women and children.

"Newsstands that continue to display and sell such publications in face of the present wave of disgust and protest by clean-minded men and women are not deserving of their patronage."

"SHAMELESS" SITUATION

Dr. N. Milo Fiske's demand that the Arcadia city council pass an ordinance prohibiting the distribution and sale of sex magazines met with the immediate approval and support of men and women who are determined that steps be taken to protect the morals of young people.

Dr. Fiske, noted pastor of the Arcadia Community church, described the situation as "shameless" and declared he knew of cases where sex picture magizines had actually been smuggled into school rooms.

Mrs. Al S. Myers, president, Sierra Madre Woman's Club—"The brazen display of sex magazines in front of newstands and stores is a corruption influence on boys and girls and steps should and must be taken to stop the display and sale of indecent literature.

"It is an insult to womanhood when certain merchants display sex magazines and sex literature to public view.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, Arcadia Woman's Club—"I am very much in favor of a movement to stop the sale of sex magazines and picture books. The morals of our boys and girls are endangered by the display and sale of such publications and it is most gratifying to know that public sentiment has been aroused to a point where immediate action will be taken to rid newsstands of such filth."

Rev. N. Milo Fiske, pastor of the Arcadia Community Church—"I am in sympathy of doing everything humanly possible to stop the display and sale of indecent literature and sex picture magazines.

"It is a shameless situation. I know of cases where filthy picture magazines and books have been taken right into school rooms. It is obvious to any clear thinking man or woman that the sale of such vicious publications is a strong factor in the increase of revolting sex crimes."

Dr. Fiske expressed the belief that the Arcadia city council should immediately pass an ordinance prohibiting the sale and distribution of sex literature. Dr. Fiske said such an ordinance should give the police power to invade places where indecent literature is sold.

TRYING HARD to live up to standards set by her predecessor, who was injured in saving her young mistress from being struck down by a speeding car, is Queen, Seeing Eye Dog, shown guiding Louise Shull, blind sophomore student at Occidental College. —Los Angeles Examiner photo.

Trying very hard to make good is Queen, the Seeing Eye dog that is guide and companion to blind, brilliant Louise Shull, 20-year-old Occidental College sophomore.

For Queen's predecessor, Lynne, lived up to all the canine traditions of heroism and saved its mistress' life at risk of its own. And Queen, says Miss Shull, seems eager to prove just as faithful.

Three years ago, on a visit to San Diego, Miss Shull, crossing a busy street, stepped into the path of a speeding car. The faithful Lynne, acting with instinctive courage, knocked Miss Shull out of the way and she escaped injury, but the dog was struck and crippled.

The blind girl sadly returned the lame Lynne to the Seeing Eye Foundation at Morristown, N. J., where the valiant German Shepherd still is under treatment and where Queen was chosen to take Lynne's place as Miss Shull's "companion."

"Queen is doing a wonderful job," Miss Shull declared yesterday, "and I am sure she would protect me just as Lynne did."

"I am personally in favor of a city ordinance that will prohibit the sale of sex literature in Arcadia."

VIOLATE DECENCY CODE

Mrs. Helen Scofield, president, Arcadia council, PTA—"I am in favor of a law to stop the sale of sex magazines. Sale of such magazines is not only harmful to youngsters but it is degrading to see how some merchants deliberately violate the code of decency by prominently displaying suggestive pictures and magazines inside and outside of their stores. Such merchants should their conduct and clean-minded men and women should boycott him."

DRIVE WELCOMED

Rev. Arthur O. They are anxious to be relieved of this menace and the Arcadia papers are to be congratulated for their fearless campaign to rid San Gabriel Valley communities of literature and picture magazines that have an unclean influence on boys and girls. Anything that can be done to curb the traffic in obscene stories and pictures will be welcomed by parents, teachers and church people."

WOMAN'S CLUB YULE PARTY TOMORROW

Tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Arcadia Woman's clubhouse, members of the club will assemble for the annual Christmas party and Tea. Mrs. C. E. Hoover, program chairman, has arranged an interesting program appropriate to the season featuring Miss Louise Shaw, blind student; Mrs. John Starke; and a trio composed of Betty Anne Lumpkin, Genevra Holbin, and Evelyn Jacobsen.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, will preside and the hospitality committee will serve tea. On the committee, with Mrs. Charles Stewart, chairman, are Mrs. C. G. Bunting, Mrs. Robert Ferrante, Mrs. Frank Glasser, Mrs. H. W. Johns, Mrs. Harvey E. Moss, Mrs. Lee D. Scheffel, Mrs. F. A. Tester, and Mrs. Ardene Boller.

In keeping with the spirit of the party was the appeal made today by Mrs. Emmy Kaskel, philanthropy chairman, asking all members, who have not already contributed canned goods or money to the Christmas basket fund, to bring their contributions to this meeting as the baskets will not be distributed until just before Christmas.

Christmas Party At Arcadia Woman's Club Is Charming Affair

Gracious hospitality was the keynote yesterday afternoon when members of Arcadia Woman's club assembled at the clubhouse for the annual Christmas party. Yuletide decorations carried out the spirit of the holidays, with the glow of candles, the lovely formal gowns of the hospitality committee, blending in a colorful scene.

On the program, presented by Mrs. C. E. Hoover, program chairman, were Miss Louise Shaw, blind student of Occidental college, who told of the training of her seeing-eye dog. Her gay wit and vivid personality won her audience, who showed their enthusiasm by prolonged applause.

SINGS SOLOS

Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, music chairman, sang "Christmas Lullaby," accompanied by her daughter, Betty Anne Lumpkin, 'cellist, and Mrs. Florence Anderson, pianist. She encored with a Negro spiritual, "Didn't It Rain?"

Mrs. John Starke, gowned in a smart blue formal, gave four humorous readings. Her "old ladies" and "food expert" were particularly pleasing.

A trio of young girls, Betty Anne Lumpkin, Genevra Holbin, and Evelyn Jacobsen, played Christmas music, later accompanying the audience during the singing of Christmas carols, led by Mrs. Lumpkin.

CHARMING ROOM

Gifts were exchanged by members and the trio rewarded by individual presents before tea was served in the foyer. Mrs. Kenneth Leslie decorated the foyer in blue and silver carrying out her color scheme with a tall, silver Christmas tree, with blue lights, a mantel decorative piece of madonna and cherubin, against a background of blue sprinkled with silver stars, and flanked by blue vigil lights. On the tea-table, small modernistic silver trees, silver leaves, and blue Christmas tree ornaments repeated the colors.

COMMITTEE NAMED

Pouring were Mesdames C. G. Bunting, Mrs. Robert Ferrante, Mrs. Lee D. Sheffel, and Mrs. F. A. Tester. Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, assisted by Mrs. Sheffel, were co-chairmen. Others on the committee included Mrs. Frank Glasser, Mrs. Ardene Boller, Mrs. H. W. Johns, Mrs. Harvey E. Moss, and Mrs. William Bonner.

TREE IS APEX

The auditorium, decorated by Mrs. Robert McMaster, Mrs. George W. Schenck, Mrs. Boyd C. Brown and Mrs. Leola Brown, apexed at the big, decorated Christmas tree on the stage, with the niche, holding an interesting madonna decoration in blue and silver, the welfare table, with its centerpiece of white candles and holly berries, grouped to from a cross, and gift table, handsome with silver trees and other decorations, forming an appropriate background.

Old Dormitory Building Will Make Nucleus

Clubwomen Start Plan For Establishment Of New Venture

ARCADIA, Dec. 22. — Rancho Santa Anita will be the setting for the first hostel in the Southland, it was announced here today.

The movement to establish a hostel here was started by Mrs. A. R. Chambers of the Arcadia Women's Club, who enlisted Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, club president, in the plan.

Agreement With Manager

Through agreement with Clifton Herd, ranch manager, one of the old dormitory buildings beneath the towering trees on the rancho has been made available to serve as the nucleus for California's first hostel.

The only drawback to the plan, according to Miss Millspaugh, is that Arcadia is on a primary system of highways and to qualify for a hostel, a town must be adjacent to or near a secondary road, as traffic-filled highways offer too many hazards to the youthful travelers, all of whom walk, cycle or ride horseback.

An attempt is being made to establish a connecting hostel in Claremont, with other hostels following in foothill communities and at mountain camps, Mrs. Millspaugh said.

Temporary Hostel Before

According to Mrs. Millspaugh, the only hostel in the Southland was the temporary one established last summer in Brentwood Hall at the University of California at Los Angeles. It was used by a group of eastern boys and girls as headquarters during their exploration of Southern California.

The Youth Hostels are found throughout Europe and in the Eastern United States. They are known as a chain of low-priced and interesting hotels for youthful travelers. Qualified chaperones are placed in charge of the hostels and beds and cooking facilities are offered at 25 cents a night.

Attract Finest People

Where the hostels have been established they have attracted the finest type of people, Mrs. Millspaugh said. College students, writers, young professional men and women, teachers, professors, and others take advantage of the low-priced facilities.

The movement originated in Germany and spread from there to England, France, the Scandinavian states, and other countries in Europe.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY OF WOMAN'S CLUB DELIGHTFUL EVENT; LADIES LEARN ABOUT 'SEEING DOGS'

One of the most delightful affairs of the holiday season was the annual Christmas party of the Arcadia Woman's club, held Wednesday afternoon of this week at the club house.

There were about 100 members and guests present to enjoy the large tree and join in the exchange of gifts. This was followed by the program and group singing of Christmas carols led by Mrs. Lumpkin.

A trio composed of the Misses Jacobson, Lumpkin and Holbin, playing the violin, cello and piano, gave several delightful numbers. Mrs. Starke presented three very interesting readings.

The unusual part of the program came when the blind Miss Louise Shull appeared with her "seeing eye dog" and talked entertainingly about the training of these dogs. Miss Shull's home is in Hawthorne. She is a student at Occidental college.

The delightful afternoon ended with tea, sandwiches and cakes being served in the reception room.

The ladies in charge of the different committees were Mrs. Joe Masters, decorations; Mrs. Charles Hoover, program, and Mrs. Charles Stewart, hospitality.

Woman's Club Notes

More than 100 members and guests yesterday attended the Woman's club annual Christmas party, with the president, Mrs. Ina Millspaugh, extending Yuletide greetings and welcome.

Attended by her Seeing dog, Miss Louise Hull of Inglewood, blind student at Occidental college, graphically described the history of these dogs, mode of training, both for dog and master, and related interesting experiences she had had. Mrs. C. E. Hoover, program chairman, introduced the young speaker, who was greatly appreciated by the audience.

Accompanied by her daughter Betty, on the 'cello, and Mrs. LeRoy Anderson at the piano, Mrs. Helen Lumpkin sang several numbers. The musical trio, Genevra Holbin, piano; Evelyn Jacobson, violin; and Betty Lumpkin, 'cello, entertained with a group of selections. Mrs. John Stark entertainingly contributed to the program with interpretive readings. Prior to the distribution of presents by Mrs. Ivan Stoker and her committee, members joined in singing Christmas songs, led by Mrs. Lumpkin.

Closing off the foyer, members of the decorating and hospitality committee transformed it into a beautiful Christmas tea room, tables laden down with sandwiches, cakes, nuts and candies, with tea poured by Mesdames Floyd Tester, Robert Ferrante, Roberta Scheffel and Charles Bunting. Decorations were arranged by Mrs. Wm. C. Bonner and Mrs. K. B. Leslie. Others on the hospitality committee who contributed to the success of the party were Mrs. Jessie Stoker, chairman, and Mrs. Florence Anderson.

Members bountifully supplied food stuffs for the Christmas baskets.

Visiting over the holidays, during the social hour, declared the 1938 Xmas party a very outstanding affair.

CLUB TO STUDY EARLY CALIFORNIANA HERE

After having gone far afield in search of history members of the California History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's club will find it right at home. For on January 11 at 2 o'clock, W. Parker Lyon of the Pony Express museum will personally conduct them on a tour of the museum.

"We hardly appreciate what an asset to our city this museum is, offering as it does, close personal touch with objects of our state's history, which tell the story of early Californians and their struggle up from the primitive to an assured place in the sun," said Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, chairman in charge of the pilgrimage.

All interested are invited to join the group at the entrance. A small fee will be charged for entrance with an afternoon of pleasure and profit awaiting all visitors, according to the chairman.

Woman's Club Program Set For Tomorrow

The first program of the new year at the Arcadia Woman's club tomorrow afternoon promises to be one of most interesting of the entire season. Mrs. C. E. Hoover, program chairman, is presenting Mrs. Alice Evans Field of Will Hays Distributing bureau and Frances Farmer Wilder of Columbia Broadcasting company as speakers.

While in the current events section, Mrs. Carl Randolph, chairman, has arranged for Stanley McClintic, director of adult education, and teacher of American problems at Monrovia - Arcadia - Duarte high school, to appear. He will discuss current American problems and as he is considered an outstanding authority in this field his comments will be of particular value at the present time with the country facing the greatest problems of its history.

Ruth A. Dann, well known artist, billed as a "pianologist" will present a series of delightful monologues to music. She is a pupil of Freda Peycke, noted music instructor.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, will preside at the 12:15 luncheon. Mrs. Florence Anderson is chairman of the luncheon committee with Mesdames H. Sparks, E. Springsted, R. Yarrow, M. Moore, L. Burton, E. Elliott, B. Lewis, M. Elam, and L. Brown, assisting.

Problems Facing Democratic Nations Told At Club Meeting

Variety was the word for the program presented yesterday afternoon at the Arcadia Woman's club when everything was discussed from the serious problems of democracy to the lighter exigencies of the motion picture and radio business.

The serious side of the program—delightfully studded with her own particular brand of quiet humor however—was presented by Mrs. Carl Randolph, current events chairman, who prefaced her introduction of Stanley McClintic, director of adult education of the Monrovia - Arcadia - Duarte high school district, with a brief commentary on events of the day.

TELLS OF PROBLEMS

Mr. McClintic told the "tired clubwoman"—Mrs. Randolph's term—of the problems facing democracy today. He pointed out that since the world war democracy has succumbed in many countries. Then he asked the all important question: "Can democracy survive in America today?"

"ABUNDANT ERA"

"We have solved the problem of production within the past 25 years and are now in the 'era of abundance.' Now it is our business to solve the problem of distribution," he said.

His great hope lies in the thousands of students who are seriously studying the problems of democracy and earnestly seeking means of alleviating them. The greatest problem confronting us today he believes is nominating and electing honest and efficient men to office. If that can be successfully carried out then democracy will survive.

"REHEARSE" PROGRAM

Mrs. Alice Evan Field, representative of Motion Picture Producers association, "rehearsed" a radio script with Mrs. Ardene Boller, acting as interlocutor. Many interesting facts were brought out in the course of the impromptu "broadcast," including the 1938 rating of top motion picture stars. Shirley Temple the "broadcast" disclosed leads at the box office with Sonjia Henie, Mickey Rooney, Spencer Tracy and Clark Gable among the first ten.

Mrs. C. E. Hoover, program chairman, introduced Mrs. R. G. Dronberger, motion picture and radio chairman, who had arranged the program. She in turn presented her guest, Mrs. Connor, district radio chairman.

SINGS

Pinchhitting in place of the announced artist was Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, music chairman, who gave three charming character songs that were exceptionally pleasing.

Next on the program was blonde, Frances Farmer Wilder, of Columbia Broadcasting studio, who told of the history of radio and outlined the tremendous possibilities inherent in it.

RADIO IMPORTANT

"Radio is one of the most important things in American life in relation to our democracy," she said. "For radio made Hitler, it is keeping Mussolini in power, and holding Soviet Russia together."

She further maintained that radio must be guarded carefully in order to keep it free and untrammeled. She gave as an example the plenary powers of the president, who is given free radio facilities at any time by the big companies for his speeches. Should an unscrupulous executive desire he could easily control the entire country through radio, she said.

KEEP RADIO FREE

"You have to keep radio free if you're going to keep your democracy," she warned.

Edward A. Larkin, public relations representative of Columbia, followed Miss Wilder, giving an interesting factual speech on radio. Columbia through its interrelated networks reaches 98 per cent of the population of the United States, according to Mr. Larkin, who also stated that Hollywood now ranks second as a production center, New York being first.

LITTLE KNOWN FACTS

Other little known facts about radio, its cost of production, system of re-broadcasting, and many other things were told the audience, who expressed their wholehearted interest in the subject in a question and answer period at the close of Mr. Larkin's speech. Questions flew thick and fast and the young speaker was kept hopping by curious members, who aired not a few grievances at radio, as well as expressed their admiration of its artists and executives.

TURF CLUB DANCE

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, presided over the luncheon period and announced the annual Turf club dance to be on March 17, this year. She also reminded members of husband's night on January 20, promising them the "best dinner ever" for the evening. Reservations may be made through Mrs. James A. Stoker for the district birthday party to be held January 17 at Huntington Park theatre, she stated.

Luncheon chairman was Mrs. LeRoy Anderson. She was assisted by Mrs. Boyd Brown, Mrs. W. G. Lewis, Mrs. B. E. Rubottom, Mrs. Rose Yarrow, Mrs. A. L. Burton, Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. William R. Elam, Mrs. R. D. Sparks, Mrs. Robert Ferrante, and Mrs. Charles Stewart.

History Section Enjoys Trip

Far pastures are not greenest where history is concerned members of California History and Landmarks section of Arcadia Woman's club found out when they "pilgrimaged" to the Pony Express museum on Wednesday afternoon, for there they found rare historical articles existing nearly at their own door.

LED GROUP

J. S. Eshelman led the group through the museum until the arrival of W. Parker Lyon, who had been attending a motion picture conference. He pointed out many examples of Californiana including old cattle brands, chests, locks, pictures, etc.

SAVED LIFE OF FAMOUS SCOUT

One copper kettle shown them was used by the mother of Buffalo Bill to save his life. During an Indian raid she hid him under it and he was the only survivor of the entire party.

OLD SIGN

The old express sign, buried since 1873, and only found in 1928 proved interesting as did the 1854 wine press from San Gabriel, and the hammered copper kettle found buried 20 feet under ground on the Bandini rancho.

RARE PICTURES

Other interesting things inspected were the Downeyville scales of 1854, papers and records of the old Wells Fargo express, a lookout faro chair, used by gambler to spot trouble, the leaping frog of Mark Twain fame, pictures from 101 Rancho showing Will Rogers and Buffalo Bill, and many other quaint and unusual articles.

THOSE ATTENDING

Those who made the pilgrimage were Mesdames E. J. Frentress, H. E. Riess, C. E. Hookway, B. Rubottom, J. Renshaw, J. J. Macfarlane, J. D. Stanley, G. Schneck, J. Stoker, F. Muller, C. Crellin, F. Schaenbacher, C. Lumpkin, Ester Hough, E. Hagan, Lumpkin, C. Hoover, J. S. Giridlian, and two guests, D. Van Pelt, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Murfett, Miss Eva Reynolds, and Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, chairman.

"Husband's Nite" Attracts 150

More than 150 guests crowded the Arcadia Woman's clubhouse last night at the annual "Husband's Nite" when members entertain in honor of their escorts and husbands.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh graciously presided over the attractively decorated tables at which members of the club served a delicious dinner featuring baked ham and other delightful dishes.

Following dinner Dr. Cecil Mann of Pomona college spoke on Australia telling of the life of a "sun downer" or rancher. The Floradora Sextette of Venice P.-T. A. proved a big hit with the husbands as did the comedy songs and skits of "The Browns" a professional team of vaudeville actors.

Members of the club were generous with their time and work for the dinner, club officers say, and evveryone cooperated in a splendid manner to make this "one of the mos toutstanding affairs of the kind ever staged by the club."

HISTORY SECTION TO MEET WEDNESDAY

California History and Landmarks section of Arcadia Woman's club will convene at the clubhouse Wednesday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock, with Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, chairman, presiding.

A short session will be held at which plans for the annual California History and Landmarks day will be formed. This meeting falls on February 1 and will feature an attractive pantomimed saga of old California. Mrs. S. J. Hathaway, district history chairman, will be guest of honor, the chairman announced.

ARCADIA

Plans for the brilliant Turf Club Dance at Santa Anita Park March 17 today were being completed by members of the Arcadia Women's Club. Mrs. C. E. Hoover is general chairman, assisted by Mesdames W. Junior Tells Of Stage Designing

In designing gowns for the stage any costume or the dress of a character of any period must be so perfectly accented in detail, outline, fitting and suitability that it will present a clear cut and authentic picture for all time of whoever that person represents, according to Miss Jane Robinson, who delivered a speech on the subject of Stage Designing before Arcadia Junior Women's club at their recent meeting in the clubhouse.

Miss Robinson further told the members that great stress is laid on authencity and style accuracy in dressing any production and the first item always considered is the stage lighting as all fabrics should be chosen under same color intensity that will be used in the finished production. And, Miss Robinson emphasized, a character must not be so dressed that the effect overshadows the personality of the role he portrays.

Members present at the meeting included Miss Virginia Brown, Miss Louise Evans, Mrs. Irene Bachman, Mrs. Betty Welch, Miss Barbara Geiger, Miss Margaret Brown, Mrs. Mary Bellinger, Mrs. Eleanora Ott, Miss Dorothy Walters, and Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, president.

Plans were made for Reciprocity day on February 16 at which Misses Brown and Geiger will be hostesses.

The annual spring dance has been postponed to May 6 in order not to conflict with the Woman's club dance to be held at the Los Angeles Turf club on St. Patrick's day.

Successful Event At Woman's Club Friday

Combining fun, food and frolic more than 150 enjoyed "Husband's Nite" Friday at the Woman's club when the executive board were "at the helm" of the pleasant event.

Following the baked ham and fish dinner, Dr. Cecil Mann of Pomona college replaced Arthur O'Conner, who was unable to appear, presenting a moving picture lecture of Australia's interesting urban and rural life. "The Browns," professional entertainers, provided many laughs with their comedy, and the "Florado Sextette" from the Venice P.-T. A. choral society, proved a hit with their numbers.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, called upon several husbands who spontaneously responded with propos quips. Those attending proclaimed the affair one of the specially successful affairs of the club year.

California Day A tWoman's Club Next Wednesday

Guest speaker for the annual California Day luncheon at the Arcadia Woman's club on Wednesday, February 1, will be Mrs. S. J. Hathaway, district chairman of California History and Landmarks, and an accredited historian. A Spanish word drill directed by Mrs. John Renshaw will be held to demonstrate the method used by the section to become familiar with Spanish pronunciation and meaning of Spanish names in local history.

During the afternoon program a "Saga of Early California," written by Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, chairman, will be presented. Section members will act out each episode in pantomime as the narrator proceeds with the story. Characters prominent in history of the state will be enacted and musical and dancing numbers given reminiscent of olden times. Proper costuming will play its part in educational and interesting portrayal.

On Monday at 1 p. m., section members will rehearse their parts at the clubhouse. Tables and stage will be decorated on Tuesday afternoon and officers announce that all Indian, Mexican and Spanish articles to be used in decorating and costuming should be in the hands of section members by that time.

HISTORY SECTION HAS BUSINESS MEETING

The California History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's club met in regular session at the clubhouse on Wednesday. After a brief Spanish word drill and business routine, members perfected plans for the presentation of "A Saga of Early California" written by Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, at the club on February 1. The script was read and parts were assigned to members in the pantomime.

Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, Mrs. C. E. Hoover, and Mrs. E. J. Prentress were appointed to the costume committee. Mrs. J. S. Craig will direct.

CLUBWOMEN ENTERTAIN HUSBANDS WITH DINNER AND VARIED PROGRAM

The annual Husbands' Night banquet given by the Woman's club last Friday evening was a delightful affair. About 150 guests sat down to the beautifully appointed tables and enjoyed a baked ham dinner.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, the president, presided. A number of the husbands responded to toasts, among them Judge Boller, Eugene Harpole, F. C. Ingraham, A. R. Chambers, Mark Millspaugh, John E. Vaudebur, and W. N. Powell of Minnesota, the president's father, who is wintering in California.

The program after the banquet was in charge of Mrs. Charles Hoover, who presented six P.-T. A. ladies from Venice, who gave an amusing parody on the Floradora Sextette.

The Browns of Glendale, a comedy team of music and monologue, proved exceedingly entertaining.

The principal speaker of the evening was to have been Arthur O'Connor, but as he was unable to be there, he sent as his substitute Dr. Cecil Mann, professor of psychology at Claremont college, who gave a very interesting talk on Australia, illustrated with pictures. Dr. Mann is a native Australian, so understood his subject thoroughly.

Ovation Given Beloved Leader Of History Section at Club

It was heartening to witness the ovation given Mrs. Emily Mann Timerhoff, section chairman, at the annual California History and Landmarks day at the Arcadia Woman's club, yesterday afternoon. The tribute came at the end of the program presented by Mrs. Timerhoff and her section members and testified to the affection with which club members regard Mrs. Timerhoff.

Wonderful cooperation was shown by all members of the section, who worked for weeks to make the program the well-shaped entertainment that it was.

SPANISH ATMOSPHERE

The clubhouse was gayly decorated in the Spanish motif, employing baskets, serapes, gourd-filled carretas on the luncheon tables, shawls and even a lovely, little shrine.

TELLS OF EARLY HISTORY

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh presided over the luncheon that preceded the informative speech by Mrs. S. J. Hathaway, guest of honor, and main speaker of the day, who told of California's history in agriculture, neatly tying-in past glories with present possibilities and future greatness. She described early efforts to raise silk in California, and said first attempts were made in gold rush days, when the State legislature offered a bounty of $250 to each grower in the state who could prove he had five year old mulberry trees. The demands made upon the treasury nearly depleted the state's finances and caused a frantic repeal.

FIRST EFFORTS

The beginnings of the cotton industry, and of the fig and grape industries, were interestingly told by Mrs. Hathaway. She closed her speech with a prediction of the flower industry as one of future greatness.

WORD DRILL

Mrs. John Renshaw led the Spanish word drill that preceded the pantomime story of old California, "Our Yesterdays," written, directed and narrated by Mrs. Timerhoff, who announced each character and told the part he or she played.

PAGEANTRY

Moving in colorful fashion on the attractive stage set that represented the patio of the old Avila home, such famous characters of history as General Fremont, Lola Montez, Indian maids, chiefs, caballeros and dancing girls recreated "old California."

DASHING CABALLERO

Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, in a dashing black satin caballero costume, strumming a guitar and singing "Maurine," a song composed by Mrs. Timerhoff, as a serenade to a dainty senorita, who was played by Miss Barbara Geiger in graceful, white mantilla and high comb, nearly stopped the show. Mrs. C.

Blend Rouge With Skin

Next comes your rouge. The proper color depends on your skin color and the color of the costume you expect to wear. There are many variations of the orange reds

Mrs. B. Rubottom as General Marino Guadalupe Vallejo. The two ladies handkissed and swanked about the stage with most masculine fervor.

DANCER CHARMS

Miss Lola Rawson, portraying the daughter of Senora Pico, danced two charming dances, one a native Mexican dance, and the other a lilting Spanish number. Her costumes were exceptionally lovely and she won her audience with her youthful verve and charm.

FINALE

The entire cast sang "Memories" as a finale and Mrs. Timerhoff, following, as she said, an old theatrical custom, introduced her cast of characters by name. It was following this actron that she in turn was surprised by Mrs. Renshaw leading her to the front of the stage, and presenting her with a potted plant. (She was previously given a lovely corsage by her section members during luncheon.)

NEW MEMBERS

Five new members were accepted into the club. They were Mesdames Robert Armstrong; E. G. McCormick, of Alhambra; Mrs. Philip Libby, Mrs. A. P. Minten, and Mrs. William Brandt.

LUNCHEON COMMITTEE

On the committee for the luncheon were Mrs. George W. Schenck, Mrs. R. W. Evans, Mrs. Robert McMaster, Mrs. J. Thomas Reynolds, Miss Pearl Smith, Mrs. Stanley Crane, Mrs. Charles A. Dillingham, Mrs. Glenn H. Moore, Mrs. Alrena B. Ellison, and Mrs. F. E. Schanbacher.

Mrs. Timerhoff extends her thanks and appreciation to the following individuals for their cooperation in lending articles for decoration or stage properties: Mr .and Mrs. George Barngrover, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hobbs, Mrs. William Rose, William Faulkner, Mrs. J. L. Byrne, W. Parker Lyon, R. H. Sheehan, Ralph Ericsson, and many others.

GUESTS NAMED

Among distinguished guests at the affair was Mrs. Bertha Fuller, president of the Los Angeles California History and Landmarks, and Mrs. A. Lane, both of Los Angeles. Following the meeting members assembled out front for pictures which were snapped by Mrs. C. C. Hoffman.

New Custom Is Inaugurated For Dance Event

With plans well underway for the third annual Turf club dance of the Arcadia Woman's club, committee members today announce a departure in the usual procedure.

As they feel that so many demands are made upon local merchants by various organizations of the city to contribute to this fund or that fund they are not asking them to advertise in club programs this year as in the past, but are upping the price of each individual ticket to $1.00, instead of the usual 75c.

PASS MOTION

Motion was unanimously passed at a recent club meeting approving this action when the matter was brought before the membership body.

Mrs. C. E. Hoover, chairman in charge of arrangements committee, tabbed off a special item of entertainment as being "the best dance band obtainable." Three bands are now under consideration by the committee and the best of the three leading bands will be selected to play.

LUXURIOUS SETTING

The luxurious setting afforded by the Turf club for this dance easily makes it one of the stellar events of the social and club season. This year many new and interesting events are being arranged.

There will be square dances for those who still remember the schottische and polka with a thrill and for moderns there will be a de luxe master of ceremonies to stage the Lambeth Walk and other dances.

HAVE SECRETS

The ladies are not divulging some of the "hits" they have planned for the program as they will be staged the night of the dance.

NO OTHER EVENT

"We hope that everybody will feel as we do," smiled Mrs. Hoover "that the night of March 17th there must be no event in Arcadia, except the Turf club dance."

BRAZILIAN ROOM

Refreshments will be served in the smart new Brazilian room of the Turf club with Mrs. Bert J. Morris in charge of the committee.

CARD GAMES

Cards will be played in the dining room of the club, which will offer all types of card games as well as the usual bridge and Chinese checkers. Mrs. J. Thomas Reynolds will be in charge of the section of the program.

TO RELEASE LIST

It was also announced today that a list of patrons and patronesses will soon be released and that the tickets, which are expected to go to 600 people, will shortly be on sale.

ENTERTAIN GUESTS AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. William Hobbs entertained three guests at the Arcadia Woman's club meeting Wednesday. They were Mrs. C. Downing, Mrs. D. K. Swager, and her mother, Mrs. M. De Groff, of Kansas City, Mo., who is spending the winter here.

THIRD ANNUAL TURF CLUB DANCE SPONSORED BY ARCADIA WOMAN'S CLUB, CALENDARED FOR MARCH 17

Mrs. C. E. Hoover, chairman of the third annual Turf Club dance sponsored by the Arcadia Woman's Club, announces this social event will take place on Friday night March 17th in a luxurious setting at the Turf Club house at Santa Anita race track in Arcadia.

Three bands are being considered by the committee and the ladies fully expect to select the best of the three; in other words, Mrs. Hoover asserts that the "best dance band" will be obtained.

Many new and interesting features are being arranged by the committees.

There will be square dances for those who still remember the scottische and polka with a thrill and for moderns there will be a de luxe master of ceremonies to stage the Lambeth Walk and other dances.

The ladies are not divulging some of the "hits" they have planned for the program as they will be staged the night of the dance.

Refreshments will be served in the smart new Brazilian room of the Turf Club with Mrs. Bert J. Morris in charge of the committee.

Cards will be played in the dining room of the club, which will offer all types of card games as well as the usual bridge and Chinese checkers. Mrs. J. Thomas Reynolds will be in charge of the section of the program.

A list of patrons and patronesses will be released soon, and tickets, which are expected to go to 600 people will soon be on sale.

No ads will be solicited by the committee this year for the programs, however the price of individual tickets will be advanced from 75c to $1.

First Hostel Site Picked

Youth Quarters Will Be Opened Soon at Rancho Santa Anita

ARCADIA, Feb. 20.—Southern California's first youth hostel will open under the towering eucalypti of Rancho Santa Anita before the summer vacation season, according to announcement made today by Mrs. A. R. Chambers, local committee head.

The movement to promote enjoyment of outdoor life and youthful self-reliance is a western outgrowth of the New England American Youth Hostel Association—and not to be confused with the County Youth Commission's enterprise for the benefit of transient and unemployed youth.

COUNTY INDORSEMENT

Heartily indorsed by the County Board of Supervisors, the hostel will be one of three similar places in the Pasadena-San Gabriel Valley area.

Permission has been given by Clifton Herd, manager of the Santa Anita ranch, for the hostel to occupy a dormitory building near the historic Baldwin Lake.

Recreational facilities of the district, including Santa Anita Playground and near-by mountain trails and bridle paths, will be open to everyone from "4 to 94," according to Betty Blodgett, western representative of the Northfield (Mass.) headquarters of the movement.

Hikers, cyclists and horseback riders will have access to the hostel either individually or in especially conducted trips.

ARCADIA SPONSORS

Sponsoring the Arcadia plan are the Woman's Club, Chamber of Commerce, Rotary and Lions clubs.

Jack Hanah and Verne Harris of Pasadena are active in promoting it.

Site Selected For Youth Hostel

Rancho Santa Anita has been selected as the site for Los Angeles County's first youth hostel, to be ready for occupancy before the summer vacation season, Mrs. A. R. Chamber, head of the Arcadia committee, announced yesterday.

Entirely Separate

The movement is to promote enj·yment of outdoor life and youthful self-reliance. The Rancho Santa Anita Hotel has no connection with the County Youth Commission's similar plan for the benefit of transient and unemployed youth.

The hostel will be one of three in the Pasadena- San Gabriel Valley area, all indorsed by the County Board of Supervisors. Sites of the others have not yet been selected.

The hostel will be situated in a dormitory building near Baldwin Lake. The house will have four large rooms, two fireplaces and a kitchen and will be partially rebuilt by volunteers.

Lovers Of Outdoors

Hikers, horseback riders and cyclists will have access to the hostel. Visitors will do their own cooking and house parents will supervise the hostel.

Sponsors of the Arcadia hostel are: Woman's Club, Chamber of Commerce, Rotary and Lions Clubs. Two Pasadenans, Jack Hanah and Verne Harris, are prominent in promoting the hostel.

Start Next Week

Actual rebuilding will be started next week during a "work holiday."

Youth Hostel To Be Opened In Arcadia Soon

The local youth hostel committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. A. R. Chambers have announced its establishment here because of the urgent need for visiting youth and students who are attracted to this place by the many recreational facilities.

Through the courtesy of Clifford Herd of the Rancho Santa Anita the large two-story structure located on the ranch will be converted into proper living accommodations for overnight hikers and bicyclists. House parents will be in attendance to assist the young people in preparing simple meals and in living up to the high traditions of American and European hostels.

PROVED INVALUABLE

Such hostels have been opened in many parts of the United States and have proved to be invaluable in training youth to enjoy the great outdoors and in aiding them to become acquainted with the simple rudiments of self-reliance and group recreation. Always well patronized by the various youth organizations the local hostel will attract many youths to enjoy the unparalleled opportunities of recreation offered by Arcadia.

Present area plans call for "a loop' 'or a chain of three such hostels to be in full operation before the coming summer vacation. The Southern California hostel committee has been working out the details for the remaining hostels in the loop and will announce the particulars within a very short time.

HIGHLY ENDORSED

The present plan has been enthusiastically endorsed by the county board of supervisors and is not to be confused with the recent announcement of such hostels being used for transient and unemployed youth.

The local American youth hostel is being sponsored by the Arcadia Woman's club, the Arcadia Chamber of Commerce, the Rotary and the Lions clubs of Arcadia.

Noted Writer To Speak At Woman's Club Meeting

Guest speaker at the next meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club scheduled for Wednesday, March 1, will be Perley Poore Sheehan, of Sierra Madre, noted writer, scenarist, and former editor of the Paris edition of the New York Herald, Mrs. C. E. Hoover, program chairman, announced today.

DISCOURSE INSPIRED ON MOMENT

Mr. Sheehan, whose Hollywood career included the writing of the script for The Hunchback of Notre Dame, classic picture of all times, is the author of a number of distinguished books. He is an accomplished orator and has appeared before many of the leading clubs of the Southland. An extemporaneous speaker he never announces the subject of his discourse before hand depending upon the moment for inspiration. His speeches are always rich in content of thought and exceptionally beautiful in mode of expression.

Other events on the program include a series of character sketches by Jane Goude and an interesting group of musical numbers.

An especially interesting event of the day will be the appearance of Mrs. Chobun Okamoto, of New York and Sierra Madre, who is known throughout the United States as the ambassadress of goodwill. The wife of Chobun Yonezo Okamoto, wealthy art patron, writer and industrialist, she is a poet and writer of merit in her own right. Mrs. Okamoto will wear native dress when she brings greetings from the women of Japan to the women of America.

Famous Writer Urges Women To Become Seers

Women must return to their original roles of seers and prophets of the race if they are to take their rightful places in this troubled world, according to Perley Poore Sheehan, writer, scenarist and distinguished journalist, who spoke before members of the Arcadia Woman's club yesterday afternoon at their regular meeting.

SINCERE SPEAKER

Mr. Sheehan in a sincere and moving speech pointed out that each woman held within her own heart the seeds of greatness such as those that animated St. Catherine of Sienna and Joan of Arc, if they were rightly used.

PROVIDE SPARK

"Don't come to your club meetings to discuss the trivialities of the day, but come determined to make each event an inspiration that will provide the spark of love and courage so needed today," pleaded Mr. Sheehan.

He emphasized the important place held by modern women and taking the role of prophet predicted even greater opportunities for feminine service and race inspiration in the future.

TELLS FOLK TALE

Preceding Mr. Sheehan on the program was Mrs. Chobun Y. Okamoto, wife of one of Japan's best known authors, industrialist and worker for international peace. Attired in a dainty, blue kimono, she related a Japanese folk tale that symbolized the origin of the great cherry blossom festival of Japan.

BRINGS GREETINGS

With charming modesty she told her audience that she brought greetings to them from the women of Japan "not because anyone told me to, but because I believe that each individual represents her own country when living in a foreign land."

On the afternoon program Miss Jane Goude, of Hollywood, gave a series of clever impersonations ranging from a playlet, in which she played each role, to the characterization of an old Irish washerwoman.

MUSICAL NUMBERS

Mrs. Le Roy Anderson, club member, played two numbers, "Romance" and "To a Wild Rose" on her violin. Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, presided, and Mrs. G. G. Meade was chairman of the luncheon committee.

GARDEN SECTION TO MEET TUESDAY

The garden section of the Women's club will meet Tuesday afternoon, March 7, at 1:45 o'clock at the home of Mrs. V. J. Wagoner, 140 West Walnut avenue.

All members are requested to be present as important business will be enacted, according to Mrs. Nellie White, chairman.

Annual St. Patrick's Dance at Santa Anita Turf Club

Their third annual St. Patrick's dance a the Santa Anita turf club, to be put on by the Woman's Club of Arcadia, Friday evening March 17, promises to be the outstanding social event on their calendar this year.

The committee, headed by Mrs. C. E. Hoover is working untiringly to make this one of the smartest events of the season, and has secured Art Crippns 10-piece dance orchestra from Pasadena to provide music for the dancers. Fifteen handsome door prizes will be awarded, in addition to the prizes for cards. The dining room is to be turned over exclusively to the card players, who will be in charge of Mrs. Lulu Reynolds, Mrs. James Craig and Mrs. Bonner.

A number of stunts and surprise features are being kept in the background by the committee for last minute surprises. Tickets are one dollar each.

A representative list of patrons and patronesses, who are behind the project are Mr. and Mrs. Rex P. Harbert of Monrovia, Mr. and Mrs. Buron Fitts of Duarte, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Westerhouse of Arcadia, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Chandler, jr., of Santa Anita Oaks, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Hurd of Rancho and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Wilson of the Oaks.

Arcadia club women assisting Mrs. Hoover on the committee are Mrs. Glen Watson, Mrs. Frank Ingraham, Mrs. Loren Roosevelt, Mrs. DeForest Stoll, Mrs. Harry Nesbitt and Mrs. Ardene Boller.

Proceeds from the event will go towards reducing the club debt.

Annual Peach Blossom Festival

Throught the courtesy of the Garden Section, members of the Woman's club will be presented a program by that group next Wednesday. Luncheon in charge of Mrs. C. F. Ganther will precede the meeting.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, reminds members that election of the nominating and election committee will take place during a short business period, and requests all members to attend.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB HAS SOCIAL MEETING

Bridge, chinese checkers and other games formed the diversion Tuesday evening for members of the Junior Woman's club at their regular social meeting, concluding with refreshments served by the president, Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs.

Those attending were: Misses Barbara Geiger, Helen McDonald, Marjorie Dickon, Margaret Brown, Louise Evans, Dorothy Walters, Edith Ekman, Virginia Brown; Mrs. Mary Bellinger, and Mrs. Marie Wiley.

Next Thursday evening a business meeting will be held.

Festival At Club Next Wednesday

Because one woman dreamed a dream Arcadia may someday be filled with the delicate beauty of flowering peach trees, with flower-laden streets the goal of beauty lovers from the four ends of the land.

Mrs. Nellie T. White, chairman of the garden section of the Arcadia Woman's club, and originator of the annual Peach Blossom Festival, is the woman whose energy and enthusiasm have translated much of the dream into reality.

PLANTS 1,000 TREES

For it was she who encouraged the planting of more than a thousand flowering peach trees in the city of Arcadia. Three hundred of these are located on racetrack property near the old winery of E. J. "Lucky" Baldwin on Rancho Santa Anita, and 100 are within the confines of Santa Anita Recreational park, 25 of them donated from her own purse.

FESTIVAL AT CLUB

On Wednesday, March 15, the fifth annual festival will take place at the Arcadia Woman's club, with the garden section in charge of the event. Mrs. White will preside over the program that follows the regular luncheon meeting. She has arranged for an authority on camellias to be guest speaker.

INSPIRE BY FETE

Mrs. White, whose love of the cherry blossom fete in Washington, D. C., indirectly inspired the Arcadia Peach Blossom festival, has long been known for her work in civic betterment and home beautification. She has long sponsored the movement to plant a flowering peach tree in every yard in Arcadia and has inspired the love and cooperation of her associates in the garden section for her devotion to flowers and plants.

BOWER OF BEAUTY

As is the usual custom the clubhouse, stage and luncheon tables will be decorated in accordance with the theme of the fete. Although the lack of rain and the unusual windstorm have seriously delayed and depleted the blossoms, Mrs. White expects the auditorium to be a bower of beauty.

COMMITTEE NAMED

Mrs. Helen Lumpkin and Mrs. M. M. Trew will be in charge of the musical program with Mrs. C. F. Ganther, chairman of the luncheon committee. Others on the committee are Mesdames Bert J. Morris, S. C. Nichols, John Vanderbur, Harold Hawkins, C. O. Holmgren, Helen Lumpkin, George W. Schenck, and William Hobbs.

VISIONS PAGEANT

In the future, Mrs. White visions a pageant comparable to that staged in Washington to be held at Santa Anita park each spring with hundreds of peach trees as a background to attract a group similar to the thousands of tourists who annually pour a million dollars into the city of Washington at the time of the cherry blossom festival.

Turf Club Dance Promises To Be Brilliant Affair

All roads lead to Rome according to the old saying and certainly all roads will lead to Santa Anita racetrack the night of March 17. For that is the night selected by members of the Arcadia Woman's club for thier annual Turf club dance.

PROMINENT SPONSORS

Reservations are pouring in for the event, Mrs. C. E. Hoover, chairman of the arrangements committee, disclosed today and with a list of socially prominent patrons and patronesses the event promises to be one of the smartest of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Buron Fitts, of Duarte, and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Westerhouse, of Arcadia, have been added to the patrons list which already includes Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Nash, of Pasadena; Mr and Mrs. Cliff Herd, of Rancho Santa Anita; Mr. and Mrs. Rex Harbart, of Monrovia; and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Chandler, of Sierra Madre.

BAND FEATURE

An interesting program scheduled for the evening will feature Art Crippen's orchestra of Pasadena, the splendid dance band that plays for the majority of Pasadena's swank social affairs and a card room offering every type of game from Chinese checkers to auction and contract bridge.

Mrs. J. Thomas Reynolds, who will preside over the card room, promises a hondsome list of prizes to be given for high scores in addition to a number of door prizes

REFRESHMENT COMMITTEE

Refreshments will be served by a committee composed of Mrs. Bert Morris, Mrs. Henry Reiss and Mrs. Joe Hall at two convenient locations, one adjoining the dance floor and the other near the card players.

Colorful decorations will add their touch of brightness to the general scene. They will be arranged by Mrs. Victor J. Wagoner, with Mesdames R. W. Evans, Helen Lumpkin, William Bonner and Mrs. J. S. Craig, assisting.

JUNIORS AID

Misses Barbara Geiger, Virginia Hostutler, and Marjorie Hobbs, of the Arcadia Junior Woman's club will sell shamrock boutonnieres and Misses Virginia Brown and Helen Renshaw will assist in the check room.

MEN'S COMMITTEE

On the men's committee for the dance will be Messrs. A. L. Parker, C. C. Hoffman, J. A. Stoker, James Craig, William Murfett and C. L. Newell. This committe will erect the orchestra platform and attend the door.

Schedule Fifth Annual Fete This Week

Peach blossom time in Arcadia will be celebrated Wednesday when the Arcadia Women's Club holds its fifth annual Peach Blossom Festival.

The fete will be directed by Mrs. Nellie T. White, chairman of the Garden Section and originator of the annual festival.

To Speak On Camellias

Following the luncheon, which will be served in the club dining hall converted into a bower of blossoms for the occasion, an authority on camellias will be presented as speaker. Mrs. Helen Lumpkin and Mrs. M. M. Trew will be in charge of the musical program with Mrs. C. F. Ganther, chairman of the luncheon committee. Others assisting with arrangements are Mesdames Bert J. Morris, S. C. Nichols, John Vanderbur, Harold Hawkins, C. O. Holmgren, Helen Lumpkin, George W. Schenck, and William Hobbs.

It was through the efforts of Mrs. White that more than 1000 peach trees have been planted in Arcadia. Three hundred of the trees are located on race track property near the old winery of E. J. "Lucky" Baldwin, while 100 are within the confines of Santa Anita Recreational Park and others are planted on the Women's Clubhouse grounds.

Plan Big Pageant

WOMAN'S CLUB PEACH BLOSSOM FESTIVAL DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

The regular meeting of the Woman's Club on Wednesday was the annual Peach Blossom Festival, sponsored by the garden section of the club. The clubhouse was a bower of beauty, and the tables lovely with white tapers and pink blooms.

A delicious chicken pie luncheon was served to the 100 members present by a committee under the efficient chairmanship of Mrs. Charles F. Ganther.

Two tables were reserved for the members of the garden section. Mrs. Ina Millspaugh, club president, presided and introduced Mrs. T. H. White, chairman of the section, who gave a most interesting talk on flowering trees. After the tables were cleared, the group was charmed with two songs by Mrs. Lola Trew, "Roses" and "I Passed by Your Window," Mrs. Trew was accompanied by Mrs. Anderson.

This was followed by an interesting and instructive illustrated lecture on camellias, by Clarence Hearn, well known nurseryman on Santa Anita avenue. Mr. Hearn first gave the history of the camellia and its culture and stated that it is particularly adapted to the soil in San Gabriel valley. Then he showed slides showing different specimens in their natural

Large Attendance At Woman's Club

Lavishly using peach blossome to decorate with Mrs. Nellie A. White and members of the Garden Section had charge of program Wednesday at the Woman's club when about 150 members and visitors attended.

Mrs. White gave a resume of the peach blossom festival started here a few years ago and patterned after the cherry blossom festival at Washington, D. C.

During the program Mrs. Lola Trew sang two songs, accompanpanied by Mrs. LeRoy Anderson. Clarence Hearn entertained with moving pictures depicting camellias and their growth.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh presided over the business meeting at which time election of the nominating committee took place with Mmes. J. S. Craig, C. F. Noak, Hugh Sanborn, Lulu Reynolds, and V. J. Wagoner named. Delegates were also assigned to attend the district convention in Glendale, April 19, 20, 21. Mrs. Millspaugh, Mrs. C. E. Hoover with Mrs. Harvey Moss an alternate; Mrs. J. J. MacFarlane and Mrs. Huff, alternate. The club having more than 106 membership is entitled to two delegates and the president.

Mrs. Flora Caleb and Mrs. Thomas, new members were introduced during luncheon which was in charge of Mrs. C. F. Ganther, her assistants being Mmes. Charle Lumpkin, Wm. Hobbs, Harold Hawkins, Bert J. Morris, John Vanderbur, S. Z. Nichols, and Geo. W. Schenck

Members of the Sierra Madre Woman's club garden section attended in a body swelling the attendance to about 150.

The next meeting, April 5, will be repoprocity day.

Executive Board of Woman's Club Met

Combining business with pleasure, members of the Woman's club executive board met Monday at the clubhouse for a potluck lunch and to "initiate" the two new coffee urns recently purchased. An affirmative vote of appreciation for their efficient utility was unanimous.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh took care of the business at hand and those present included Mmes. James Stoker, Susan Riess, Ethel Rubottom, Bertha Larsh, Elsie Murfett, C. E. Hoover, Fanny Needham, C. C. Hoffman and Miss Eva Reynolds, members of the board. Luncheon chairmen for the rest of the year were special guests: Mmes. Edith Gruben, John Vanderbur, Frank Ingram, C. G. Bunting and Alrena B. Ellison for John C. Kaskel who was unable to attend.

THIRD ANNUAL WOMAN'S CLUB TURF PARTY

Plans are complete and everything in readiness for the third annual dance and card party at the Los Angeles Turf Club tomorrow night, given by the Arcadia Woman's Club.

Mrs. C. E. Hoover, general chairman, expects about 400 as tickets have been selling rapidly. Dancing will commence at 8:30 as well as card playing . . Mrs. Lulu Reynolds is in charge of that.

This will be the third year the Turf Club has so generously donated their room for this popular event.

Peach Blossoms Transform Woman's Club Into Fairyland

Peach blossoms, ranging in shade from pink-striped white to deepest rose, transformed the Arcadia Woman's club into a fairyland setting yesterday afternoon at the annual Peach Blossom Festival.

That the fame of the festival has spread to adjoining towns was exemplified in the large delegation, headed by Mrs. W. J. Lawless, from the Garden Section of the Sierra Madre Woman's club, that visited the club just to see the delicately beautiful blooms!

BEAUTIFUL DECORATIONS

Peach blossoms, in huge baskets, peach blossoms in silver and crystal containers, flanked by white tapers, decorated the stage and the luncheon tables.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, presided over the luncheon, with Mrs. Nellie T. White, Garden Section chairman, and her decorating committee at the speakers' table.

FESTIVAL BACKGROUND

Following the luncheon, Mrs. White, who had charge of the affair, sketched a brief outline of the background and history of the Peach Blossom festival. She told how her interest grew in famous blossom festivals and her work to make Arcadia noted in the same way.

"We have the soil, the climate, and in fact, everything needed to make this city a center of beauty," she said.

Although weather conditions had ruined her cherished plan of presenting each guest at the festival with a tiny, flowering peach, she said that these would be given away later to those interested.

SECTION THANKED

As members sang "Arcadia, the Beautiful," the words of which were written by Mrs. White, the Garden Section rose en masse to receive thanks for their work in preparing the festival.

Mrs. Lola Trew, club member, sang two solos that were enthusiastically received by the audience. She was accompanied by Mrs. Le Roy Anderson at the piano.

BEST OF 150

Prefacing her introduction by the statement that out of a list of 150 speakers she had decided that Clarence S. Hearn, of Arcadia, owner of a commercial camellia garden here, was by far the most outstanding, Mrs. White presented him to the assembly.

He told of the romance and history connected with camellia-growing before launching into a detailed description of how to raise camellias from October to April. He illustrated his main points with motion pictures.

DISCOVERED BY PRIEST

Camellia history dates back to the 17th century, he said, when a Jesuit missionary, Father John Joseph Kamel, traveling in Asia noted the beauty of the strange flowers and brought them to Europe, where they quickly won favor. France was long the center of camellia growing and one of the famous French writers, Alexander Dumas, further popularized the flowers in the 19th century when he wrote the classic, "Lady of the Camellias," which was made into the famous play, "Camille."

COMMITTEE NAMED

Members of the decorating committee included Mesdames F. A. Ekmann, William Bonner, J. S. Craig, Harvey Moss, J. D. Stanley, V. J. Wagoner, E. L. Perry, Pauline Crader and W. E. Larsh.

Mrs. C. F. Ganther was chairman of the luncheon committee, with Mesdames Helen Lumpkin, William Hobbs, Harold Hawkins, Bert Morris, George Schenck, John Vanderbur, Sally Schanbacher and C. O. Holmgreen.

March 17—St. Patrick's party given by Arcadia Woman's club at Santa Anita Turf club.

THRONG WILL ATTEND DANCE AT TURF CLUB

Tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, smartly gowned members of Arcadia Woman's club, and their friends, will assemble at Los Angeles Turf club, at Santa Anita Race Track, for their third annual Turf Club dance.

More than 350 people are expected at the gala affair which is the outstanding social event of the club season. Socially prominent sponsors, including Messrs. and Mesdames Buron Fitts, E. E. Westerhouse, F. C. Nash, Cliff Herd, Rex Harbart and Norman Chandler will be in attendance as will many out-of-town folk.

CARD ROOM

A card room presided over by Mrs. J. Thomas Reynolds offers many attractions for those not wishing to dance. Chinese checkers, auction and contract bridge, and many other games will be featured.

Conveniently located refreshment rooms will be under the committeeship of Mesdames Bert Morris, Henry Reiss and Joe Hall.

Last minute preparations announced by Mrs. C. E. Hoover, include the final approval of a public address system whereby the music of Art Crippen dance band of Pasadena, the orchestra of the evening, may be broadcast over the permanent broadcasting equipment of the club.

GREEN AND WHITE

Decorations will be in green and white to carry out the theme of St. Patrick's day, with members of the orchestra sporting jaunty green hats in the Saint's honor.

Although the ticket supply is nearly depleted, Mrs. Hoover reports that a few may still be obtained. She will receive last minute reservations at ATwater 7-1869 until tomorrow afternoon. She urges all to "come and help make the evening a big success."

GET TICKETS

Have you obtained your ticket for the Arcadia Woman's Turf club dance tomorrow night? If not by all means call Mrs. C. E. Hoover at ATwater 7-1869 and get one as the dance promises to be the biggest and best yet and we hear that many new gowns are carefully laid away in tissue for the big occasion. . . . Guess we'll have to dust off our five year old special and go, too.

YOUTH HOSTEL PLANS TOLD

Mrs. Albert Adcock, chairman, presided over the meeting of Arcadia Coordinating Council held at First Avenue School auditorium, Monday, when Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president of the Arcadia Woman's club, gave an interesting outline of the Youth Hostel movement.

Mrs. Millspaugh was followed by Mrs. Robert MsMacters, president of the Kindergarten Parent-Teachers association, who told of pending State legislation affecting the child.

Franklin McCurdy, teacher of the special school maintained for school age exercise and stable boys at Santa Anita Race track, spoke of the problems confronting the teacher of such a group.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Ada L. Stewart, Los Angeles County Welfare worker; Arthur S. MacNair and C. Lon Bowers, of the County Coordinating Council; Miss Miriam Osness, of the State Relief office, and Mrs. Avery, executive of the Pasadena Coordinating Council.

Members present included Mrs. Millspaugh, Mrs. McMasters, Fire Chief James Nellis, Walter Coombs, Mrs. Elsie Porrie and Mrs. Anne Leigh.

LANDMARKS SECTION TO STUDY RANCHOS

Mrs. Powell is a member of the committee on color to see that all units of the club exhibit harmonize and follow a general scheme.

Joint Exhibit Slated By 13 Clubs

Throughout the San Gabriel and La Canada Valleys, hundreds of amateur gardeners are preparing to compete at the Southern California Spring Flower Show in Brookside Park, Pasadena, March 31 through April 20. The most enthusiastic group includes members of 13 garden clubs engaged in demonstrating how to plant a landscaped hillside garden as a point exhibit.

Most Active Clubs

San Marino, Arcadia, Sierra Madre, South Pasadena and La Canada clubs are among the most active, working under the general chairmanship of Miss Azalia Bean, South Pasadena. Each club has been assigned its portion of the garden for which it will be responsible. Another committee is co-ordinating the individual exhibits so that the entire garden will be a landscaped harmonious whole, full of ideas for the small home owner.

Assigned to the Garden Club of South Pasadena is a planting for steps or path consisting of yellow and white flowers, with accents of blue. The committee consists of Mrs. James T. Wood, chairman; Miss Bean, Horace Colby, Lloyd Cosper, Mrs. Victor Jones, Mrs. Hayward Thomas, and Clayton Palmer. Club officers are J. E. Graham, president; Gladys Boynton, secretary; Amy James, treasurer.

Plant Triangular Bed

The Sierra Madre Garden Club, one of the newer clubs but composed of outstanding amateur gardeners, is planting a triangular bed which borders the path leading to the central tree in the exhibit and extends to the steps behind the tree.

The club will use small, shade-loving plants in pastel colors. In charge of the planting are Mrs. R. W. Solomon, president; C. Jacques Hahn, and Mrs. A. R. Jewell, program chairman. Club secretary is Hubert Passant.

The La Canada Club exhibit consists of a garden walk in the center section of the joint-club exhibit. Work is in charge of Mrs. Marion R. Gray, chairman of the garden section of the La Canada Thursday Club. Club officers, also interested in the flower show exhibit, are Mrs. Randall Hood, president, and Mrs. G. H. Murphy, vice-president.

Many San Marinans

Besides the Tillers, another new club, and the San Marino Garden Club, composed chiefly of San Marino and Flintridge garden enthusiasts, many other San Marinans are actively working with the show, including Mrs. E. B. Washburn, representing the Diggers Garden Club, and Mrs. Albert B. Potter, representing the Junior League Garden Club.

Arcadia is well represented by J. N. Giridlian, who is putting in the exhibit for the Los Angeles Floral Study Club. Mr. Giridlian's large garden on Foothill Boulevard is especially well known for its rare cactus. The Study Club's membership covers the county as far west as Long Beach. Its unit in the hillside Planting in Spring' demonstration will be one of the more shady-shaded portions where cyclamen, begonias, and primulas will be used.

Throughout the entire area, amateur gardeners have entered in the competitive displays of cut flowers and are entering flower arrangements for prizes. Flower arrangements for the first time will fill the entire portion of one entire building at the Fannie E. Morrison Horticultural Center.

ARCADIA

Mrs. C. F. Ganther, 2045 South Sixth Avenue, will open her home Wednesday at 1:30 p. m., for the meeting of the California history and landmarks section of the Arcadia Women's Club. Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff will preside. During roll call each member will answer to her name by giving an historical date. Spanish word drill will be in charge of Mrs. John Renshaw. Mrs. J. M. MacFarlane will read a paper on Rancho La Brea and Mrs. H. E. Riess will give a report on Rancho Cienega O Pasa de la Tijera. Musical selections will be sung by Mrs. R. Lumpkin, msuic chairman. Tea will be served by the hostess at a social hour following the study period.

THREE HUNDRED AT WOMAN'S CLUB DANCE AT SANTA ANITA TURF CLUB

With St. Pat's green in their hats and green butonnieres in their buttonholes, Art Crippen's dance orchestra from Pasadena titilated the dancing feet of 300 Arcadia Women's Clubsters and guests Saturday evening.

Held in the Santa Anita Turf club, it was quite the most enjoyed and most ambitious affair on the Women's club social calendar for spring.

Yellow acacia and greenery formed a fitting "Irish" background for the dancers and overhead floated green balloons.

Cards were played in the dining room under the gracious direction of Mrs. Lulu Reynolds. High score for men was won by Rex Harbart of Monrovia. Mrs. H. A. Glass, also of Monrovia, was high lady. Other prizes were won by Mrs. Ray Felt, Harry Nesbitt of Arcadia, N. J. Hudson of Pasadena, and J. R. Hull of Monrovia.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, Mr. and Mrs. William Gibbs, Mrs. James Stoker, Mrs. C. C. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. William Larsh, Miss Eva Reynolds, Mrs. Fanny Needham, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hoover received in the charmingly decorated foyer.

The door committee consisted of Mrs. James Stoker, C. C. Hoffman, Joe Hall, Mrs. J. D. Stanley, and Mrs. James S. Craig.

Women's club juniors, Barbara Geiger, Margaret Brown, and Virginia Hostutler, were "false mustachio" distributors adding much to the fun with the little gay gifts of whistles, green boutonnieres, and the especially delightful mustaches.

Juniors Virginia Browne and Eleanor Renshaw acted as very ellicient hat check girls.

As an added attraction and as an antidote to tired feet and poor cards, Mrs. Glenn Watson staged a turtle derby. She handled her charges like a veteran, keeping them warm between runs under a chicken hover. Pretty hot races were the result.

Refreshments were in the capable hands of Mrs. Bert Morris, chairman, assisted by Mesdames Herman Reiss, Joe Hall, George W. Schench, F. E. Schanbacher, C. F. Ganther, C. O. Holmgreen, and Edgar Reid.

Special mention is due the excellent results of the hard working decoration committee, Mesdames Helen Lumpkin, William Larsh, R. W. Evans, Loren Roosevelt, and R. H. Lucas.

Committee women in charge of arrangements were Mesdames C. E. Hoover, chairman; Harry Nesbitt, De Forrest Stoll, Ardene Bol

WOMAN'S CLUB TURF DANCE IS BRILLIANT SOCIAL AFFAIR

More than 400 guests assembled in the spacious quarters of the Los Angeles Turf club, Friday night, for the third annual Turf club dance staged by the Arcadia Woman's club.

With scintillating lights, the bright colors of smart gowns, and a background of floral decorations the clubhouse presented a brilliant scene.

Dancing was the chief divertisment of the evening with Art Crippen's dance orchestra supplying the music. Swing steps, waltzes, and novelty dances, including the popular Lambeth Walk were enjoyed.

RECEIVING LINE

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, headed the reception committee that greeted the guests, many of whom were from out of town. She was assisted by Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, president of the Arcadia Junior Woman's club, Mr. Gibbs, Mrs. B. E. Rubottom, Mrs. C. C. Hoffman, Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, Mrs. James Stoker, Mrs. George E. Needham, Mrs. W. E. Larsh and Miss Eva Reynolds.

GIVE FAVORS

Juniors, dressed in colorful formal frocks, gave St. Patrick's favors to the crowd while from the long ice cream bar members of the refreshment committee dispensed soft drinks and ice cream.

CARD ROOM

In the card room adjoining the foyer nearly a hundred players played bridge. Mrs. J. Thomas Reynolds was the gracious hostess of this room, with Mrs. W. C. Bonner and Mrs. J. S. ARCADIA WOMAN'S CLUB PREPARE FOR NOMINATION OF OFFICERS

With the report of the nominating committee of the Arcadia Woman's club set for April 19, members today are turning their thoughts to likely candidates to fill club offices for the coming year.

Nomination petitions must be in the hands of the nominating committee on or before April 5, Mrs. J. S. Craig, chairman, announced today. In order to place the name of a proposed candidate on the ballot five separate petitions must be filed, she said. Five names on one petition will not be considered as five separate petitions, she warned.

According to Mrs. Craig, the club, contrary to past procedure, is not sending out petition forms this year. For that reason members wishing to submit names of candidates may do so by writing a letter to Mrs. Craig, enclosing supporting petitions, at 456 Walnut avenue.

The annual election of officers will take place on May 3, two weeks after the report of the nominating committee is made to the club, Mrs. Craig reminded.

Assisting Mrs. Craig on the nominating committee are Mrs. C. F. Noack, Mrs. Hugh Sanborn, Mrs. J. Thomas Reynolds, and Mrs. V. G. Wagoner.

History Section Studies Ranchos

An historic old wagon wheel at the entrance of the home of Mrs. C. F. Ganthers, 2045 South Sixth avenue, fittingly indicated the right place to members of California History and Landmarks section of Arcadia Woman's club when they gathered for their regular meeting Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, secretary, conducted an unusual roll call that was answered by naming an important historical date. Dates used as answers included the 26th wedding anniversary of the E. E. Timerhoffs, the arrival here of the J. M. MacFarlanes 15 years ago; Eugene Perry's trip to Death Valley; restoration of La Purissima Mission, and many others.

Spanish word drill followed with Mrs. Julia Renshaw in charge. Mesdames Zephrina MacFarlane and Florence Muller read papers on Rancho Cienaga and Rancho La Brea.

Mrs. Lumpkin sang three historic songs, "La Cuchacha," "La Golondrina" and "Nellie Bly," the latter as sung by Lotta Crabtree.

During the afternoon decision was made to attend the California History dinner of the District Federation on April 19 at Glendale at the time of the convention.

Mrs. Eugene Perry and Mrs. John Vanderbur acted as assistant hostesses during the tea and social hour.

Members present, besides those mentioned above, were Mesdames George Barngrover, B. E. Rubottom, Mark Millspaugh, C. V. Crellin, James A. Stoker, H. E. Riess, and Miss Eva Reynolds.

History, Land Marks Section Meet

March meeting of the California History and Landmarks section of the Woman's club was held at Mrs. C. F. Ganther's, 2045 South Sixth avenue, with Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff presiding.

The roll, called by Mrs. Helen Lumjkin, secretary, was answered with each member giving a historical date.

Mrs. John Renshaw conducted the Spanish word drill and Mrs. J. M. MacFarlane read an interesting paper on Rancho la Brea, with Mrs. H. E. Riess giving historical highlights on Rancho Cienega de la Tierra.

Mrs . Lumpkin entertained, singing several California "folk" songs. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ganther and her cohostesses, Mrs. John Vanderbur and Mrs. Eugene Perry.

TO REPRESENT WOMAN'S CLUB

When the gavel is sounded to open the district meeting of California Federation of Women's club in Glendale on April 19, Arcadia Woman's club will be represented by Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, president, and Mrs. C. Clubwomen Study California Indians At Southwest Museum

Charles F. Lummis founded the Southwest Museum on November 20, 1903, with $22,000 raised by Henry W. O'Melveny. This historical fact was learned by members of California History and Landmarks Section of the Arcadia Woman's Club when they made their regular pilgrimage to the museum and its adjacent replica of an early California ranchhouse, Casa de Adobe.

Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, section chairman, led the group. A picnic luncheon was served at Sycamore Grove before visiting the museum.

Members reported on the interesting displays of prehistoric baskets, pottery, costumes, armaments and decorative articles, depicting the life o fthe early California Indian. They told of visiting a classroom of youngsters listening eagerly to an authority lecture on bows and arrows as used by the Indians in hunting and war.

INSPECT "CASA"

They found the "Casa" equally as interesting with its authentic furnishings and color. It is built around a patio of flower beds centered about a tinkling fountain. Each room bears over its door a name plate in Spanish.

In one room they inspected the exhibit of pictures by Helen Jordan. One study showed an ox cart enroute to the sea for salt in 1829, another an "evening party," which was depicted in inch high figures correctly garbed according to the period.

WOMAN'S CLUB MET WEDN'SDAY

Annual reciprocity day Arcadia Woman's club—so popular, and a medium for bringing together city organizations — held Wednesday, was another outstanding affair. Representatives from nearly 20 clubs were guests, swelling the attendance to about 150.

Luncheon tables were especially attractive with their vivid bouquets of nasturtiums, and floral streamers of blending calendula and potted pansy plants in colorful containers at each guest's place. Mrs. Emmy Kaskel and her capable committee prepared and served the viands.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, dispensing with business, "took time out" to mention that the 50th new member's name had been added to this year's roster, materally increasing the membership. After a cordial welcome to members and friends, the president introduced the out-of-town guests from the various clubs and their hostesses.

From the Pico Woman's club, Mrs. James H. Block; Pomona Ebell club, Mrs. Cecil H. Short; LaPuente Valley Woman's club, Mrs. A. Roland; Rosemead Woman's club, Mrs. T. J. Lovell; San Gabriel Woman's Club, Mrs. Charles W. Whittington; Sierra Madre Woman's club, Mrs. Al S. Meyers; Woman's club of Temple City, Mrs. Wm. Durkin; Wilmar Woman's club, Mrs. J. Boracher; Altadena Woman's club, Mrs. Burt Beverly; Woman's club of Bellflower, Mrs. Gartner; El Monte Woman's club, Mrs. A. Rhodes; Wednesday Progressive club of Gardena, Mrs. A. F. Simpson; Glendora Woman's club, Mrs. H. E. Jack; Monrovia Woman's Civic club, Mrs. Harry Brown; Michillinda Community Woman's club, Mrs. Chalmers Loose, and Pasadena Woman's club, Mrs. J. H. Henion. Each acknowledged introductions with a word or two, and the president of Altadena Woman's club extended an invitation to attend their sunrise services Easter morn, club members having recently acquired a beautiful site for the occasion.

As a fitting prelude for the musical festival, Mrs. S. Webster from the Los Angeles district Federation music department, introduced by Mrs. Charles Lumpkin, lucidly outlined the history of music, notating with apt illustrations.

In her ever poiseful and graceful manner, Mrs. Lumpkin, music chairman, presented a delightful hour of song, interspersed with piono solos by her accompanist Mrs. Alice Ripley of Glendale, stressing the spring theme with words and beautiful tones.

Following are the numbers:

GARDEN SECTION TO MEET WITH MRS. BOLLER

The Garden Section of the Woman's Club will meet with Mrs. Ardene Boller, 56 Floral avenue, on Tueday, April 11, at 1:45 p. m. Roll call will be answered by practical suggestions for pest control There will be an exchange of plants, seeds and bulbs.

YOUTH HOSTEL OPENS SUNDAY

On Easter morning, Southern California's first Youth Hostel will open its doors to young bicycle riders, hikers and horseback riders.

Members of the Arcadia Woman's Club youth committee, headed by Mrs. A. R Chambers, and Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, club president, recently conducted a "work day" on the Rancho Santa Anita grounds where the hostel building is located.

Pasadena Junior College students from this area also helped in the cleanup and renovation work.

The building is a large concrete, two-story barracks which originally was constructed for ranch workmen, and includes a serviceable refrigerator, kitchen and wood stove. Cots will be installed and a house mother will live on the premises as chaperon.

Modeled after the New England and European movement, the Youth Hostel program is designed to encourage outdoor life and healthful recreation—and is separate and distinct from the government operated charitable youth projects.

Small fees will be charged for guests, and despite the name, the Youth Hostel, will not be restricted as to age of guests.

Missionary Society Tea On April 28

Plans were made at the Missionary Society's meeting last Thurday for spring tea April 28, at the adobe house in the Baldwin rancho. The California History and Landmarks section will present a California pageant recently given at the Woman's club. The affair is open to the public.

Mrs. Harold Wallace Johns, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Maude Gantz of Pasadena who spoke on "What hast thou in thine house?" and Miss Anna Crick, also of Pasadena who gave interesting hightlights on the Pima and Papago Indians of Arizona. Mrs. Marion Edwards, violinist, accompanied on the piano by Miss Jane Dougherty, played several numbers.

During the spiritual life hour, Mrs. Paul Combs told of the parable of the laborers in the vineyard.

Mrs. Herbert Keister and Mrs. H. C. Marston, luncheon hostesses serving beverages (members bring their own lunch boxes) added an Easter touch, having colored eggs for each of the 39 members and guests Tables also carried out the seasonal theme.

Miss Grace McCurdy presided over the business hour and heard various reports along with other routine matters.

Several members of the Historical section of the Woman's Club will attend a convention to be held in the clubhouse in Gendale, on Wednesday, April 19th, and also enjoy the 6:30 dinner to be given.

HISTORIC PAGEANT

Don't miss the pageant to be staged by members of California History and Landmarks section of Arcadia Woman's Club at the old ranch house of E. J. "Lucky" Baldwin on April 28. . . . Traces 28 Years of Work as "Friend of Boys"

Boys took a prominent place on the program at the Arcadia Woman's Club meeting, yesterday afternoon, when Judge E. J. Milne, superintendent of Whittier School for Boys, spoke of his experiences of more than a quarter of a century with the unusual boy and a boys' singing class from Monrovia-Arcadia-Duarte High school sang a group of numbers.

Judge Milne told members that after 28 years as a juvenile worker, both as judge and institution director, that he was still unable to say what the definite causes of juvenile delinquency really were, but he believed them to be due mostly to "too much leisure and too little supervision."

Parents are often the cause of boys going astray, he said, and the broken home is directly responsible in a large number of cases.

"When a boy comes to Whittier school we are not interested in what that boy has been doing, but we are vitally interested in why he has been doing it."

The why often changes the appearance of a juvenile crime, he said. Explaining his point he told of the similarity of impulse between a theft of two little boys, one 9 and the other 11, who stole to buy an artificial leg for their crippled playmate and the same gift by a lodge to an under-privileged lad at Whittier school. The only difference between the two gifts was that the lodge made theirs along lines approved by society and the two boys, in their youthful enthusiasm to help, broke the law.

At Whittier 20 different trades are taught including, printing, plumbing, gardening, cooking and shoemaking. The boys attend school a half day and study vocational training the other half.

"We don't worry about the boy while he is at Whittier school, it is when he is released and returns to his old environment that we begin to worry," Judge Milne declared. "For it is then that he is apt to stray again. We have only four probation officers to care for 600 boys and an empire stretching from Oregon to Mexico."

He stressed the fact that civic and school organizations could help by providing supervised study and play for juveniles during summer vacations and after school hours.

Following Judge Milne's speech the boys' chorus, dressed in smart uniforms of green shirts and white trousers, sang. They were directed by Miss Frances Potts, music teacher at the high school.

Mrs. Robert McMasters, president of Kindergarten Parent-Teachers' Association, told of the work of the child guidance clinic.

The nominating committee, headed by Mrs. J. S. Craig, reported at the business meeting following the program that the present incumbents of the executive board, with the exception of Mrs. C. E. Hoover, program chairman, and trustee, Mrs. George M. Needham, will be re-nominated for the coming term. Mrs. W. C. Bonner will replace Mrs. Hoover, and Mrs. Charles J. Berry and Mrs. Craig are candidates for the office of trustee.

Mrs. Albert Adcock, president of the Co-ordinating Council, Mrs. Mary Wheeler, and Walter G. Coombs, president of First Avenue school, Mrs. Frank Falconer, and her aunt, Mrs. Mary E. Borst, were guests of honor.

On the luncheon committee were Mesdames Edith Gruben, J. Renshaw, V. Young, B. Nichols, E. Walker, L. Schermerhorn, P. Schermerhorn, M. Crellin, E. Meade and B. Sanborn; Mrs. Gertrude Schenck and Mrs. Robert McMasters were assisted with the decorating by Mrs. Victor J. Wagoner.

Early History Told At District Conference

Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff and Mrs. Helen Lumpkin were among the 50 chairmen of history from Los Angeles County clubs who heard the history of San Luis Obispo County given at the District Conference of California History at Federation headquarters.

Mrs. S. Hathaway, of Monrovia, district chairman, presided. The mission, founded in 1797, was described and the discovery of tile for roofing was told. The first Protestant church, erected at Cambria Pines in 1867, still stands.

The old Spanish families, including the Estradas, Alavarados, Picos, and others of the upper Salinas Valley were discussed by Mrs. S. Cummings.

Other historical events recalled were the efforts of Portola to colonize; Governor Pico's sale of the mission; the founding of the lighthouse at San Simeon, where the original lamp is still used: the completion of the railroad in 1891; and early bear hunts.

The group will make a pilgrimage to the home of John Steven Mcgroarty on May 26, taking with them a potluck luncheon. Those interested in history are welcome and may communicate with Mrs. Timerhoff at Atwater 7-2593 for arrangements.

Second Bridge Event At Woman's Club On April 27

On Thursday, April 27, the second in the series of benefit bridge affairs will take place at the Arcadia Woman's Club. A bridge luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock noon, with a fashion revue of chic afternoon and sports frocks to take place immediately after.

Mrs. W. S. Bonner and Mrs. J. T. Reynolds, co-chairmen, announce that a delightful menu of chicken pie, hot vegetables, creamed cabbage salad, hot rolls, jam, ice box cake and coffee, will be served.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Bonner at ATwater 7-1123 or Mrs. Reynolds at ATwater 7-2203. Admission will be 50 cents.

DANCE PLANS WILL BE DISCUSSED TONIGHT

When members of Arcadia Junior Woman's Club meet tonight at the Arcadia Woman's clubhouse they will discuss plans for their annual dance to be given on Saturday night, May 20, at the clubhouse, with Jack Dorsey's orchestra furnishing the music.

The dance, which will have a South Sea island theme, will be open to the public, Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, junior president, announced. Mrs. Arthur Bachman is chairman in charge of arrangements.

Whittier Judge Delivers Address To Arcadia Women

Before a large and appreciative audience during luncheon hour Wednesday at the Woman's club, Judge Milne, who has been associated with the Whittier School for Boys the past twenty-five years, gave an interesting talk about that institution. The Boys' chorus from high school sang several numbers following the speaker.

The nominating chairman, Mrs. James S. Craig, disclosed that all present officers had received sufficient ballots for re-election.

Mrs. Robert McMaster outlined briefly the proposed work of a child guidance clinic soon to be established here. Mrs. Charles Dillingham was appointed club welfare representative with Mrs. E. J. Frentress as chairman of the welfare work through the Thrift Shop. Mrs. Mark Millspaugh conducted the afternoon's business.

Luncheon tables were especially attractive with large bouquets of sweet peas, stock and other spring blossoms. Mrs. Edith M. Gruben and her committee: Mmes. John Renshaw, Elizabeth Walker, Hugh Sanborn, G. G. Meade, W. A. Young, S. V. Schermerhorn, C. F. Schermerhorn, S. Z. Nichols and Chas. V. Crellin were responsible for the fine viands and servcie.

Election of officers will take place at the next meeting, May third.

Fashion Show And Luncheon At Club

The second of a series of fashion parties, sponsored by the Woman's cub with Mrs. Belle Bonner and Mrs. Lulu Reynolds co-chairmen, will be held in the clubhouse Thursday, April 27, with luncheon promptly at 12 o'clock.

Afternoon attire will be displayed, this time F. C. Nash Co, of Pasadena staging the show with professional models, in a price range to suit all.

From the menu arranged—real chicken pie, hot vegetable, cream cabbage salad, hot rolls, jam, coffee and marshmallow ice box cake, topped with whipped cream—those attending have a pleasant afternoon ahead of them.

Contract, auction and Chinese checkers may be played, either in solo or group, with each table having a prize, donated by F. C. Nash Company. There will be several door prizes also.

Reservations, which will be appreciated, may be phoned to Mrs. Bonner, AT 7-1123, of Mrs. Reynolds, AT 7-2203. Tickets may also be secured at the door and the affair is open to the public.

WOMAN'S CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh was unanimously elected for the Woman's club presidency at yesterday's annual election of officers. Mrs. Belle Bonner, a comparatively newcomer to Arcadia who has closely identified herself with the organization, will assume Mrs. A, R, Hoover's post as 1939-40 program chairman, and Mrs. James S, Craig replaces Mrs, Fanny Needham as trustee. The other officers remain for a second term.

"Activities of the modern women" was the theme of Mrs. W, A, Galentine's talk, tracing their public life movements for the past 100 years. The speaker, from Venice, is Mrs. Ardene Boller's mother.

During luncheon Mrs. Paul Blaisdell enlightened the women on pending legislative bills at Sacramento where she recently spent several weeks, and urged the people to "back up" these men they elect by writing their approval or disapproval. She was introduced by Mrs. Carl Randolph who spoke briefly on current events.

Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, accompanied by Harold Wallace Jonns, sang a number of selections.

Approximately 100 enjoyed the luncheon in charge of Mrs. Elsie Murfett and Mrs. E, J, Frentress, their assistants being Mmes. Libby, Verdig, C, O, Holmgreen, McCaleb, J, W, Schweisthal, Thomas, and R, L, Brown. Decorations by Mrs, G, W, Schenck and Mrs, R, N, McMaster, carried out the May day theme with lavender and pink flowers in baskets centering the tables, streamers of the same colors radiating from them.

Instaliation of officers will take place June 17, final meeting of the year.

JUNIORS, BREAKFAST HONOR MOTHERS

Sunday, May 14, Mother's Day, members of the Arcadia Juniors will honor their mothers, entertaining them at Pierre's with a breakfast party. The president Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, will preside, extending a welcome to the honorees

At the recent business meeting in the Woman's clubhouse, the group spent the evening hours making favors for their May 20th "South Sea Island" dance.

Fashion Show And Tea Wednesday

The third of a series of fashion show parties being given by the Woman's club will be held next Wednesday, opening at one o'clock, followed by cards and other game playing, concluding with tea served by the Juniors. The affair, open to the public, is 35 cents and in charge of Mrs. Belle Bonner and Mrs. Lulu Reynolds. Table and door prizes will be given.

Approximately 125 attended last week's luncheon and fashion review with nearly $40 added to the club's treasury. Moneys made from these affairs are to reduce the organization's mortgage and it is expected that "piece of paper" will be destroyed by the end of the fiscal year.

Mrs. F. H. White, chairman of the Woman's club Garden Section, wishes members and friends to note there will be no meeting next Tuesday as scheduled. The group will meet May 23 at 1:45 at Mrs. H. C. Marshall's, 1608 South Santa Anita avenue.

Arcadia Girl Elected Registrar Jr. Women's Clubs

A a meeting of the Los Angeles District Federation of Junior Women's Clubs held last week, Mrs. Eleanor Gibbs of Arcadia was elected registrar, without opposition.

Other officers elected are:

Mrs. Ferris Smith of Glendale is the new vice president; Mrs. Frank Stevens of Tujunga is treasurer; Miss Judy Jeffs of Santa Monica secretary.

The juniors will have their last big affair on May 20, a luncheon at which they will install their new officers. At that time Sara Elizabeth Kline, retiring president, will relinquish the gavel to her successor, Mrs. Fred Hufford. Curiously enough, both the senior president-elect, Mrs. Oscar E. HISTORY BROUGHT TO LIFE WITH COLORFUL PAGEANTRY

History was brought to life at the old Baldwin homeplace on Rancho Santa Anita, Friday afternoon, when members of California History and Landmarks section of Arcadia Woman's Club presented a pageant for the Women's Missionary Society and Guild of the Arcadia Community Church.

Staged in the patio of the old adobe the pageant took as its theme, "Progressive California". Written and directed by Mrs. Emily Mann Timerhoff, chairman of the section, the presentation opened with the reading of a California greeting by Mrs. Paul Combs.

The appearance of Mrs. J. S. Craig as Lucy Baldwin, who, thinking backward through the years, summoned former owners to the scene. Mrs. Florence Muller appeared as Victoria, wife of Hugo Reid, first owner of the 13,319 acres that comprised the original rancho land grant.

Miss Grace McCurdy, president of the society, took the part of Mrs. Henry Dalton with Mrs. Clyde Dysart, president of the Guild, as Mrs. William Wolfskill; Mrs. B. Rubottom was Mariana Guadalupe Vallejo; Mrs. John Renshaw, Chief Solano; Mrs. H. E. Riess, Princess Helena; Mrs. George Barngrover, Donna Arcadia Stearns; Mrs. C. E. Hoover was Lola Montez, and Mrs. Eugene L. Perry made a dashing Lt. John Fremont.

Others in the cast were Mrs. Ellen Donkin as Mrs. Juan Jose Warner, Mrs. Charles V. Crellin as Mrs. James Wilson Marshall, Mrs. Clarence Crane as Mrs. John Sutter, and Miss Eva Reynolds, as Rudecinda Florencita Sepulveda.

The script as read by Mrs. J. S. MacFarlane, cleverly tied-in and introduced points of California history with the characters associated with the rancho's early days.

Musical solos by Mrs. Francis Smith, singer, Robert Miller, accordian player, and Rosemary Doughterty, provided an attractive feature.

"Long, Long Ago", sung in ensemble was the finale of the pageant.

Chocolate and cakes were served at the conclusion of the program. Mrs. Horace Self and Mrs. Austin Shively served on the refreshment committee.

Mrs. Timerhoff, writer and director, wishes to extend her thanks to all those who took part and assisted in the production.

At the California History and Landmarks section pageant staged for the Women's Missionary Society . . . you had to pinch yourself to realize you were in modern America . . . for the quaint, charming costumes that many of the characters wore combined with the romantic atmosphere of the Reid adobe carried you back to the past.

We noticed in the crowd Mrs. Ella Donkin looking like the "lavendar lady" in an old-fashioned gown of printed lavendar silk, with insets of black lace . . . a dear, little black bonnet perched on her head . . . and a reticule hanging from her wrist. . . . Mrs. Marcia Crellin was elegant in black and white with a sweeping train, high neck, and matching bonnet. . . . Mrs. Betty Craig wore a red and white striped taffeta strewn with printed flowers. . . . Mrs. Zephrina MacFarlane was a Godey's print in a lace-trimmed pink satin.

Mrs. George Barngrover wore a brown taffeta frock that belonged to Mrs. Emily Mann Timerhoff's mother . . . and which she wore as a wedding gown. . . . The silk, we noticed, was still rich and durable. . . . Miss Grace McCurdy peeked out from a black bonnet that belonged to Mrs. Crellin . . . and wore a matching black silk coat, heirloom of the family of Mrs. Paul Combs.

Club Leader Re-elected

ARCADIA, May 4.—Mrs. Mark Millspaugh yesterday was returned to her office as president of the Arcadia Women's Club at the organization's annual election of officers.

The entire board was re-elected with the exception of the offices of program chairman and trustee. Elected to these positions respectively were Mrs. Belle Bonner and Mrs. Betty Craig.

Other Officers

The other officers are Mrs. Irene Stoker, first vice-president; Mrs. Susan Riess, second vice-president; Mrs. Ethel Frentress, recording secretary; Mrs. Ethel Rubottom, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Elsie Murfett, treasurer; Miss Eva Reynolds, parliamentarian; and Mrs. Fanny Needham, trustee.

HISTORIC DRAMA ENACTED AT RANCHO FOR MISSIONARY GROUP

Ghosts of early California beauty and gallantry came again to their pleasure ground and wisps of gay laughter echoed once more through the welcoming though crumbling portals of "Lucky" Baldwin's former Rancho home last Friday afternoon.

Nearly a hundred members of the Missionary Society of the Arcadia Community church and friends met to enjoy the hospitality of the rancho and a story of early California and the Rancho. The narrative was written and dramatized by Mrs. E. Timeroff and enacted by members of the History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Women's club and others. Those taking part were Miss Grace McCurdy, president of the Missionary society, Mesdames Juliet Renshaw, Mary Dysart, Paul Combs, Francis Smith, B. E. Rubottom, E. M. Timeroff, H. E. Riess, Ellen Donkin, J. S. Craig, Charles Crelin, E. L. Perry, G. H. Barngrover, C. E. Hoover, E. J. Frentress, Clarence Crane, and Miss Eva Reynolds.

All of their costumes were of the period and one jet-embroidered cape weighed ten pounds.

Incidental solos were sung by Mrs. Lola True and Mrs. Francis Smith.

As was the custom on the Rancho in the days of its prime, chocolate was served instead of tea at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Austin Shively and Mrs. Horace Self were hostesses.

More Than Hundred Clubwomen Attend Bridge Luncheon

The bridge luncheon given by the card committee of the Arcadia Woman's club last Thursday repeated the success of the breakfast two weeks before. One hundred and ten ladies sat down to a delicious chicken pie luncheon for which Mrs. Lulu Reynolds and her efficient committee were responsible.

A style show put on by the F. C. Nash company of Pasadena, in charge of their stylist, Miss Kay Veal, showed lovely daytime and sport clothes. Mrs. Helen Lumpkin at the piano provided delightful music during the show. The afternoon was spent at bridge, with beautiful lace trimmed linen handkerchiefs as prizes. Mrs. J. P. Mrs. Olive Hoffman, trustee, has been a member of the Arcadia Woman's Club for the past 11 years, being an active worker all that time. . . . Incidentally there are two charter members still taking an active interest in the club. . . . They are the present vice-president, Mrs. Irene Stoker, and Mrs. Ida Parker.

There's to be a big "mortgage-burning" celebration at the club on June 7 . . . the last meeting of the year.

The Rancho Santa Anita is a treasure trove for nature lovers . . . birds abound . . . and we have seen . . . such (to us) exciting things . . . in bird life . . . we discovered a plover's nest with the little mother bird sitting on her eggs in plain sight . . . and only her inexplicable agitation caused us to pause riding and search until our city-bred eyes . . . discerned the eggs blending perfectly with the pebbles. . . . The tiny, feathered thing was ready to fight to defend her nest . . . we rode away . . . in order not to frighten her and as we came home found her still perched on her nest . . . as calm as ice.

One of those unfortunate mistakes that creep into newspapers try as one will to keep them out . . . caused the name of Mrs. Ethel Prentress to be left out of the cast of characters of the pageant given by the California History and Landmarks section at the rancho last week. . . . When the reporter is not on the spot at the time . . . it is difficult to keep inaccuracies from creeping in. . . . Mrs. Lola Trew we understand also sang with the entire cast at the finale.

Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, section chairman and director, reproved us gently, by post card. . . . Well, we think she is such a swell person that we would even take a calling down from her in person!

GIFTED PIANIST HEADS CLUB PROGRAM AS YEAR IS CLOSED

Frederick Arnold Good, Pasadena pianist, presented a group of three piano numbers on the afternoon program at the Arcadia Woman's Club yesterday, which marked the close of the luncheon meetings for the year. Although one more meeting still remains it will take the form of a tea on June 7.

Mr. Good played an impressionistic number, "Humming Bird" by Niemann, the traditional "Twelfth Hungarian Rhapsody" by Liszt and an encore, the gentle "Cradle Song" by Chopin.

The contrasting style of the three compositions called for a wide range of technical demands and a mastery of tonal and dynamic resources which he adequately met, proving himself a gifted artist.

Following Mr. Good was a demonstration of the technique of coordination by Mrs. Ruana Lawson, of Sierra Madre, who is a former instructor at M. G. M. dramatic school and head of Elizabeth Arden's exercise salon.

Mrs. John S. Craig, presided as program chairman in the absence of Mrs. C. E. Hoover, retiring officer, and introduced Mrs. John R. Hall, literature section chairman of Monrovia Woman's club, who gave a detailed, factual report at the luncheon of the restoration of Williamsburg, Va., by John D. Rockefeller, jr.

Heading the luncheon committee was Mrs. F. C. Ingram, with Mesdames C. M. Roberts, De Forest Stoll, Le Roy Shaumleffel, Thomas, W. B. Anderson, and Glenn B. Watson, assisting.

The decorations of sweetpeas, stocks and pansies were arranged by Mrs. Robert McMasters and George W. Schenck.

Announcement was made by Mrs. Belle Bonner of the climaxing event in the series of fashion shows and bridge parties given at the Woman's club, Thursday, May 25, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Bonner, co-chairman with Mrs. Lulu Reynolds, reported that a showing of smart evening wear would precede the play. Prizes are to be given at each table and refreshments will conclude the evening.

Reservations are asked to be made early as there are only a few remaining places. Mrs. Bonner at ATwater 7-1123 or Mrs. Reynolds at ATwater 7-2203 will take reservations.

Serving on the hospitality committee were Mesdames Florence Boller, Juanita Bunting, Baldwin Ferrante, Leanore Glasser, Roberta Scheffel and Winnie Tester.

District History Section to Meet Here on May 26

California History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's club will be hostesses at a pot-luck luncheon to be held at the picnic center of Santa Anita county park when members of the District California History and Landmarks section meet there on Friday, May 26.

The meeting will open at 11 o'clock with Mrs. S. J. Hathaway, Monrovia, District chairman, presiding. Events of historical significance occuring between 1830 and 1840 will be compressed to sentence-length reports.

Mrs. John Renshaw, vice chairman, will assist Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, chairman.

MOTHERS ARE HONORED AT BREAKFAST PARTY

Arcadia Junior Woman's Club entertained their mothers at a Mother's Day breakfast Sunday at Pierre's in San Marino. Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, president, presided, and Miss Jane Robinson read several tributes to mother.

Members and their mothers present were Mrs. Gibbs and her mother, Mrs. Harriet Lucas; Mrs. Irene Bachman and Mrs. E. McGraw; Mrs. Dorothy Dobbings and Mrs. Laura Walters; Miss Eleanora Ott and Mrs. J. R. Ott; Miss Margaret Brown and Mrs. Brown; Miss Barbara Geiger and Mrs. Henry Riess; Miss Robinson and Mrs. Mary Robinson; Miss Virginia Hostutler and Mrs. John Hostutler; Miss Marjorie Dickson and Mrs. Dickson.

JUNIORS "SOUTH SEAS" DANCE EXPECTED TO BE "SELL OUT"

Waving palms, flower leis, tanks of exotic fish, and other "South Seas" trapppings will transform the Arcadia Woman's Club into a tropical setting on Saturday night when members of the Arcadia Juniors stage their annual spring dance.

Beginning at 8:30 p. m. the dance will be semi-formal. Jack Dorsey's orchestra will play for the dancers, with Miss Helen Quirk of Monrovia presenting a group of authentic hula dances during the intermission. Miss Quirk has studied the lovely old Hawaiian dances for several years. Her costumes and music are taken from those used in early island days, before the coming of the white missionaries.

Mrs. Irene Bachman heads the dance committee. She is assisted by Miss Marjorie Dickson, Miss Barbara Geiger, Miss Betty Welch, and Miss Eleanora Ott.

More than 150 tickets have been sold which assured the Juniors of a "sell out" far in advance of the date. There are still a few tickets available to the general public, the committee declares, and for those who wish to "dance in romance" in the South Seas no better occasion could be found, they say.

Tickets are $1.00 per couple or 50c each and may be obtained either at the door or from a Junior club member.

Mortgage Burning of Woman's Clubhouse

Diverting and interesting was the meeting yesterday at the Woman's Club presided over by Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, combining business and entertainment.

Nearly three score ad ten enjoyed the tasty luncheon prepared and served by Mrs. Glenn B. Watson and Mrs. Edith Roberts, who were co-hostesses, their assistants being Mmes. DeForest Stoll, William Anderson, Frank Ingram, LeRoy Shaumleffel and J. Thomas. During the noon hour Mrs. John R Hall, former literature chairman Monrovia Woman's club spoke, her subject, "Stepping back 200 years in building of Williamsburg, Va., universty." Historical highlights were well delineated. Acting for Mrs. C, E, Hoover, program chairman, Mrs. J. S. Craig introduced the speaker and others on the program.

Frederick Goode, concert pianist of Pasadena, played several selections and Mrs. Ruana Lawson of Sierra Madre demonstrated rythmic relaxation of the body.

During business the president announced that the mortgage would be "bured at the stake," June 17, the next and final meeting of the year. This brought forth much applause. Extensive plans will be made for that long anticipated day.

The last of the series of fashion review parties will be next Thursday when husbands and escorts are to be included in the evening event, according to the chairmen, Mrs. Belle Bonner and Mrs. Lulu Reynolds. The concluding soiree promises to be an S. R. O. affair as many reservations have alredy been made and admission may have to be limited to ticket holders only. There were about 75 present at the third party, an afternoon tea last Wednesday.

Mothers Guests of Junior Club Women

The Junior Woman's club of Arcadia held a delightful 9 o'clock breakfast on Mother's Day at Pierre's in San Marino, honoring their mothers. Mrs. Eleanor Gibbs, president, welcomed the guests and Miss June Robinson read a beautiful tribute to "Mothers."

Those present were Mrs. Gibbs and her mother, Mrs. Lucas, Jane Robinson and Mrs. F. A. Robinson, Virginia Hostutler and Mrs. Laura Hostutler, Mrs. Irene Bachman and Mrs. McGraw, Mrs. Barbara Geiger and Mrs. Reiss, Margaret Brown and Mrs. Brown, Eleanor Ott and Mrs. Ott, Mrs. Nate Dobbins with Mrs. Walters and Marjorie Dixon

The delightful party given last Thursday for the Arcadia Woman's club was directed by Mrs. Lulu Reynolds and Mrs. Belle Bonner.

The usual style show, put on by F. C. Nash and company, showed aftrenoon gowns and was in charge of Miss Kay Veal, stylist. This was accompanied by quiet music, with Mrs. Reynolds at the piano. The afternoon was spent at cards, tea being served at 4:30 by members of the Junior Woman's club. Mrs. Florence Boller and Mrs. Rose Yarrow won door prizes.

EVENING STYLE SHOW PLANNED NEXT WEEK

The next and last party in the series which the Arcadia Woman's club has been giving will be held next Thursday evening, May 25, at 8 o'clock. This is for the husbands as well as the ladies. There will be the usual style show, featuring evening gowns, followed by cards, with a number of prizes, as well as three door prizes. Everyone in the community is most cordially invited.

"Fire" At Woman's Club Next Meeting

Eight years ago this summer construction started on the Woman's clubhouse; eight years ago executive board members signed on the "dotted" line at the bank and next Wednesday dotted line, paper and all mortgage evidence will have a match attached thereto. There is now no indebtedness and to celebrate the long looked-for day Mrs. Millspaugh, president, will preside over a fitting ceremonial to which all club members — new and old — are cordially invited.

One minute reports are scheduled to be given by committee and board women. Installation of 1939-40 officers will be one of the afternoon's highlights on this year's final meeting.

Mrs. Charles Stewart and the hospitality committee will serve tea during the social hour. Club opens at two o'clock.

CLUB TO "BURN" MORTGAGE AT LAST MEETING OF YEAR

A jubilant celebration will mark the "burning" of the eight year old mortgage of the Arcadia Woman's Club at the last meeting of the year set for Wednesday, June 7, at 2 o'clock.

This celebration marks the clearing of the $3600 mortgage, making the Arcadia club one of the few clubs in Southern California free of encumbrance.

History of the past will be recounted when former presidents and the three remaining charter members of the club tell of money-making efforts during their regime.

Past presidents invited are Mesdames Alice Billings, Grace Newhall, Maye Dunham, Nellie C. Pickard, Nellie White, Bertha Lewis, Mattie B. Peck, Emma D. Meade, Marion Pike, Jessie O. Stewart, Ella Byrne, Emma D. Meade and Jessie O. Stewart.

The charter members to be honored are Mesdames James A. Stoker, A. L. Parker and C. B. Sumwalt.

One-minute reports of committeemen will be given prior to the installation ceremonies that will induct newly-elected officers into office.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh will take office for her second term as president; Mrs. Stoker, first vice-president; Mrs. H. E. Riess, second vice-president; Mrs. Ethel Frentress, recording secretary; Mrs. B. E. Rubottom, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. E. Larsh, Federation secretary; Mrs. John Murfett, treasurer; Mrs. W. C. Bonner, program chairman; Miss Eva Reynolds, parliamentarian; Mrs. Fanny Needham and Mrs. J. S. Craig, trustees.

Of this group only Mrs. Craig and Mrs. Bonner are new, the others entering their second term.

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, hospitality chairman, will preside at the tea that follows the meeting. Mrs. Helen Lumpkin will pr musical program schedu afternoon.

Recall History Of Old Rancho At Luncheon

The picnic patio of Santa Anita County Recreational park was transformed into a Mexican hacienda with colorful Mexican rugs, baskets, pottery and other paraphernalia, decorating the luncheon tables for the pot-luck luncheon of the California History and Landmarks section of the District Federation of Women's clubs, held there Friday afternoon.

Mrs. S. J. Hathaway, district chairman, and Mrs. John Renshaw, vice chairman of the local group, jointly presided.

A beautiful tribute was paid to Mrs. Emily Mann Timerhoff, leader of the Arcadia section who was absent because of illness, and a blank guest book was signed by all present as a memento of the occasion for her.

Mrs. Hathaway reported on a history conference at San Francisco and Mrs. J. S. MacFarlane gave an informative history of the beautiful oak tree about which the patio is built.

Among the distinguished guests was Mrs. O. S. Elvrum, president-elect of the Federation, who spoke briefly to the assembled historians.

Mrs. John Renshaw read a paper on the history of Rancho Santa Anita, that won much approval from her audience.

Miss Elena Wolfskill, descendent of William Wolfskill, one of the original owners of the rancho, was an honored guest, as were other members of Early California families.

An attractive feature of the afternoon was the sentence-length reports of members on historical events occuring between 1830 and 1840.

Following the meeting members made a tour of Rancho Santa Anita, where they inspected the old home and coachhouse of E. J. "Lucky" Baldwin.

W. C. PAST PRESIDENTS BURN CLUB MORTGAGE

The pleasure of destroying all indebtedness evidence on the Woman's clubhouse yesterday fell to past presidents who in one way or another had ass sted the club in arriving at this eventful and long looked for day. With match in hand Mrs Grace Newhall, Mrs. Nellie C. Pickard, Mrs. Nellie White, Mrs. Bertha Lewis, Mrs. Mattie D. Peck, Mrs. Emma D. Meade, Mrs. Marion Pike, Mrs. Ella Byrne, Mrs. Jessie Stewart, each lighted the mortgage held in a gold miner's pan and with the 100 or more present, watched the flames consume the evidence. With all chattel and property debt entirely eliminated, the organization will open the 1939-40 year in October with very bright prospects.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh presided over the afternoon during which time interesting reports from officers section, department and standing committees were given. Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, music chairman received the prize for the most concise, comprehensive and best report. Mrs. A. R. Chambers, Boy Scout Troop No. 5 chairman, reported the club sponsored troop had increased its membership from 14 in December to 25, and that the first annual father scout dinner, attended by more than 100, had been inagurated in February successfully.

Mrs. Glenn B. Watson, membership chairman, reported 54 new members' names added to the roster, bringing the total to nearly 200. Each present was presented a corsage.

Three charter members — Mrs. Newhall, Mrs. James Stoker, and Mrs. A. L. Parker—were introduced and spoke briefly.

The following officers were duly installed into their respective offices: Mrs. Millspaugh, president; Mrs. Stoker, first vice-president; Mrs. Susan Riess, second vice president; Mrs. Ethel Frentress, recording secretary; Mrs. Ethel Rubottom, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Bertha Larsh, federation secretary; Mrs. Elsie Murfett, treasurer; Mrs. Belle Bonner, program chairman; Miss Eva Reynolds, parliamentarian; Mrs. C. WOMAN'S CLUB MEMBERS BURN CLUB MORTGAGE

As fire yesterday consumed the eight-year old mortgage on the Arcadia Woman's club, representing more than eight years of hard effort, members stood and vigorously applauded.

This happy rite came at the conclusion of the program yesterday at the last meeting of the year held in the clubhouse, making the local club one of the few women's clubs in California without a mortgage. A packed auditorium witnessed the burning.

Mrs. Ina Millspaugh, newly-installed president, presided at the rite at which past presidents and charter members of the club, many of whom had assisted in money-making efforts to pay off the mortgage, lighted the "sacrificial" fire.

The installation ceremony that preceded the "blaze" was conducted by Mrs. Edith Roberts. When officers lined up beside their president to take office a pretty scene resulted with the dainty colors of their frocks forming a background for the service.

OFFICERS NAMED

Those beside the president installed for a second term were: Mrs. Irene Stoker, vice-president; Mrs. Ethel Reiss, second vice-president; Mrs. Ethel Frentress, recording secretary; Mrs. Ethel Rubottom, corresponding secretary; Miss Eva Reynolds, parliamentarian; and Mrs. Olive Hoffman, trustee.

First term officers installed were Mrs. Belle Bonner, program chairman, and Mrs. Betty Craig, trustee.

Mrs. Fanny Needham, outgoing trustee, presented Mrs. Millspaugh with a gorgeous basket of blossoms, on behalf of the club, and Mrs. Eleanor Lucas Gibbs, representing the Juniors, gave her a handsome lace cloth as a gift for the club

One-minute reports were given by club workers and much amusement resulted from the original manner in which they were presented. Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, music chairman, won a prize with her report which used the letters of the name, Arcadia Woman's club, as a guideline forming the body of her report.

OTHER REPORTS

Reporting committeemen included Mrs. Emily Mann Timerhoff, chairman history and landmarks section; Mrs. Nellie White, chairman garden section; Mrs. Lulu Randolph, current events; Mrs. Lulu Reynolds, finance; Mrs. Mary Moore; Mrs. Nettie Noack, historian; Mrs. Verona Young, courtesy.

A clever skit represented the joint report of Mrs. Margaret McMaster and Mrs. Gertrude Schenck, decoration chairmen, while Mrs. Mabel Hoover, retiring program chairman, epitomized her year's work in "a clubwoman's work is from sun to sun, but a program chairman's work is never done."

Other reports were given by Mrs. Emmy Kaskel, philanthropy; Mrs. Marie Chambers, Youth Hostel and Boy Scout: Mrs. Gibbs, Arcadia Juniors; Mrs. Needham, trustee; Mrs. Bert Morris, and each officer.

The hospitality committee was introduced by Mrs. Jessie Stewart, chairman, before she gave her report. They were Mesdames Juanita Bunting, Blodwen Ferrante, Leanore Glasser, Alice Moss, Roberta Scheffel, Winnie Tester and Florence Boller.

NEW MEMBERS

Fifty-four new members were announced as the membership gain during the year in the report of Mrs. Ethel Watson, chairman of the membership committee.

Reminiscing brought many laughs when former presidents and charter members told of early day struggles and money-making efforts of other years. Past presidents were Mesdames Nellie C. Pickhard, Marion Pike, Mattie B. Peck, Emma D. Meade, Stewart, White, Ella C. Byrne and Bertha Hawk Lewis.

Flowers bloomed in profusion as presentation bouquets and corsages were given to new members, officers and reporting committeemen. Mrs. Marian Hobbs and Mrs. Dorothy Stoll made the presentations.

NEW SECTION CHAIRMAN

Mrs. White announced during the meeting that she was retiring as garden section chairman and that Mrs. Gladys Murfett would carry on in her place.

The hospitality committee presided at the punch table which was attractively decorated in pink and green, the colors of the club.

Entertain Woman's Club Board Members and Husbands

Mrs. Olive Hoffman and Mrs. Elsie Murfett were co-hostesses at an evening party honoring the members of the executive board of the Arcadia Woman's club at the home of Mrs. Murfett, 617 Fairview avenue.

A social evening was enjoyed with games and refreshments as highlights of the affair.

WOMAN'S CLUB MUSIC SECTION IS ORGANIZED

Music will become a personal adventure to sixteen members of the newly-organized Music Section of the Arcadia Woman's club when they launch their ambitious program for the study of the world's great musical compositions next September.

The section was organized at the home of Mrs. Helen Lumpkin, Wednesday afternoon, May 31, with Mrs. Lumpkin as chairman. She will be assisted by Mrs. Mabel Hoover as vice-chairman; Mrs. Maxine Balling, secretary; Mrs. Ethel Frentress, treasurer, and Mrs. Betty Craig, transportation chairman.

Plans for studying symphonies, operas, the history of music and the evolution of musical instruments have been made. Noted musical personalities will be obtained as speakers to discuss various aspects of music and book reviews and critical reports of concerts will be given by members.

An attempt will be made to hold meetings during important musical broadcasts and symphonies and classical numbers will be studied through the medium of phonograph records.

A barbecue is planned for July as one of the first social events of the new group. Members will attend the Hollywood Bowl concerts in a body during the coming season.

Charter members include, besides the officers named above, Mesdames Sally Schanbacher, Bessie Vanderbur, Fanny Needham, Juliet Renshaw, Harriet Barngrover, Susan Riess, Caroline Ganther, Irene Culver, Margaret Perry, Flora McCaleb, and Anna Lumpkin.

ARCADIA, THE BEAUTIFUL

Oh beautiful for spacious skies
For sun and showers of rain
For purple mountain majesties

CHORUS:
Arcadia, Arcadia
God send his smile on thee
And crown thy good with brotherhood
And wealth of blossoming tree.

Oh beautiful for poets dream
That sees beyond the years
Thine avenues and streets agleam
With beauty that endears.

CHORUS:
Arcadia, Arcadia
God send his smile on thee
And crown thy good with brotherhood
And wealth of blossoming tree.

Reciprocity Day Is Feature of Club

Continental Dancers and Speakers Entertain

Reciprocity Day, the annual guest day at the Shakespeare Club, was held yesterday in honor of presidents of the 20 or more clubs which have entertained the Shakespeare Club throughout the year. Guests assembled at 11 o'clock in the morning, and each was introduced to a member of the local club, who acted as hostess during the day.

Featured by two addresses, "Finding a Byzantine Art Gallery," by Dr. Edgar J. Goodspeed, Ph.D., D.D.; "Can Democracy Survive in the World Today?" by Lawrence D. Pritchard, assistant director of coordination at the University of Southern California; a group of dances by the continental dance artists, Sonia, Ricardo and Dolores, and solos by Robert Grandon, dramatic tenor of the Los Angeles Civic Opera Company, the program offered a variety of entertainment for the guests assembled.

Dr. Goodspeed's talk was a personal narrative of the long and successful search for a Greek manuscript of the New Testament, the speaker being presented by the Bible department, of which Mrs. Torrance Phelps is chairman.

Fulfilling a lifelong desire to find a complete manuscript, Dr. Goodspeed spent many months searching through antique shops in almost every country in Europe, and finally located an especially fine copy in Paris, France.

Several colored photographs of pages from the manuscript showing the delicate Greek lettering and the exquisite painted illustrations were shown by the speaker.

At the luncheon hour, Mrs. Arthur P. Will, president, brought news of the federation convention recently held in San Francisco. Miss Lillie Gove introduced each guest president and told which club each represented.

Mr. Pritchard was the luncheon speaker, introduced by Mrs. L. Clifford Kenworthy. "My hope for the future success of a democratic form of government lies in career service, to be brought about by the establishment of schools where gifted young people may be trained for administrative positions as they are trained for the professions," the young executive declared.

The annual report of the Beatrandas was read by Mrs. George L. Schuler at the short business meeting called by Mrs. Arthur P. Wills, president. Mrs. Oscar Elyrum, incoming president of the Los Angeles District Federation, spoke briefly on the recent convention.

For the afternoon program, Mrs. C. H. Funk, program chairman, presented the dance artists, who appeared in colorful costumes and interpreted Swiss, Italian, Hawaiian and Spanish dances. Their final number was the presentation of gifts to a Chinese Buddha, impersonated by Ricardo. Narrator was Lynn Shannon.

Mr. Grandon was enthusiastically received. Serga Malavsky, pianist, accompanied both the singer and the dancers.

Tea was served by the Shakespeare department, of which Miss Anne Mathewson Morse is director. Pouring were Mrs. E. R. Blanchard, Mrs. E. N. Fussell and Mrs. Bernice M. Shank.

Dolls in Continental costumes, contributed by Mrs. W. F. Holden, decorated the tea tables.

HISTORY OF ARCADIA WOMAN'S CLUB 1938-1939

The Club year opened on October 5, with almost an entire new executive board on hand to welcome club members, eight new officers having been installed at the last meeting in June. Mrs. Millspaugh, who so ably served the club as treasurer the previous two years, again demonstrated her ability in club work, by serving as president in one of the most successful years in club history.

The club house presented a gala appearance for its opening day, having been thoroughly cleaned, renovated and repaired during the vacation period, under the supervision of the executive board, who spent many hours of thoughtful planning to have everything in readiness for a successful and inspiring opening.

During the summer, a new stove which adequately serves the culinary needs of all club functions, was installed in the kitchen and was financed by two very successful affairs; a garden bridge tea on August 2, and a steak dinner on October 22, the latter affair was prepared and served by the husbands of club members. Another much-needed addition to our kitchen equipment was the purchase of two electric coffee makers, with a capacity of fifty cups each. A steel filing cabinet was also purchased for the storage and preservation of all press books and club documents.

Mrs. Watson and her membership committee have been very active as evidenced by the growth of our club during 1938-1939. Fifty-Four new members were added to our club roster, bringing the total of paid-up memberships to 160 . A reception and tea was given under the auspices of this committee at the Club House September 28 to honor and welcome new members and new-comers to Arcadia who might become interested in club work. One of the features of the afternoon was a style show conducted by the Nash Company of Pasadena.

which was greatly enjoyed by more than 150 ladies present.

The 12th Annual Flower Show sponsored by the Garden Section was held at the Club House November 15, under the direction of Mrs. Nellie White, section chairman. This event is a community affair, although year by year it is attracting additional interest and exhibits from neighboring communities. Another activity of this section is celebration of Peach Blossom Festival which this year was held on March 15 and was the 5th annual celebration. It is hoped that through the efforts of this section in interesting Arcadians to plant peach trees, Arcadia will be known in future years as the peach blossom city.

The History and Landmarks Section, under the capable leadership of Mrs. Timerhoff who is serving her 5th year as chairman, has been active all during the year, holding regular meetings and making many trips of interest to its members. Of special interest was the program staged at the Club House, February 1, by the section members which was so much enjoyed and appreciated by the large audience present.

The Junior Section which was organized in November 1937 has had a most interesting and active year, holding regular meetings at the homes of its members. This section which numbers eighteen paid-up members became a Federated Club in April 1938 and is also represented on the Board of the Thrift Shop. Elanore Lucas Gibbs, chairman of the section, became the bride of Wm. Gibbs, June 6 at a prettily appointed home wedding.

Of special interest and intellectual benefit to the club was the Current Events Section under the capable direction of Mrs. Randolph, who throughout the year brought to our club many speakers on subjects of national importance. Particularly interesting was the
